has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTENSIVELY IMITATED. The imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of Genuine.

This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations, called WHITE LINIMENT, &c., liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a larger profit.

SIR WILFRID'S APPREHENSIONS.

(St. John Sun.)

Speaking at New Glasgow the other day, Sir Wilfrid Laurier admitted that when the time came to deal with the South Africa question he "did not approach the question without apprehension," or, as the Toronto Globe makes him say, "without misapprehension." Whether it was apprehension or misapprehension which troubled the premier, he now takes a mild view of it. What he said at the time was that the government had no right and no power to do anything, and nothing would be done. Speaking apparently under the dictation of Mr. Tarte, the premier made it clear that the government had no intention to interfere with the war in Africa.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not a good political memory, but in 1899 he had not forgotten the campaign literature issued from the party headquarters in 1896. He remembered the article printed under startling headlines in his own organ at Quebec, and scattered broadcast in dodgers and handbills throughout the province. Here is the appeal, headlines and all:

Do you wish for war?

Three Millions of Dollars.

For Guns, Cannons and Bayonets.

An Imminent Danger for Farmers!

One of old Tupper's whims is imperial federation. Imperial federation signifies an intimate alliance between England and her colonies in general, especially in Canada.

One of the conditions of this alliance would be that in time of war Canada would be called upon to pay its share of the cost in money and men.

As England is nearly always at war with some one we would be continually taxed to find the money, and there would be a constant drain to furnish the men.

In return England would create royal baronets, chevaliers of this and commanders of that.

But the people would remain chained to the cannon.

Hardly had Sir Charles Tupper returned from England when he began to prepare the way for carrying out his appalling project.

England has been menaced by a difficulty with the United States concerning some acres of mining lands which it claims in Venezuela. In haste Sir Charles, to impress the officials, orders the purchase in England of guns, cannons, etc., to the amount of $1,800,000 with the house in session and without consulting it.

This was not enough.

He proposes to purchase $3,000,000 worth.

Mr Foster proposed on April 21st, 1896 (page 6,902 of the Herald), a resolution authorizing a loan of $3,000,000 to pay for the purchases made and to be made.

Forty thousand Lee-Enfield rifles and 23,000 carbines of the same make have been ordered for the cavalry. Four batteries of six guns each, some twelve pounders, with the necessary munitions, have also been ordered.

The rifles cost $18 each.

The carbines for the cavalry cost in all $400,000.

The bayonets and their sheaths cost $4000.

Since then it has been determined to purchase:

Fifty Maxim guns and 200 sets of harness for the draft horses.

Four hundred sets of saddle harness for the cavalry. These cost $100 each. They can be had for $40 here.

And $59,000 is nothing for all the harness.

Why should we buy harness in a foreign country? All for others; nothing for us!

Why should the Tupper government, which boasts of the benefits of protection for Canadian industry, buy $165,000 worth of harness in England, which might be made by the saddlers of Canada?

Why should it pay $100 a set for this harness when it might be secured here for $40?

Why all these armaments if we are not to have war?

And why fight for England?

The electors will recall that these big and little chiefs who are always more anxious to demonstrate that they are more patriotic than anybody else, more loyal and ready to throw us in war for the benefit of others, are not these who carry the burden.

These carbines, these guns will be used by the electors. They are considered good enough to be chained to the cannon. Tupper, Angers, Taillon, will be in their ministerial offices, not surrounded by death, but with joy in their hearts and a glass of champagne in their hands. Once more, why all these rifles, these cannons, these bayonets, if the good Tupper and company do not meditate some coup?

They would send our children to Africa, to Asia, from where they would never return.

If you vote for the Bleu candidate you will approve of these warlike preparations. Did the government come to your assistance when you were borne down by taxes of all kinds, when you were unfortunate through the ravages of fire or flood? Yet it is spending $3,000,000 for rifles.

Vote for Laurier and his candidates if you would have your country enjoy peace, and not expose yourself to be sent away some fine morning to some other country, leaving your wives, your children and all that is dear to you.

When Sir Wilfrid thought of the Quebec electors to whom he had made this appeal, it is not surprising that when the question of the contingent came up he felt some "apprehension."

KEEP THESE FIGURES.

(Montreal Star.)

