

Frozen to Death. TERRIBLE FATE OF A NEW YORK LADY IN COLORADO.

DENVER, Sept. 26.—Miss J. C. Wilton, of New York, was frozen to death on Tuesday, in making the ascent of Long's Peak. She was caught in a snow storm. She had been spending the season at Colorado Springs, visiting Pike Peak and other points of interest. On Monday evening she went to the house of a guide named Lamb, living at the foot of the Peak, and engaged his son, aged 19, as a guide in ascending the peak next morning. On Tuesday morning they ascended the peak but encountered a fierce snowstorm on their return, during which the lady became chilled. Young Lamb assisted her in the descent the best he could till about 9 at night, when her strength entirely failed. He carried her for half a mile, when, finding his own strength failing, he told her the only chance of saving either lives was for him to leave her and go to his father's house, seven miles distant, for assistance. He left her at 10 o'clock, and returned with assistance at 4 on Wednesday morning, finding the lady frozen to death. The remains were taken to Longmont, to be sent to New York. Miss Wilton was highly refined and a great lover of nature, and very self-reliant. A heavy snowstorm prevails on the mountains to-night.

The Cleanest People in the World.

Holland is the cleanest country in the world, as everybody knows, but no one can understand how very clean cleanliness can be until he visits her little villages. Even the Hague is a wonder of neatness, and on every Friday and Saturday undergoes an indescribable drenching and scouring. Water flies about everywhere on these two days from the hose and garden-squirt in jets, and from tubs and pails in torrents; there is an immense clattering about of women in wooden shoes, and the whisking and scraping of brooms and scrubbing brushes resound on all sides. Not only the windows, but also the sides of the houses are scoured; not only the sidewalk, but the roadway as well, until one thinks that the dikes all over the country have given way at once, and the sea has again come into possession of its ancient domain. But in the smaller towns the swash and gurgle of water seems to go on all the time, and gurgle of water seems to go on all the time, and the people to be absolutely daft on the subject of neatness. But the effects of so much washing and scrubbing is very agreeable, and one immediately feels delight in seeing the peaceable fruits of the virtue which is universally held to be second only to godliness.
