Our Book Table.

THE promised continuation of the Siberian exile system is entitled "Plains and Prisons of Western Siberia," in the June number of The Century Magazine. The pictured exiles give one the sensation of being chained to a life-long misery, and but for the glimpses of faithful womanhood, illustrating Scott's lines,—
"When pain and suffering wring the brow,
A ministering angel thou,"
taking their share of exile with husbands and fathers, we might be led to doubt the existence of justice or mercy in the Russian dominions.

There is a good deal of exciting incident in the "Ranchman's Rifle on Crag and Prairie," a paper which occupies some twelve pages of writing and wood-cut illumination.

The second and closing chapters of "The Liar," by Henry James, is followed by "Never So Fair a May Was Seen," by Louisa Bushnell, and a Mohawk poem by Charles Roberts.

The Plantin-Moretus Museum at Antwerp is described and splendidly illustrated. It is not only interesting to the printer's ink fraternity as an antiquarian survival, but as the only old printing-house that has not lost its original belongings—the offices of Gutenberg, of Aldus, of Stephens, and the Elzvir, all having been stripped and reduced to the fuddlements of beer swilling.

"Abraham Lincoln," a history, is interesting, and is written by two of that President's private secretaries. It is doubly interesting in its matter-of-fact statements and supporting letters.

Various items worth the reading complete this June number of The Century Magazine, issued from Union Square, New York City.

The American Magazine and its June illustrations are full of interesting details about Charles Dickens (Junior), Barbadoes, Military Defence, Universities, etc., and contains considerable poetry and some good stories, so that there is very little chance of disappointment to even the casual reader, who takes up for profit this representation of American thought and life, issued from 749 Broadway, New York City.

An Eloping Pair Take to Water.

A YOUNG LOVER SWIMS A SWOLLEN RIVER WITH HIS PROSPECTIVE BRIDE.
A remarkable elopement escapade occurred on Friday night at a point in the Indian territory about thirty miles northeast of Sherman, Texas. Near a large stream which flows into the Red river lives a white family by the name of Gordon, composed of an old man and his wife, several sons and a daughter. A few months ago a young man by the name of Adams came into the neighborhood, hailing from the state of Alabama, and seeking a location in which to engage as school teacher. He soon became acquainted with Miss Gordon and fell in love with her. After a short period of wooing his love was reciprocated. The father and brothers of the girl protested against the engagement, and put a stop to the associations of the young lovers.

Adams, by a clandestine correspondence with the lady, arranged an elopement, and Friday night he met Miss Gordon a short distance from her residence and started to escape on horseback. They were pursued however, by the father and brothers of the girl so closely that at the banks of the stream, which has been made deep and wide by the backwaters of the Red River the couple were obliged to dismount in face of their pursuers. Young Adams is an expert swimmer, and seeing no other way to escape grasped Miss Gordon in his arms, plunged into the water, and swam safely across with her to the other side, leaving the furious father and brothers with no remedy but to return home in disgust. The lovers succeeded in finding a proper officer, who united them in marriage under the liberal laws of the Choctaws, which do not require marriage licenses.

Boston Markets.

From the official market report of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, May 31, we extract the following:—
POTATOES.—Receipts for past six days 94,000 bush., previous six days 80,000 bush. The arrivals have been heavy this week and stocks here on the way are so large that shippers are advised not to make further shipments without making previous arrangements with consignees. The market is dull and weak at 75c. as the top price for choice hard eastern stock, including Rose, Hebrons, Burbanks, Prolifics, etc. P. E. Island Chenangoes are in very large supply and dull at 60c.

EGGS.—Receipts for the week 31 boxes, 66 bbls., 9,323 cases; last week 83 boxes, 371 bbls., 10,068 cases. The arrivals have been moderate and choice fresh stock has been in good demand at full quotations. Eastern extras are in light supply at 15c., and Michigan extras bring the same. Good firsts, including Western, Canadian, P. E. Island, N. S. and N. E., are steady at 14c. but some inferior lots have to be sold at 14c. to 14 1/2c.

PORK.—The pork market is steady. The wholesale quotations are: Backs, $17.75 to $18.00; short cut, $17.50 to $17.75; clear per bbl., $17.25 to $17.50; lean ends, $17.50 to $17.75; new mess, $15.75 to $16.00; old mess, $15.00 to $15.25; extra prime new, $14.75 to $15.00.

FISH.—The market is generally dull and heavy, with no changes to report.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when the children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and no other kind. [April 1 '88]

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dead Pig
SIR.—May I be permitted to ask why a dead pig is left to perfume the air while live ones are excluded? If it is necessary to locate it, let the enquirer follow his nose, for a short distance from the railway station in this town. He can't miss it, but the inhabitants and pedestrians would be glad to see it.
SANTAS.
June 5, 1888.

Pig Prohibition.
SIR.—The Council having closed the pig channel for depositing kitchen refuse, it is of some importance, particularly in the summer weather, to learn what other scavengers take their place. It is not a question to sleep over or be dropped on a tie vote, for garbage is already accumulating and becoming offensive for lack of knowing what to do with it. The different wards of Charlottetown are now in more need of scavengers than common Councilmen.
FAIRS.

The Tax Burden.
SIR.—I see by yesterday's EXAMINER that excursions are about to be issued against sixty poll tax defaulters. Complaint is heard everywhere through the city that our people are almost borne down with the weight of oppressive taxation. Should not the City Council do everything in their power by way of economy. It is now apparent to everybody that the Scott Act has degenerated into a pure farce. Every attempt made to enforce it is covered with ridicule by four-fifths of the citizens. It never had any moral support in the community, but the "exhilarating" decision at Georgetown by Justice Peters completely killed it. Why then, under such circumstances, should Mr. Henderson be retained at a cost of $480 a year to the citizens.
TAXPAYER.

The Big Drum.
SIR.—Is it not time that a stop was put to the bass drum nuisance of the Salvation Army. Whilst it may be pleasing and satisfactory to the Army itself, it is a source of annoyance to all who are under the painful necessity of listening to its discordant sounds, by no means relieved by the vocal efforts of its adherents. Even the noble horse has a decided aversion to the combined efforts, and many serious accidents have, and are likely to occur on account of this nuisance. A lady and gentleman driving last evening, narrowly escaped a general break up owing to the tumultuous uproar created by this mob. Whilst extending our sympathy to the animal creation, I cannot forget a case that occurred yesterday. A friend of mine, prostrated on a bed of sickness, and suffering acutely, was subjected to this untimely music for nearly an hour, and the accompanying harangue from an individual who seemed vying with the drum as to which could produce the most torturous noise. The effects of the harrowing sounds can be better imagined than described. Have the sick and the suffering no rights, or have the Army a carte blanche to annoy and disturb without redress? Surely suffering humanity cannot be without a remedy.
CITIZEN.

To THE DEAF.—A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. 4m—14
