Les dernières nouvelles d'Ottawa vont à dire que le parlement fédéral sera convoqué, pour la fin de janvier ou le commencement de février. Par conséquent pas d'élections avant une autre session.

En jouant avec des allumettes dans une cabane voisine de la maison de leurs parents, à Newport, R. I., les deux enfants de M. John Anderson, ont mis le feu à un tas de paille et ont été brûlés vifs.

Nous n'avons pas toujours un médecin sous la main. Prenez vos précautions contre les rhumes soudains en gardant une bouteille de Pair-Killer dans la maison. Évitez les contrefaçons, il n'y a qu'un de bon c'est celui de Perry Davis, 25c et 50c.

A Jack's Lake, Ont., tandis qu'un mineur, Peter Weese, préparait des cartouches de dynamite, une explosion se produisit et Meese fut littéralement réduit en bouillie, si bien que ce qui reste ne vaut pas la peine de funérailles. Un compagnon a les deux mains enlevées et les deux yeux crevés.

Un sauvage comparaisait, l'autre jour, devant le magistrat Kay, à Moncton, pour ivresse. Le micmac admit qu'il s'était enivré, mais, dit-il, puisqu'on nous croit si inférieurs aux autres races qu'on ne nous fait payer que moitié prix sur les chars, je crois qu'il n'est que juste que vous ne me fassiez payer que la moitié de l'amende ordinaire imposée à ceux de votre nationalité qui s'enivrent. Le magistrat accepta cet argument et laissa aller l'accusé à moitié prix.

Au hameau de Housse, situé à vingt milles de Nice, dans une région montagneuse, un aigle a enlevé un enfant. Cet événement a plongé le hameau dans la consternation. Un berger a vu l'oiseau de proie fondre sur l'enfant et l'enlever dans ses serres, mais il était trop loin pour pouvoir lui porter secours. Des recherches ont été faites dans les rochers autour d'Housse, où on suppose que l'aigle a son aire, mais on n'a découvert aucune trace de l'enfant.

PAIN CRASSED FIRST DAY Miss Mary O'Dell, 262 Dunn Ave., Toronto, says: She used Milburn's Rheumatic Pills for a severe attack of Rheumatism and she got relief from pain after taking the remedy one day.

Son excellence le gouverneur-général a reçu du Bureau de la guerre, une réponse négative à l'offre d'un second contingent canadien, pour la compagnie d'Afrique. On s'attendait généralement que cette offre serait refusée. Cependant, des centaines de patriotes, qui n'avaient pu faire partie du premier contingent se rattachaient à l'espoir que le gouvernement en enverrait un second. La raison, pour laquelle le gouvernement anglais a cru devoir refuser l'offre du Canada, est probablement la crainte que les autres puissances européennes ne s'imaginent que l'Angleterre n'est pas capable de faire la guerre sans l'aide de ses colonies. Le ministre de la milice, à Ottawa et ses officiers ne sont pas les moins déçus, car ils étaient anxieux de montrer de nouveau qu'ils peuvent enrôler, équiper et envoyer mille hommes, en dix jours.

Dit un journal anglais: "Chaque année un journal local donne gratuitement pour une valeur de $500 à $5,000 de matière pour l'avantage de ceux au milieu desquels il se publie. Nulle autre agence ne voudrait ni ne pourrait faire cela. Le journaliste, en proportion de ses moyens, fait plus pour sa localité qu'aucun autre individu, et en toute justice il devrait être encouragé—non parce que vous pourriez l'aimer ou admirer ses écrits, mais parce que le journal local est la meilleure annonce que puisse faire une localité. Il peut n'être pas rempli de grandes idées, mais financièrement il vaut mieux que l'instituteur et même le prêcheur. Aujourd'hui les éditeurs de journaux locaux font plus, pour moins d'argent, que n'importe qui sur la terre. Encouragez votre journal local, non par charité, mais parce que c'est un bon placement. Si vous en avez le moyen, recevez les grands journaux des villes, mais n'oubliez pas que votre premier devoir est d'encourager votre journal local et qu'il y va de votre propre intérêt de le faire.

BEAUTIFUL BRITAIN.

Views of Stately Houses, Photographs Taken by Permission of Her Majesty, The Queen, and By favor of the Nobleman and Gentlemen who Own these Historic Places FOR all Americans there is an unending interest in the scenes and places of that historic little country that gave us our laws, our language, our conquering instinct and our faith. Divided many times by the bitterness of those contests that have made us what we are, shutters again to us and we to her, as the Mother Land whose splendid story is also so largely ours, and in common with whom we claim the genius Shakespeare, the laws of Alfred and the dominant instinct of that Saxon lineage which wins and conquers and subdues by processes known to us two alone; the American and the British side by side. And as the centuries have passed England has grown nearer to us. She is no longer a far-off land of which we have only heard. The first voyagers of those who made America, and made it English, occupied nine stormy and perilous weeks. It required two centuries to reduce that time one-half. Now our green shores and the white cliffs of Albion lie less than one week apart, and for thirty years we have talked with England under the sea in a common language, about common interests. To go and to return is an incident of daily life. The Saxon, English and American, travels more than any other man, and with a stouter purpose to see, to know and to appreciate, England and America exchange visits every year in the person of thousands of individuals. The Briton finds with us brighter skies, and higher mountains, and larger rivers, and broader lakes, and taller trees, and more stupendous waterfalls than his islands know. And for the old, the storied, the historic, we go to him. What he has is in a sense our own. It is a hand-made and a time-mellowed beauty; for us the beauty of history and association, ours as well as his. We give him stupendous nature dotted with new cities that seem old enough to us. He gives us the story of our common race written in piled stones and clustering ivy, representing the toil and hope of centuries; a toil and hope which we inherited, and whose memorials are also ours.

A MOTHER'S VALUABLE ASSISTANT

Home Occupations for Little Children By KATHERINE BEEBE. WHAT Miss Beebe's "First School Year" is to the primary teacher this little volume is intended to be to mothers. Miss Beebe believes that the ceaseless activity of children calls for employment, and "Home Occupations" is full of ways and means for mothers. Enthusiastically endorsed by the press and leading kindergarten teachers.

FROM THE NEW YORK WORLD. "Home Occupations will be welcomed by weary mothers, for it is very clever and full of hints and suggestions they can carry out." FROM THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS. "Home Occupations should be read by all mothers, and all other people who have the care and training of infant minds." "One of the most valuable features of the book is the extent to which home materials and home-made contrivances are brought into play. Cedar blocks, sand, clay, bones, scissors, paper, paper, pencils, beads, garden tools, flowers, fruits, black boards, and nearly everything called into requisition by Miss Beebe's methods, are within easy reach of most of those into whose hands her book will fall." FROM THE BOOKSELLER. "Home Occupations for Little Children, by Katherine Beebe, a well-known kindergarten teacher, of Evanston, Ill., will be welcomed by busy mothers, who will find it full of valuable suggestions to aid in rearing their little ones. Many gross and disagreeable children would be speedily reformed to good nature if their mother or nurse have energy to read the book. The material used to some pleasant occupation without too great interference with its own freedom." FROM THE KINDERGARTEN MAGAZINE. "Any mother with the problem of restless little people to lead into the path of usefulness and usefulness, can find much assistance in Miss Beebe's little book, and would do well to avail herself of its thoughtful suggestions."
