HAPPY BULGARIA

Prince Ferdinand's Reception.

HIS FIRST PROCLAMATION.

TIRNOVA, Aug. 14.

Prince Ferdinand was enthusiastically welcomed on his arrival here Saturday night. To-day he attended the Te Deum in the Cathedral. From the Cathedral under a brilliant military and official escort he proceeded to the hall of the great Sobrance. The Sobrance was in session when the Prince entered, and greeted him with prolonged cheers. The Metropolitan delivered an address and administered the oath to the Prince, who thereupon signed the constitution. M. Stoiloff, Prime Minister on behalf of Prince Ferdinand, issued a proclamation, saying:—"We, Ferdinand, by the grace of God and will of the people, Prince of Bulgaria, announce to our well beloved people that we assume the Government of the country. We will rule in accordance with the constitution with intent to promote its glory, greatness and development. We shall always be ready to sacrifice our lives for its happiness. The Prince thanks the people for his election, the regents and ministry for all the conduct of affairs during the difficult crisis. He pays a tribute to the patriotism and bravery of the people during the difficult crisis, and concludes, "Long live free and independent Bulgaria." There is no reference to Russia in the proclamation. After the ceremony of installation, the ministry tendered its resignation. The Sobrance dissolved. Neither Turkey nor any of the powers have replied to Prince Ferdinand's note, asking approval of his election. The garrison here have taken the oath of allegiance. Prince Ferdinand held a council at Sistora, at which, it is reported, that Foreign Minister Natchevitch disagreed with the Prince in his views upon the formation of a cabinet, and tendered his resignation. It is rumored that Prince Ferdinand has insured his life for two million florins.

JOHN CRILLY, of the well-known firm of John Crilly & Co., paper bag and flour sack manufacturer and painters, of Montreal, has mysteriously disappeared. His books show that his business is in a healthy condition, and that a surplus of $30,000 exists.

MR. THEO. L. CHAPPELLE to-day laid information against the Salvation Army, charging that their street parades and drum beating are an annoyance to himself and family, as well as to the neighborhood in which he resides. The case will come up for trial in the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court in a few days.

WHILE the Salvation Army were on their knees praying in the centre of Richmond Street, about seven o'clock last evening, they were assailed with a volley of stones, water, eggs, etc. The captain and several of the officers and soldiers were drenched with water and struck with stones. A carriage was also driven through the Army ranks. An immense crowd of people gathered. The arrival of the police put a stop to the proceedings.
