The Best Things Are At Home

By F. H. MacArthur
I've heard men speak of treasures rich
That lie beyond the sea,
Of loyal friends and smiling lands
That call to you and me.
And so I left my own dear folk
To travel here and there;
But oh, the rainbow's end got lost
In fogs of grief and care.
At last with heavy heart I came
Back to my childhood fold,
And lo! the friends I sought
Were there,
And in each heart the gold.

Blind, Retired Farmer Envy Of Youngsters; Owns Fun Park

ALLSA CRAIG, Ont. (CP) — A blind, retired farmer in this village 18 miles northwest of London has achieved the dream of many a youngster — he owns his own amusement park.

Melvin Robinson, 70, built and runs a ferris wheel, merry-go-round and other rides, all in miniature. One electric motor runs the whole midway.

His grandchildren and their friends bring him their discarded toys to be incorporated into the show. Included in the midway is a stock-car raceway. One of the cars runs slower than the rest and Mr. Robinson has built a ramp over it to allow the others to pass.

He now is working on a miniature he calls the "ride-a-whip." At first he intends to run it by hand, using the wheel of an old hand-powered washing machine until he can get the feel of it and decide how much power it needs.

They were on the Indian reserve in the Kenora, Ont., area. Miss Ford told of missionary work in Newfoundland and gave a picturesque account of her Island home Bermuda. Offering was taken for the home missions from the Bideford Sunday school and Rev. J. A. MacDonald congratulated the girls on their worthwhile work in Deaconess missions. Together they will wish for these girls along with Miss Joan Large of Charlottetown and all others goes back with them to the Presbyterian Deaconess Training College, Toronto, Ont.

BOB HOPE STARS AT THE CAPITOL THEATRE SUMMERSIDE

America's clown prince of comedy, Bob Hope, finds a new area for his hilarious maneuvers in Paramount's comedy with music "Off Limits," now at Capitol Theatre Summerside.

Starred with Bob in this merry melange of comedy and song are Mickey Rooney, Marilyn Maxwell and Eddie Mayhoff. Together they make an irresistible quartette of funmakers, reportedly bombarding the screen with an hour and a half of unrestrained merriment.

Bob answers the call of khaki in "Off Limits," seen as a Military Policeman more interested in managing prize-fighters and in wooing curvaceous Marilyn Maxwell than in controlling unruly soldiers.

Rooney enters the picture as a draftee eager to have Hope make him into a fighter. Hope and Maxwell make a leather-slinger until they learn that Miss Maxwell is the lad's aunt and from then on in Bob's life is strewn with complications.

During 1954 a great many men are going to start on the path towards financial security for themselves in their later years and for their dependents in the meantime. Will you be one of them?

If so, you will want to consider The Imperial Life's new Security at 65 plan as a guaranteed method of finishing what you set out to do. Four units of the plan, for instance, will provide, if you live to age 65, $100.00 a month income for life, or $16,230.00 as a single cash payment.

If you die before age 65 your dependents receive $20,000.00 in cash. Other choices of settlement if you want to stop the plan before age 65 or if your need for protection for dependents continues beyond age 65 make the plan very adaptable in fitting it to possible changes in your circumstances.

The Company also issues a Security at 60 plan with death benefit provisions before age 60 and with similar income or cash options, but to be taken at age 60.

If you would like further information on either of these plans, see your Imperial Life man today—or fill in the attached enquiry form, and mail it to the Company's Head Office. No cost or obligation to you, of course.
