dy felt. Mrs. Paddy wasn't so sure. But she knew that when Paddy had made up his mind, it was useless to say anything. A difference of opinion wasn't worth quarreling over. Mrs. Paddy is a true mate. She has her say and then if Paddy doesn't agree, the matter is dropped. It was so now. Paddy sat up at the foot of the big tree and looked it over from that side. Then he went around to the other side and did the same thing. "There is a lot of food in this tree," said he to Mrs. Paddy. Mrs. Paddy made no reply.

There are times when the best thing that can be said is nothing. Mrs. Paddy, being a wise old Beaver, had learned that long ago. "It is going to be quite a job to cut it," said Paddy, sinking his big cutting teeth into the trunk and prying out a big chip. "He'll find it out before he gets through," thought Mrs. Paddy, and went to see that the children were not in any mischief. She would take her turn at cutting later.

When your Vagus Nerve flashes Headache
—get fast help with Bromo-Seltzer
Nagging headaches are sometimes messages of pain, carried from an upset digestive system along the sensitive Vagus Nerve—your Tenth Nerve—to your brain. Bromo-Seltzer acts fast, gets right at the centre of your misery. Bromo settles upset stomach, calms edgy nerves, relieves headache. It soothes your Vagus Nerve, prevents it from sending further pain signals to your head. Ask your druggist for the economical, family size bottle of Bromo-Seltzer. Get fast help when headache strikes. 51-8

The sum of about $43.00 was realized at the pantry sale held in Summerside in aid of the Stewart Memorial Nursing Centre. The ladies in charge of the sale were, Mrs. Bertha Lidstone, Mrs. Jean Lidstone, Miss Gertrude MacNevin and Mrs. Muriel MacDougall.

What might have resulted in a serious accident occurred on the highway on Sunday evening when Gordon Leigh, young son of Mr. Mrs. Roland McDougall fell out of the car onto the pavement. The car was travelling at a good rate of speed at the time. The little fellow in some manner opened the door. He was taken to the Hospital for an examination but fortunately nothing more serious than abrasions were found.

The death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Platts of Mrs. Wm. Sheen in her eighty-fourth year. Although Mrs. Sheen had been bedfast for about a year and a half her passing came as a shock to many. She was tenderly cared for during her illness by her daughter, Mrs. Eliza Platts and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fern Sheen. Mrs. Sheen bore her illness with great fortitude and always had a smile on her face and a cheery word for everyone. She leaves to mourn one daughter (Elga) Mrs. Frank Platts and one son Nelson on the old homestead to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

Next meeting to be at the home of Miss Emily MacLean and Mrs. Andrew Brown, Collection, $7.50.

York Junior Stage Variety Concert

A delightful telephone monologue was given by Miss Nelda Richards.

The second part of this concert contained the play "The Adventure" put on by the C.G.I.T. girls. This play was entered in the Junior Drama Festival of the Provincial Drama Festival. It was adjudicated in competition and gained first place honors. Period of play was in 1772 in Capt. Cook's time of sailing.

Mrs. Spiggott, a plump, cheerful woman who did the Captain's and sailors washing while they dropped anchor.

Jane, her daughter, was acted by Elizabeth MacDonald who helped Phillip out of a jam.

Goldlocks, in a very clever make up of golden curls, was enacted by Shirley Vessey who wandered about among the daisies who were Pauline Swan, Lorna Vessey, Mary Douglas and Jeanie Andrews. Their costumes were green organdy dresses and large yellow crowned and white petal shaped brimmed hats.

While the junior school members and C.G.I.T. girls sang, Goldlocks approached the house of the Three Bears and played until she went to sleep.

The house on the stage was about five feet high and the walls were circular. As she opened the door and went inside, the curtains of the stage were drawn, revealing the three bears, three bowls of porridge, which she tasted and ate; the three chairs which Goldlocks tried, also their bedrooms, with the three beds.

Now coming in from their morning walk, the three Bears, Papa Bear, Norman Brown; Mama Bear, Erma Watts; Baby Bear, Tadouse Hulez were costumed in bear brown suits which were very realistic. They cleverly acted the remainder of the story.

Choruses by Junior Girls were "Slew and Plokes" also "The Fairy Gown."

The calisthenics by the Trail Rangers were very interesting and it illustrated their training at their Trail Rangers' meeting by Rev. John Douglas.

Two lovely duets followed, sung by Mrs. Stuart Vessey and Mrs. Douglas, "Welcome Sweet Springtime", Santa Lucia".

Mrs. Pettifer, a sharp, very strict aunt was played by Joan Vessey.

Phillip Jessop, Mrs. Pettifer's hen-pecked nephew, played by Muriel MacDougall.

A sailor, Jackie Andrews. Musical accompaniment—Arthur Vessey.

Much credit is due those who assisted in any way, especially Miss Nelda Richards, Mrs. J. Douglas and Rev. J. Douglas.

SASKATOON (CP)—City Council has decided to discontinue its post-war policy of granting price reductions on city property sales to veterans of the Second World War.

WHY MY DAD IS THE BEST DAD IN THE WORLD

Because: When I took Polio last August, Daddy took me to the Dr. three days in succession. And the fourth day Daddy took me to the hospital. I was there 35 days and the first ten days I could not turn in bed. I was lonesome, Daddy got me a special nurse, a watch, and a doll. When I was home six weeks I started to school. Daddy drove me to school and home for seven months. I had Polio in my left arm and left leg. Daddy still takes me to Red Cross every two weeks for treatment. I am coming wonderful.

WHY MY FATHER IS THE BEST DAD IN THE WORLD

When my Mother left us five years ago there were six children. My twin sisters only three. Since then my Father has earned our living, cooked, taken care of our clothes and us when sick. In order to do this he had to work almost day and night that we might go to school, church and enjoy life as other children do. He has been both Father and Mother to us. He could have put us in the Orphanage but he kept us and our home together. So that is why he is the best and kindest Dad in the world.
