

Chinese Leaders Believed Involved In Power Battle

By WILLIAM L. Ryan
Associated Press Staff Writer

At China's power pinnacle, his associates appear to be members of a once-tightly-knit divided into two factions. Communist Premier Mao Tse-tung's revolutionary army of 3,000,000 comrades seem to be the factor that tips the balance.

There are signs that the fierce struggle will bring a Stalin-like power may be using as a handle the record of China's world Communist and foreign policies, culminating last fall in a debacle that destroyed the strong, pro-permitted to continue unchecked," the paper said, "then the Hungarian-type incident or the Khrushchev-type counter-revolutionary coup will take place... and our party will perish."

The struggle seems to involve top figures: Chairman of Government (President) Liu Shao-chi, Premier Chou En-lai, Vice Premier Lin Biao, party General Secretary Teng Hsiao-ping, army staff chief Lin Ching who has headed the secret police apparatus, and others.

In early May, a campaign against "criminals" reached a men under Mao and the secretariat under Teng Hsiao-ping. The vice-chairman Premier Chou had been scheduled to visit Romania. He postponed the trip, possibly because of trouble at home. Last week the journey to Bucharest was in vain. That may be an indication that Chou, at least, is safe.

If he is the future of Mao's old President Liu may be in danger and army staff chief Lin may already be finished.

A rising power, reportedly represented in the press as an authoritative interpreter of Mao's Defence Minister Lin Biao, a hard-line advocate of people's war. He is a party vice-chairman.

INVOLVES VICE-CHAIRMAN

The power pinnacle in the group of five party vice-chairmen under Mao and the secretariat under Teng Hsiao-ping. The vice-chairman Premier Chou had been scheduled to visit Romania. He postponed the trip, possibly because of trouble at home. Last week the journey to Bucharest was in vain. That may be an indication that Chou, at least, is safe.

those who also is in the secretariat.

Also listed on the secretariat are army staff chief Lin, now seemingly headed for oblivion, and Peng Chen, just downgraded. All are politburo members.

Since the current purge began, about 15 lesser but prominent figures have been demoted or disgraced for "modern revisionism" and various "crimes." This implies opposition to the "people's war" doctrine and leaning toward the Soviet type of coexistence and peaceful evolution to Communist party rule.

President Liu seems to be among those being undermined. Those under attack have been associated with the young Communist league and much of today's assault centres on a Canadian flags have been isfications board, the industry department reported Wednesday.

The new standards for red links and paint that will last for the life of the flag were developed by the defence department and the National Research Council.
