WORDS FOR THE WORLD
On "United Nations Day", followers of the Baha'i World Faith join with all peace-loving peoples in looking to the United Nations with heartfelt hope that it may inaugurate the age of close and continuing collaboration among the nations of the earth.

WORDS FOR THE WORLD

On this occasion, the following excerpts are quoted from "A Baha'i Declaration of Human Obligations and Rights" presented to the United Nations Human Rights Commission in 1947:
"The source of human rights is the endowment of qualities, virtues and powers which God has bestowed upon mankind without discrimination of sex, race, creed or nations. To fulfill the possibilities of this divine endowment is the purpose of human existence."

A pretty fall wedding of widespread interest was solemnized on Saturday, September 12, in Wesley Memorial United Church, Moncton, when Florida Llewellyn, daughter of Mrs. Thomas and the late Francis Thomas, West Covehead, was united in marriage to Clarence Leslie, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, Saint John, N. B. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. C. Johnson, in the presence of relatives and friends.
The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother Albert, by whom she was given in marriage. She chose a strapless ballerina-length gown of nylon net over satin, with satin jacket coming to points at the wrists, and covered tiny buttons to the waistline in front. Her gown was an original Blue Bird model. Her veil of tulle illusion fell from a cascade bouquet of American Beauty Roses, and wore pearl earrings, the gift of the groom.
Attending as matron of honor was Miss Evelyn Parkhill, wearing an ankle-length gown of yellow nylon net over taffeta, with matching headress and mitts. She carried a nosegay of red roses and white carnations.
The bridesmaid was Miss Maude Harris, who wore an ankle-length gown of shrimp, nylon net over taffeta with matching headress and mitts, and carried a nosegay of yellow roses and carnations.

Ferguson-Thomas Wedding

Attending the groom was his brother, Mr. Lorne Ferguson, and ushers were the groom's uncle, Mr. Clarence Stackford and Mr. Don Milburn.
The bride's mother wore a dress of royal blue crepe, with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses, and the groom's mother was attired in a gown of black with black and white accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.
During the signing of the register Miss Kay Carras sang "O Promise Me". Miss Marion Murray played the organ music.
Following the ceremony a reception was held for nearly 60 guests in the church hall. The bride's table was beautifully appointed and centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Mr. Ralph Hutchison proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom.
Mrs. Ralph Hutchison and Mrs. Don Milburn presided over the tea cups. Out-of-town guests from Hillsboro, Saint John, Lunenburg, Halifax, Bridgewater and P. E. I. attended the wedding. Miss Louise Jones had charge of the guest book.
Amid showers of confetti the bride and groom left by car for a honeymoon trip to be spent in the New England States and P. E. I. For travelling the bride chose a tailored light blue suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.
Prior to her marriage Mrs. Ferguson was honored at several miscellaneous showers.
On their return Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will take up residence in Saint John, where the groom is employed with the Canadian National Railway. The bride was formerly a member of the staff of the T. Eaton Co., Ltd. Moncton.
Anglo-Saxon migrations from the continent of Europe to Britain began in 449 AD at Dover.
