The exhaustive array of facts and deductions passed in review before his hearers in defence of the truths of Christianity cannot fail to be of lasting benefit to this community. This meeting appreciates and heartily endorses the able lecturer's efforts in the cause of religion, and rejoices that he by his great research and natural ability is so eminently qualified for the noble work of battling rgainst infidelity in every form.

A Binghampton (Ala.) despatch reports :—"A large crowd of people assembled at Mount Hope Church, Lamar County, on Sunday morning, to witness the marriage of Julius Shearer and Minnie Moran, two prominent young people of the neighborhood. Just as the preacher began the ceremony Shearer sank to the floor and died in a few moments. He had heart disease, and the excitement of the occasion brought on a fatal attack. Among those present in the church was William Langley, a rejected suitor of Miss Moran. At the first opportunity Langley approached the young lady and told her that providence had interposed to prevent her marriage to Shearer. He insisted that she ought to marry him, as the Lord was clearly on his side. Miss Moran finally consented to marry Langley as soon as Shearer was buried. Shearer's funeral took place the following morning, and that night Langley and Miss Moran were married."

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

Alien Labor in Calais.

CALAIS, Me, July 17.

Yesterday the Deputy United States Marshal served a writ on Henry F. Eaton and Charles H. Eaton, owners of the American House at Calais, for violating the alien labor law. The writ alleges that the Messrs. Eaton contracted with a plumber from the Dominion of Canada. He made a test case. Probably from three hundred to five hundred Americans are in the mills in Milltown, N. B., and a large number of Provincialists come to Calais daily to work on the wharves and vessels. St. Stephen people threaten to retaliate if the law is strictly onforced. It is feared that great damage to the people of both sides of the river will result. If the Government gains the case the employers of labor in Calais and St. Stephen are seriously considering the advisability of discharging all foreign help, and Calais will undoubtedly suffer the greater loss if such a step is taken.

The Atlantic Mail Service.

OTTAWA, July 17.

The contract for the new Atlantic Mail Service undertaken by the Andersons of London, was signed yesterday. The contract calls for a fleet of a speed of twenty knots, capable of performing the journey between the terminal point of Quebec and Plymouth in six days on a tonnage of 6000 tons. Halifax is to be the terminus in winter, and Quebec in summer. It is not known whether the vessels will call at Montreal, but it is presumed that if they carry any considerable amount of freight, it will be necessary to do so. It is expected the new line will be in operation next spring.

It is reported that the Andersons are also to undertake a service between Vancouver, China and Japan.
