Royals Should End It

OLD Spain Penguins should end their play in the Island Intermediate "A" League tonight. All that's needed for that to become a reality is a Parkdale Royals triumph when Sandy's boys clash with Bucko Trainers' lads at 8:15 at the Sports Arena.

The way things have been going of late would indicate that the Royals will wind up the best-of-seven set tonight and stand by awaiting the winner of the Combines-Eagles series. The Penguins' course will probably be somewhat smoother at our suggestion that tonight will terminate things. But we honestly cannot figure the birds. Birds to carry this series very further.

It could be that on your suggestion to the Penguins that "they've had it" will be just what was needed to bring about another decision. They tried hard last Tuesday night but they had many lapses and their clearing under their own net was unimpressive for Penguins fans to watch them passing last night. To be desired and that play never did get organized.

Young Donnie Frizzell again worked his heart out in the Old Spain cage. It was surely a fact that he is a right goal guard by him. He was terrific on plenty of others that if he had been bad, the Royals could have run away with the decision.

Goaltending Problem
SPEAKING OF Donnie Frizzell brings to mind the questions that have come our way with regard to Penguins' goaltending chores.

A number of folks have been inquiring why coach Trainor isn't using his junior goalie, Cliff Senter, in this series with the Royals. Some folks have figured that Senter needs the practice before he gets into Maritime Junior playdowns.

And so we went and asked the twins, knowing that Donnie wasn't an eligible one until junior playdowns get rolling. "Bucko" realized it was a fair question and he wanted to know when he was leaving. He insisted he was doing what he thought best for Senter and he for the team.

Frizzell was not properly until January 25. "Bucko" figures the boy is short on work as yet and that he needs further practice before going good enough to be used against the go-ahead Royals. Trainor says a large number of Royals' goals one might credit easily to the fact that Frizzell didn't do his job.

SEVENTH RACE
The exhibition game won by the Penguins 6-3. Cliff wasn't too busy that afternoon but what he had to do, he carried out most capably.

NO vote of no-confidence in Cliff that he isn't playing this Royals' series. Trainor figures it's best to concerned and he's not for the future of the Penguins as a junior squad. And he is, after all, the man who must make the decisions.

We promised several folks that we would be in the thoughts he had on the matter. If you still don't agree, we're sorry but we can do no better than we've done.

Summerside Boys Shine
SUMMERSIDE boys playing with the Penguins had a great night Tuesday, scoring four of the five Old Spain goals.

Top Toy' Gallant scored the first two. Dave Martin got the third in a beautiful effort. The Royals' goal scored the fourth after he was awarded a penalty shot.

Westerners surely have a right to do a little boasting.

Toy Toy' Getting Better

As the season advances, and the lads get more important, Loy "Toy-Toy" Gallant keeps getting better and better. We're all hoping that this boy will open the door a little wider the next time opportunity knocks. If the Penguins will get the once over from a few scousers and maybe one of the offers will be just what he wants.

Bob Slegh is one of those players who never give up. In last Sunday's game with the Combines one of the Penguins' fault was his spraying on the ice, and while he was apparently "hors de combat" he kept his stick around and a locked the puck into the net. We don't blame Thomas for

Hardly Find Fault
Playing with two forward lines instead of three is something we've advocated for a long while so we can hardly find fault with the Combines for adopting that system. We're not intent to criticize the coach's choice of players either. Naturally we can't feel exactly the same about a player's worth, and one's man guess is probably as good as another's. We do feel a bit disappointed that Al Andrews has so far been on the sidelines. If there were a prize for improvement and we had a vote, certainly Andrews would have to get serious consideration.

Taking For Granted
How we go on! Taking for granted that the Combines will be playing the Royals in the final. The Eagles may soon give us the old horse laugh for that. The foregoing is either a mixed metaphor, or a badly mixed-up bird.

Combines Capture Lead; Royals Trounce RCAF Eagles 4-4
As time was running out, then Al Andrews and Roy MacArthur got minor penalties. In quick succession, the Combines, with a two man advantage, turned on the heat. But a goal scored by the Combines in the 10th minute, and the final goal of the game.

Leafs Whip Hawks 6-3 In Wild Tilt

TORONTO (CP)—Frank Mahovlich returning after a one-game injury layoff, scored one goal and assisted on three others Wednesday night as Toronto Maple Leafs defeated Chicago Black Hawks 6-3 in a hard-fought National Hockey League game that had wild second period fever as a side show.

Ron Stewart and his linemate, Ron Stewart, who scored two goals, drew most of the plaudits of those among the 14,109 fans as they helped boost the Leafs into second place over Montreal, seven games behind the first-place Hawks.

PWC Dumps Pirates 60-54
Earl Nicholson's PWC Washington handed Pirata a 60-54 setback in City Basketball League action at Prince of Wales last night.

The Welshmen set a hot pace in the first thirty minutes of the game and appeared as if they were going to run away with the victory. But the powerful opponents 26-23 and continued to dominate the play in the early minutes of the second half.

They widened the gap to 17 points by the end of the first half. The City Students had a struggle in holding off the losers.

PACES WINNERS
Mike Dagg, who has been spearheading the PWC attack in recent games, was on a once again the big gun last night. The desperate defender again swished the twines for 2 points, most by any player in the game.

Dave Hyndman, who again was tops for the Pirates, larking up 21 points.

Officials for the game were: Al. Strang and Ron MacDougall.
