A Considerate Father.

A wealthy man went out hunting. He was accompanied by an honest farmer and his son. The hunter accidentally peppered the unfortunate boy, who howled like a dog whose tail has been crushed under the wheel of a furniture van, whereupon his father said to the youth:

"Don't howl that way or the gentleman will not let you go along with him next time."—New York Sunday World.

When the World Becomes Overpeopled.

"In about 280 years," said the scientist, "when the world's population exceeds 5,994,000,000, the earth will be unable to find nourishment for her people, and they will be forced either to cannibalism or starvation."

"And just think, papa," said the daughter, "what trouble there'll be for us to get through the crowds on the bicycles!"—Yonkers Statesman.

She Was Well Off.

"Yes," said the model wife as she sat in her chair at 11 p. m., sewing on her husband's clothing, "it is well enough for me. Mine is indeed an easy lot. But there is my poor husband at this moment working like a navvy on his wheel and perspiring like a stoker in the hold of an Atlantic liner."—Boston Transcript.

His Fate.

"What's become of your brother?" asked the oyster waiter to be friated to a companion who was destined to ornament a half shell.

"Oh, I believe he's gone into the interior of turkey," said the one addressed.—Yonkers Statesman.

A Pointer For the Detectives.

"I saw you looking at a folding bed yesterday. Do you think of moving into a flat?"

"No. My rich uncle, who has made me his principal heir, is coming to visit us."—Cleveland Leader.

A Dialectic Success.

Hicks—I understand Scribbler is making a barrel of money.
Wicks—Not from his writings?
Hicks—Yes, he has written a book in the golf dialect.—Philadelphia Record.

Their Worst Fault.

"What is the worst thing about riches?" asked a schoolteacher of a boy.
"Their scarcity," he replied and was immediately rewarded with a prize.—Tit-Bits.

Works Both Ways.

She—If it wasn't for the old bachelors, there would be no flirts.
He—If it wasn't for the flirts, there would be no old bachelors.—Chicago News.

Something Brilliant.

Waggs—Cholly Saphed got off a bright thing at the club last night.
Wiggs—No! What was it?
Waggs—His silk hat.—Brooklyn Life.

He Could Not.

Schoolmaster—For what were the ancient Romans chiefly remarkable?
Well, Corker?
Corker—Please, sir, they understood Latin.—Punch.

MESSAGE TO MEN

Proving that True Honesty and True Philanthropy still Exist

If any man who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell, and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-beings to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c silver to cover postage and address Mr. G. Strong, North Rock and, Mich 135 p.w.

CATAPHORESIS

Is the name given to the latest and greatest success known in modern dental science; in other words

Painless Dentistry By Electricity.

This great invention has been perfected, and at the Dental Conventions of 1897, formed the chief topic of discussion. It is now used by all the leading dentists of the United States and Canada, and as we believe in being "up to date" in our profession Among other improvements we have at considerable expense adopted this wonderful invention, for the benefit of our patients in Charlottetown and P. E. I. By its use all operations are rendered absolutely painless. The most sensitive tooth can be filled without the least particle of pain, teeth that have become discolored, can be restored so their natural color; in fact its benefits are numbered by the score.

We invite inspection. Painless Dentistry, warranted work, moderate charges.
