

ASK YOUR WIFE IF SHE HAS USED Sunlight SOAP IF SHE HAS NOT

Advise her to enquire from those who do use it. WHAT THEY THINK OF IT? There is nothing we are so proud of as the kind words that are said in its favor by those who have given Sunlight Soap a fair trial.

Gratuit—Comforting. Epps's Cocoa. BREAKFAST. "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal ailment by keeping ourselves well fortified by pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Having enlarged and improved the large store lately occupied by Messrs. J. D. McLeod & Co., we contemplate moving into it next Thursday. Come early, the rush will be great. Clothing, trunks, etc., cheaper than ever.—McKay-Woolen Co. Dec. 5, 93.

He Was Convinced. A man in Nova Scotia was in doubt as to the genuineness of the reported cure of Mrs. Bernard Maguire and ex-Councillor Lingley, of Peterborough, Quebec, by a course of Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic and Hawker's Liver Pills. He went to Squire Lingley, and that gentleman promptly assured him that the testimonials were genuine.

Testing His Honesty. Your druggist is honest if when you ask him for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion he gives you just what you ask for. He knows this is the best form in which to take cod liver oil.

TRUTH is very often used as a synonym for sincerity, and also for honesty or frankness. Sincerity embraces something more than simple truth or frankness. For the truth, in words, sometimes conceals intention or feeling, while sincerity reveals the soul of man. It has another quality. The sincere man is not only honest, but also is honest in mind and intention, free from simulation or hypocrisy. Consequently, sincerity in such high esteem as to declare it the way to heaven and the attainment of the duty of man.

How a Queens County Man Found Permanent Healing. The converse of this presents more familiar examples which will occur to any one. An insurance man, or one who is thought to be insincere, pleases no one, no matter how he may try to convey a favorable impression. His praise is regarded as mere flattery, bestowed for a purpose, and those who are praised feel like resenting the impertinence instead of being grateful for kind words. The insincere man cannot be trusted. He has a false heart, is hypocritical, and is generally weak for insincerity. In many cases a product of cowardice. The weak man attempts to express antagonistic opinions and seeks to conciliate those who he needs not be sincere. He simulates friendship, favors and flatters, and becomes in the end a thorough hypocrite. Sometimes as a part of his hypocrisy he simulates a hearty manner, earnest of purpose, and is only so in words, frank in his manner, honest and just in mind and intention. It is such men that the world is never, even though they may, as they very often do, become fanatical. Sincerity covers a multitude of mental faults.

His Own Experience Tells Fully and Freely some Truths which all Readers of this Paper Should Know.

Here and there, in almost every town of our province, are "chronic" cases over which doctors disagree; cases that become worse year after year. It is to reach such the gentleman to whom these lines refer, and whose portrait is here given, has written the story of his case.

Mr. Branscomb's home is a Chipman, Queens Co., N. B. It was there that a representative of the Groder company called upon him, Sept. 1st, of the present year. His greeting was most cordial. He gladly acknowledged his thanks, giving expression to the following statement:

"It is five years since I first became afflicted with a form of indigestion. Last winter it became more severe, developing into chronic diarrhoea. I cannot tell you how much I suffered for six long weeks. It seemed as though relief could not be found. You will remember how I told you of my condition and asked your advice about taking a bottle of GRODER'S SYRUP. You told me that the medicine was a laxative and might not meet my needs. I delayed buying for a few hours until I began to hope that it would help me. Even my clothes seemed a burden because of bloating of stomach. It was with difficulty that I kept about sufficiently to attend to my business.

But I am a well man now from the use of your remedy. In three days after I bought GRODER'S SYRUP the terrible pain and distress across my stomach were removed. My bowels rapidly assumed a natural, healthy condition. Now I eat and drink as well as I ever could. I have gained constantly in flesh since March last. I am perfectly cured.

It seems a duty for me to state my case fully, that others who suffer as I did may know where to find a cure." Truly yours, E. A. BRANSCOMB.
