Midsummer Examination—List of Prizes

QUEEN SQUARE SCHOOL.

The staff of this school consists of Mr. Gaul, (Principal) Mr. Smith, Mr. Curran, Miss Fennessey, Miss Farmer and Miss McKenna.

The school is progressive in improvement. The examination held to-day was, on the whole, more satisfactory than that of any former year.

Miss McKenna's class-room was overcrowded; and in the rooms of Miss Farmer and Miss Fennessey there was not, we believe, a single form vacant.

After the examination there was an entertainment in the upper Hall of the school building—of which the following is the Rev. Father Carroll expressed his regret that he had not been able to attend the examination of the classes. He was glad, however, to note that the boys who carried off the prizes were the boys whose good behavior he had noticed throughout the year.

Cornwall Cheese Factory.

A meeting of the patrons of the Cornwall Cheese Factory was held at the factory, on Wednesday evening, the 25th inst. There was a large attendance. On motion, Mr. Zecariah Mayhew was appointed Chairman, and Mr. Allan McPhee Secretary.

The Chairman and many of the patrons spoke warmly in favor of supporting the factory, and expressed themselves well satisfied with the management and the returns obtained for their milk, notwithstanding the low prices current last season.

The Rev. Henry Levers, who was present, also addressed the meeting, advocating the factory system, which would prove of great advantage to farmers within its reach, and he hoped it would be more generally patronized in future.

After some further explanation from the manager, with reference to the price obtained for cheese last year, it was moved and carried unanimously that a committee be appointed to canvass for more patrons for the factory.

The following gentlemen were chosen to comprise the committee:—Angus McDonald, Allan McPhee, Samuel Howard, Allan McLean, Henry Hyde.

It was further moved by Mr. George Scott, and seconded by Mr. Allan McLean: Resolved, That the statements made by Mr. Newbery, regarding the working of the factory and the explanation of the settlements made for cheese last season, are deemed satisfactory to this meeting, and that the committee make known this fact in soliciting for new patrons.

The meeting then adjourned.
