THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 14, 1878.

A year and a half have rolled away; and the DAILY EXAMINER still lives.

Indeed it may now be truly said that the DAILY EXAMINER is one of the "institutions" of the Province.

An appetite for a daily paper has been formed; and, judging by the increasing sales of the DAILY EXAMINER in the city, along the line of railway, and in the various towns throughout the Province, it is doubtful if the people could live without their daily paper.

Hard though the times and dark the prospect of the coming winter, it is our intention to continue the publication of the DAILY EXAMINER, so that the popular demand may be supplied.

Throughout the winter we intend to supply to the public, by means of the DAILY EXAMINER, a daily telegram containing news of all the notable events which shall transpire throughout the world in this great crisis of its history.

Through the DAILY EXAMINER the people of the Island shall—from day to day—and, independently of the Northern Light or Muttart and Irving—be informed of what is transpiring in Afghanistan, in Russia, in Germany, in the neighboring Republic, and most important of all—in the mother country.

We shall, if possible, send a special correspondent to report for the DAILY EXAMINER the Parliamentary proceedings at Ottawa, with special reference to those which most directly and most deeply interest the people of this Island.

The local news shall be given through the DAILY EXAMINER promptly, truly and as full as possible.

For the large means required to carry out this work we look to the people who want the DAILY EXAMINER will supply, and whose varied interests we shall assiduously endeavor to promote.

The original subscribers of the DAILY EXAMINER will, in the course of a few days, be called upon for a renewal of their favors.

The beginning of another term is a good time to subscribe; and persons who have not hitherto taken the DAILY EXAMINER would do well to subscribe now.

In connection with the DAILY EXAMINER the WEEKLY EXAMINER will be issued, at the unprecedentedly low subscription price of ONE DOLLAR a year—payment to be made in advance.

Kensington Notes.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Your neat little daily still lives and seems to flourish. Were it not for it, we, here, and in many places elsewhere, would be deprived of that news which an enquiring public so earnestly seek.

Our meeting, as announced, came off here last night. It was a "dead shot" at the powers that be (at present) and a strong indication of a sorry time ahead for our present "Rump" Ministry. The Summerside Band was in attendance and a kind of took the harm out of the immense blows so unmercifully dealt by the speakers. Nine-tenths of all present, numbering in all about two hundred, were all good and true.

F. McNeill, Esq., the hero of Summerside, was the first to speak—and well he did it. He was most attentively listened to. He made a big impression. He was followed by William Campbell, Esq., who went into the actions of the present Government since its inauguration, and showed most conclusively and to the entire satisfaction and gratification of all present, with the following exception, namely: Messrs. Ross, Brown, Pound and Montgomery the unwise and extravagant course pursued by our Parliamentary wiseacres since they got the reins and their brazen audacity in attempting to hold on to power until the House meets. He was loudly cheered, and just as he closed his unvarnished indictment against the present Government, the Band struck up the well timed and cheering air, "The Campbells are Coming, O ho! O ho!" and, as if by a spirit of prophecy, a young lad just at my elbow at the same time said, "And Davies is Running, ha, ha, ha!"

The next speaker was Wm. Ross, Esq. He said the present Government was just as economical as their predecessors. Hence his desire to see them have a further trial. He would wish to see them bridge through the coming session, when he believed they (the present Government) would come out all right in the end. But he couldn't get the audience to think with him, which made it much more difficult to speak on the subject.

D. Rogers, Esq., Summerside, was next to speak. He denounced the Government in all their actions in the most unmeasured terms. He said that Messrs. Lefurgey, DeBlois, Gordon and Prowse would not support the present Government at their next session; and in this he was not contradicted, as none seemed to know. He, too, like all who preceded him against the Government, was loudly applauded.

Other minor speakers then followed each other—some of whom used long-tail language in behalf of the Government. But it was like casting pearls before swine. The people wouldn't listen to it, nor would they believe it; nor would you. A strong resolution was carried, asking the Government to come down and out at once. Had there been any members of the Government present, I really think they would do so instantly.

SPECTATOR.

Hunter River Station.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—As most places are commented upon as to their prosperity or decline, perhaps a few remarks about Hunter River may not be out of season.

Since the cars commenced running the above named place has been on the increase and advance. We now have—for the local residents and travelling public—a good and comfortable boarding house. The proprietor—Mr. Bagnall—is a man worthy of the highest estimation and patronage, being courteous and obliging in his transactions. In connection with this establishment is a lime kiln for the convenience and advantage of the farming community. Then, again, we have the store of Mr. Alex. McMillan, who is being extensively patronized; but for want of accommodation cannot make such a grand display as Mr. Peter McGrath, who is steadily increasing and enlarging his shop and store house.