It is only when one looks into the returns of the last Dominion election that he realizes how feeble a hold Liberalism had on this country, when it won. Without the independent—largely made up of people who differed on one point only, for the time being, with the Conservative Government of the day—the Laurier party would not have managed to slip in. Here are the figures of the 1896 election.

	Conser.	Liber.	Independent.
Ontario	191,052	166,335	69,639
Quebec	98,930	113,878	3,725
Nova Scotia	50,700	49,156	737
New Brunswick	31,500	28,868	5,834
P. E. Island	9,457	9,494	321
Manitoba	15,459	11,519	5,905
Brit. Columbia	8,174	8,321	1,067
N. W. Territories	7,812	9,693	284
	411,005	397,194	26,511

With a majority against the old Government, and yet not a majority of Liberals, Sir Wilfrid sought to strengthen himself by making up a new party, with a cabinet largely composed of material the electors had not supplied him with. He took Mr. Tarte, who had been defeated; Mr. Dobbil, who was not elected as an opponent of the Conservative party, and most of the other portfolios were given to new men from the Provincial Governments. Thus the Laurier party did not carry a majority of the popular vote, and the men who lead the country by the nose in the present Cabinet, to the country's cost, were not before the electors in the general elections at all. They were furnished with seats by a massing of Federal and Provincial Government forces on scattered constituencies.

With the "independents" within their old party lines again, the outlook should be bright for the Conservatives. Then, the "new Liberal" party, headed by men heretofore known only in provincial politics decidedly has not the support of all the old "Liberals" who voted for the Laurier party before, and we are fairly safe in saying they have not won many recruits from the Conservative ranks. There is a class of baronets, of course, that clings to any party ship when it is in port, but even they are troubled with a lot of queezing just now. The new vote will be an important factor in the coming contest.

MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE.

Sixth Annual Meeting Held at Kentville—The President's Address.

KENTVILLE, N. S., August 16.—The sixth annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade opened in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening. A large number of delegates were present from Halifax, St. John, Windsor, Truro, Middleton, Parrabrook, Clatham, Westville, Berwick, Sussex, etc. It was a thoroughly representative meeting of the maritime provinces.

President DeWolfe occupied the chair. The delegates were welcomed by the Mayor of Kentville and President of the Kentville board. Through the chairman the delegates were invited to drive to the Look Off through the apple section of Cornwallis tomorrow afternoon.

President DeWolfe's address deals with the tourist travel, formation of new boards of trade, South African war, gold storage, legislative union of the maritime provinces, the starting of a bureau of information in connection with the maritime board, amending the Dominion Act requiring 2,500 population of towns to incorporate boards of trade, the Atlantic line and other subjects. He favors all. A number of new boards were formed in the year just closed in P. E. Island and Nova Scotia, but none in New Brunswick.

JAPS' SPLENDID CHARGE.

It Resulted in the Capture of Ten Chinese Guns.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 16.—The following despatch has been received from the Associated Press correspondent with the allied forces, dated Peitsang, August 5th, and forwarded by mail to Chefoo and Shanghai:—

"The glory of today's fighting belongs to the Japanese. They did all the hardest fighting. The Americans were in reserve, and had no casualties. The Japanese, advancing across the plain, had no shelter, and flanked the Chinese from their strong mud walls and trenches extending five miles.

"The feature of the battle was the magnificent Japanese cavalry charge, which resulted in the capture of ten field guns. The Chinese retreat was orderly, and they left but few dead on the field. The correspondent of the Associated Press counted 200 dead or wounded Japanese. The British loss was two men killed and a few wounded.

"The British naval brigade guns and two big Russian guns had a duel with the Chinese guns, which resulted in silencing the latter. The Russians found the plains east of the river flooded, and joined the main army west of it. Every vehicle in Tien Tsin is pressed for the transport service of the allies, including all wagons and rickshaws drawn by coolies."

A BREACH OF COURTESY

London Comment on Rhodesian Offer of Free Farms to Colonials.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Dealing with the British South Africa Chartered Company's offer of free farms in Rhodesia to colonial volunteers, the Morning Post maintains that, although it was well meant, it is a breach of courtesy to persuade Canadians and Australians to desert their own country in favor of South Africa.

"In the immediate past," says the Morning Post, "we have so often slighted these great but sensitive English-speaking nations, that it will be well to avoid even the appearance of such discourtesy."
