STOCK QUOTATIONS

Morning Stock Letter

(Received over Pittfield and Co's Private Wire)

NEW YORK, April 30—Sterling and the French franc are about the same this morning but Swiss francs are lower. Stocks rallied on the Paris Bourse today, London market continued reactionary. There is no change in the morning news from abroad. Bethlehem Steel after the close will report earnings for the first quarter and will also take action on the preferred dividend. We would look on again this morning until there is some evidence of a let-up in liquidation.

NEW YORK, April 30—The handicap put upon speculative buying of stocks by the new margin requirements was put in bold relief yesterday by the sharp decline in a number of leading issues. Selling at no time was in real heavy volume, but the buying power was not there to absorb what was being sold.

By Frank MacMillan, Associated Press Financial Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, April 30.—Stock market prices swung into a vigorous rally late in today's session and earlier losses of 1 to 4 or more points were transformed into recoveries or as much. The change of front was attributed by brokers more to technical factors than to any news stimulation. While quoted values still had some distance to climb back to the level from which they were dislodged, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks recorded a net advance of 9 or a point at 58.2. Transfers totalled 2,328,670 shares against 1,785,400 yesterday. Bethlehem Steel ended at its top for the day up 3 1/2 points at 49 1/2. U. S. Steel showed a gain of 2 points at 57 1/2. Gains of 1 to 2 or so were shown by New York Central at 34 1/2, Southern Pacific at 30 1/2, Delaware & Hudson at 39 and Santa Fe at 70 1/2. Except for International Nickel the Canadian list displayed a series of minus signs at the close. Dome Mines ended off 1 1/2 at 51 1/2 and McIntyre-Porcupine lost 2 1/2 at 42. Distillers Seagrams, up 1/2 showed the only gain, the rest of the list being unchanged or off fractionally.

Vigorous Rally On New York Exchange

Distillers Seagrams, up 1/2 showed the only gain, the rest of the list being unchanged or off fractionally.

Spotlight centred for a time on Smelters which dropped more than eight points to 250 but rallied to finish at 256, off 2 1-2 points net. Nickel came back at the close and finished up 1-8 at 45 1-8 on turnover of more than 7,000 shares. Canadian Hydro-Electric preferred, off 4 1-2 at 26, showed the outstanding loss. Canada Northern Power, Southern Canada, and Shawinigan eased a little while Brazilian gained 1-8. A higher trend ruled for papers during early dealings but selling later brought fractional losses for Howard Smith and St. Lawrence Corporation preferred. Smith preferred lost more than a point. Canada Cement worked up 1-8 while Distillers Seagrams and Bruck Silk eased about 1/2 each. Sales 28,402 shares; bonds $6,300.

Slump Continues On Mtl. Exchange

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, April 30—Late advances in Wall Street and Toronto failed to pull Montreal Stock Exchange list out of its slump today and losses of as much as four points were in evidence. A number of issues steadied and finished unchanged, but selling continued to depress metals, utilities and papers. Constructions were steady. Spotlight centred for a time on Smelters which dropped more than eight points to 250 but rallied to finish at 256, off 2 1-2 points net. Nickel came back at the close and finished up 1-8 at 45 1-8 on turnover of more than 7,000 shares. Canadian Hydro-Electric preferred, off 4 1-2 at 26, showed the outstanding loss. Canada Northern Power, Southern Canada, and Shawinigan eased a little while Brazilian gained 1-8.
