

ABOARD H.M.C.S. LABRADOR AFTER WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Agnes Marie O'Donnell of Beaverbank, daughter of Mrs. Arthur O'Donnell and the late Arthur O'Donnell, to Lieut. Michael Karl Kelly, Royal Canadian Navy, son of Mrs. Carl Kelly of Charlottetown, and the late Carl Kelly, took place in Saint Ignace Church, Bedford, N.S. at 10 o'clock Mass.

Rev. James Kelly of Charlottetown officiated at the marriage ceremony and Rev. Robert Kelly, O.M.I. of Ottawa performed the Nuptial Mass. Bouquets of snapdragons were placed in the church. The organist was Mrs. Charles Flemming and the soloist was Felix Shannon.

Given in marriage by her brother, Arthur O'Donnell, the bride looked lovely in her floor-length wedding gown of quilted black ivory satin, fashioned with a scoop neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The straight line of the skirt in front was complemented by fullness at the back, ending in a slight train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a headress of lace and pearls and she wore an amethyst and pearl pendant, which was worn by her mother on her wedding day. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Kathleen O'Donnell, her sister, was her only attendant, and she wore a gown of Mediterranean blue crystallette, styled with a square neckline and full, hooped skirt. Her small hat matched and she carried a bouquet of yellow shag chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

Lieutenant Joseph Mahar, Royal Canadian Navy, was the best man and the ushers were Lieutenant T. D. Hayes, R.C.N., Lieutenant A. Geddes, R.C.N.,

Lieutenant Alan Henley, R.C.N. and Lieutenant John Rodocanachi, Royal Navy.

A guard of honor was formed by the officers of HMCS Labrador.

Mrs. O'Donnell, the mother of the bride, wore an ensemble of powder blue lace and shantung with a matching picture hat and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Kelly, the groom's mother, wore a navy blue two-piece dress and a corsage of red roses. Her hat was a Breton sailor of white straw.

A reception was held on the flight deck of HMCS Labrador, where the toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. John Heffer. The bride's table was centered with a decorated wedding cake and bouquets of chrysanthemums were placed at either end and on the other serving tables.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Kelly chose a Chinese silk dress in cocoa brown with aqua and natural colored print, sheath style over which was worn an Eaton jacket. Her picture hat was of tangerine linen and she wore brown accessories.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Kelly will reside in Beaverbank.

Out-of-town guests who attended the Kelly-O'Donnell wedding were Mrs. Norman MacDonald, Arvida, Quebec; Kevin Cummings, Peterborough, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. T.W. Hopkins, Annapolis Royal; Mrs. James Leahy, Kentville; Mrs. Louis Connolly and Miss Connolly, Miss Eileen Hallisey, Frank Kelly, Chesterfield Inlet, N.W.T.; Mrs. G.