Then, again, we have Mr. T. S. McLeod's tailoring establishment, remarkable for good fits and quick despatch. Nearer the bridge we have the cordwainer and blacksmith, both, we understand, doing a good business; next in rotation comes Mr. John McDonald, carriage builder, who has lately changed the position of his buildings to make room next spring for another enterprising merchant. And last, though not least, there has been erected this summer a public hall, which was opened last Sunday by the Rev. J. G. Yelland in the afternoon, and service again in the evening by the Rev. Wm. Grant. Both services were well attended. In the evening it was estimated there were between 300 and 400 present. This building has been long and urgently required for public meetings, etc. In fact, we venture to predict a glorious future for Hunter River. We cannot, however, conclude these few remarks without according to the Committee—namely, Mr. D. Bertram, Mr. T. S. McLeod, and the Secretary, Captain Spence—the greatest credit for the zeal and energy they displayed in having completed such a building in so short a time; and it is to be hoped that His Honor Judge Alley will find himself ere long comfortably seated in our new hall, dealing out justice to all in so central a place as Hunter River, and not at out-of-the-way New Glasgow.

I understand that Captain A. R. Spence has promised to lecture shortly in the Hall; subject—"Travels Through India." Yours, etc., OBSERVER.

Hunter River, Dec. 11, 1878.

Early Rising.

The Ottawa "Herald" says: "Her Royal Highness has been astonishing the sleepy heads of New Edinburgh by her habit of early rising and her capacity as an accomplished pedestrian. This is in keeping with her reputation as a Domestic Economist, and, as early rising involves early hours in other respects, there is good reason to anticipate the best results from this excellent example. We all know how prone people, who desire to be considered fashionable, are to imitate the example of those occupying high social positions, and therefore expect to secure female population:

"Brushing with hasty steps the dews away
To meet the sun upon the upland lawn."

On our way to the office hitherto we were only greeted by the charwomen on the road to clean up the public offices, but hereafter we have no doubt we will be delighted with meeting the bright eyes and blooming cheeks of maids and matrons on their way to pluck the roses of health from the coronal of Aurora.

Curiosities.

A plate of butter from the cream of a joke.

The original brush used in painting the sign of the times.

A bucket of water from "All's well."

Soap with which a man was washed overboard.

The strap which is used to sharpen the water's edge.

The pencil with which Britannia ruled the wave.

A dime from the moon when she gave change for the last quarter.

The saucer belonging to the cup of sorrow.

A fence made of the railing of a scolding wife.

The hammer which broke up the meeting.

A buckle to fasten a laughing stock.

Eggs from the nest of thieves.

Hinges and lock from the trunk of an elephant.

A sketch from a politician's views.

Rockers from the cradle of liberty.

A feather from the wings of a flying report.

Twelve Keeps.

He will keep thee as the apple of His eye.

He will keep thee in all thy ways, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

He will keep thy foot from being taken.

Lest any hurt thee, He will keep thee day and night.

He will keep thee as a shepherd doth his flock.

He will keep thee from the evil that is in the world.

He will keep thee from falling.

He will keep thee from the hour of temptation.

He will keep thee in all places whither thou goest.

He will keep thee in the way and bring thee into the place which He has prepared.

He will keep the feet of His saints.

He will keep that which thou hast committed to him.

QUICK WORK.—The barque "Lizzie Cameron," Capt. Alex. Cameron, master, sailed from Georgetown on the 10th of January last, with a cargo of cats for Queenstown, and discharged at Plymouth, whence she sailed for Charland, and there and at this port loaded another cargo of cats which she also discharged at Plymouth, after calling at Queenstown, and sailed for Shediac and loaded deals for Liverpool, thence to this port with a general cargo, arriving Nov. 6th. She loaded 29,200 bushels oats, and sailed 25th Nov. for Queenstown. This vessel has thus taken four cargoes from this side of the Atlantic in a little over ten months, which, we believe, has never been done before. We congratulate Capt. Cameron on this good work.—Journal.

THE authorities are dealing sharply with illicit liquor vendors in Georgetown. The Advertiser reports: Before Wm. Sanderson and Ezra Wickwire, Esquires, two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and the following parties were convicted and fined for selling spirituous liquors without license: Thomas Ledwell, fined $40 and costs; McDonald & Westaway, fined $40 and costs; R. R. McDonald, fined $20 and costs. The case of D. Grant was postponed until the 19th inst., for further consideration. The others gave notice of appealing to the Supreme Court.

EXPORTS AT STURGEON AND ST. MARY'S BAY.—The following figures will show the amount of produce shipped this fall at the wharves at Sturgeon and St. Mary's Bay: At St. Mary's Bay Wharf, 18,500 bush. potatoes, 5,000 bush. oats, 1,000 bush. turnips; at Sturgeon Wharf, 16,700 bush. potatoes, 1,000 bush. oats, 500 bush. turnips, besides a quantity of pork, beef and live pigs. We are glad to learn that the increase over the shipments of last fall is very remarkable—nearly double the quantity.—K. C. Advertiser.

"Prince Bismarck's so-called fellow creatures" is the happy term invented by Count von Arnim.
