If there is a history of weak lungs in your family, take Scott's Emulsion.

It nourishes and invigorates.

It enables you to resist the disease. Even if your lungs are already affected, and if besides the cough you have fever and emaciation, there is still a strong probability of a cure.

The oil in the Emulsion feeds; the hypophosphites give power to the nerves; and the glycerine soothes and heals.

PLEASANT MAIL DELIVERY

The posfmaster was hard at work at his desk when a slight noise caused him to raise his eyes, and he discovered a blushing maiden of 16 with a money order which she wanted cashed. She handed it with a bashful smile to the official, who, after closely examining it, gave her the money it called for. At the same time he asked her if she had read what was written on the margin of the order.

"No, I have not," she replied, "for I cannot make it out. Will you please read it for me?"

The postmaster read as follows: "I send you $5 and a dozen kisses." Glancing at the bashful girl, he said, "Now I have paid you the money, I suppose you want the kisses?"

"Yes," she said. "If he has sent me any kisses, I want them too."

It is hardly necessary to say to those who are acquainted with Uncle Sam's official that the balance of the order was paid in a scientific manner.

On reaching home the delighted maiden remarked to her mother: "Mother, this postoffice system of ours is a great thing, developing more and more every year, and each new feature seems to be best. Jimmy sent me a dozen kisses along with a money order, and John gave me 20. It beats the special delivery system all hollow."—Marcus News.

Why He Wanted Small Change.

It was Saturday, and he was on his way home.

Stepping to the showcase in the cigar store, he carefully surveyed the goods that were displayed in the boxes.

"Are those three for a quarter?" he asked, pointing out a brand that seemed to please him.

"Yes," said the man behind the counter. "We're making a special sale of them this week. They have always been 10 cents straight."

"All right," said the customer. "Let me have three of them."

A handful of the cigars was laid on top of the case, and he carefully selected three of them, after which he handed out a half dollar.

The shopkeeper played a little tune upon his cash register and passed back a quarter.

"Say," said the man who had bought the cigars, "can't you give me some smaller change? My wife wants me to go to church with her tomorrow, and I'll need something for the contribution plate. I s'pose I might give up a quarter; but, by George, I have to work hard for every cent I get."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Earned His Dinner.

"A poor, miserable tramp came to the kitchen door this afternoon," said Mrs. Blivins to her husband, "and when I asked him what he wanted he fell down in a fit."

"He did, eh?" snorted Blivins. "And I suppose you were just fool enough to give him some money."

"Well, yes," admitted Mrs. Blivins. "I gave him a good meal and 25 cents to get a night's lodging with."

"Which he promptly blew in for booze," added Blivins. "Didn't you know that he was a fraud? Those fellows can throw fits so artistically that they sometimes deceive the physicians. He was a fake pure and simple."

"I don't care if he was," replied the lady, with a toss of her head. "I made him earn his dinner anyway."

"Oh, you did, did you? What did he do?"

"I made him come into the nursery and throw fits, as you call it, for half an hour to amuse the baby."—San Francisco Examiner.

CHINESE PARENTS

A remarkable event occurred at Tsing-Kiang-Pu. A man by the name of King had a son who made his father and mother "lose face" because of the wild, rakish life he led. He gambled, loafed, smoked opium, etc. If he stole, his father would be taken to the yamen, and the whole family would suffer for the son's villainy, and the vital question was, How could the family be protected? At last they arrived at the conclusion that the only way to protect the father and mother was to take extreme measures with the son, which they did with a vengeance. The father and uncle took him out among the graves, followed by a crowd of curious neighbors and friends, and, putting a rope around his neck, each relation pulled on an end, and the son was put beyond ruining the family in this world.—North China Herald.

Use For the Cobweb.

The colonel of a certain regiment who was very strict on his young officers was continually inspecting their trooprooms to see if everything was clean and also to see if he could find fault with anything. One day he inspected the room of an officer who was noted for his wit. He had nearly finished his inspection when he noticed a cobweb in one of the corners and thought to himself, "Now I have got him."

"What does this mean?" asked the colonel.

The young officer coolly replied. "We always keep one in case a man cuts his finger."

Dr. A. W. CHASE

DISCOVERED A NEW TREATMENT FOR NERVOUS DISEASES

In his study of diseases of the nerves, Dr. A. W. Chase found that in nearly every case the cause of trouble was improper nourishment. About one-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless this blood is rich and pure the nerves cannot obtain proper nourishment, and become worn out and exhausted.

Nervous depression, nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, loss of sleep and vital force, lack of energy, are symptoms of weak, watery blood and exhausted nerves.

It was as a food for blood and nerves that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food was prepared. Its remarkable success in curing all diseases arising from thin blood and impoverished nerves is proof that Dr. Chase's theory of feeding the nerves and blood is the proper one; stimulants only urge on the tired and worn out nervous system until there comes a complete collapse.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates new brain and nerve cells, and makes the blood pure and rich. It restores to the exhausted nerves the vigor of perfect health. 50c. a large box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

AMBITIOUS CITY AGAIN

Mr. Harry Bawden, of Hamilton, Cut [illegible] ly Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Hamilton, Oct. 16.—Mr. Harry Bawden of this city corroborates the report printed recently relating to his cure of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"For six years," he says, "I suffered with Lumbago and Kidney Disease. I tried everything under the sun, but absolutely nothing I ever took gave me the slightest relief. A friend advised me about one year ago to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I finally decided to do so, and purchased one box and found relief. I used in all five boxes and am completely cured.

The case has created quite a stir and there are found, too many warm, endorsers of Dodd's Kidney Pills in this city. Little faith is put in the many imitations on the maket, the verdict being that the riginal isrthe best.
