Former Island Girl Is Ved In Ceremony At Toronto, Ont.

Knox Presbyterian Church in Toronto, Ont. was the scene recently of a charming winter wedding when Margaret Rose Campbell, 14 Adian Ave. Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Campbell, Charlottetown, became the bride of Donald Raymond Appleton, also of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Appleton.

The wedding was held on February 17 at 2:00 p.m., officiated at the ceremony, Mr. Aitken MacNevin and Mr. William Pured.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal satin covered with fine nylon net. It was embroidered with white roses at the neck and waistline and featured train falling from each shoulder. Her veil was held in place with a beaded tulle as she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Parents Say Daughter's Actions Disrespectful

I do not wish to discuss the life of my child; but don't let the message go by your head. Don't let it upstage your parents next time they "throw" the Fourth Communion at you.

My daughter, Mary Haworth, is a young girl who is a member of the church and is a very good girl. She is a very good girl and is a very good girl.

Ch'town CAC Will Present Child's Fashion Show Here

These jumpers for school wear are just a part of the many styles for children that will be shown at a child's fashion show being held at the Charlottetown Hotel on Wednesday night. The show, which is presented by the Prince Edward Island branch of the Canadian Association of Consumers, will be under way at 8:15 p.m. These pleated knee-lengths and firmes underline the casual look for the younger set.
