Some Great Racing

EACH day we find horses in the Maritimes going great miles. In fact, we can't remember such outstanding performances so early in the season.

June Byrd, Bob Brook, Dee's Boy, Eben's Ace and McSampson are a few of the pacers that have been lowering the boom in great style. Dee's Boy was the last to do the record breaking when he shattered the track mark at Saint John Monday night in 2.04:4. In fact The Boy stepped both miles in this time over the New Brunswick city track and surely stamps himself as still an outstanding contender in Maritime circuit free-for-alls.

Dee's Boy will not race Thursday night at Sydney in the $3,000 Dosco Pace. But there will be many notables such as June Byrd and Hi Jay both from Charlottetown, Eben's Ace that gave such a tremendous performance at Sackville Downs last Saturday and Bob Brook that recently shattered the track record at Sydney.

A Great Showman

THIS Dosco get-together certainly should be one of the greatest races of the entire season. And it's fitting that it should be with one of the Maritimes' greatest showmen promoting the affair.

We are referring to Jim Ferguson, one of the greatest guys in the harness racing business in these seaside provinces, Jim will go all out to make this race a roaring success. Each year he has promoted these classics and each year finds things better than the year before.

Jim has been coming to Charlottetown for a long number of years for the Old Home Week show. He never misses. And he always makes sure that Cape Breton is well represented in all classes.

We wish we could make it to Sydney to see this great race but it's not possible at this time. We do wish Jim all the success possible.

Here's hoping Jim that you have the greatest crowd ever and that your pari-mutuel workers are rushed right off their feet.

Interest Mounts Here

OF COURSE, interest here will be terrific in this Thursday's race.

With two such notables as June Byrd and Hi Jay participating from this city we expect the office phone to almost come off the hook Thursday night. When June raced last week in Moncton, we were flooded with calls. Now that Hi Jay has come into the fold, the inquiries should come in ever increasing numbers.

We aren't complaining one bit. It's great to see such outstanding pacers owned here in Charlottetown and to find that the interest in them has reached such proportions.

But this first clash between the Greenbrier Farms mare and Bill Bozley's gelding has the racing public really on edge. Everybody is pretty well agreed that Hi Jay was taken to this country for one purpose only and that was to cop some of these big free-for-alls. On the other hand, the way June Byrd has been performing since arriving in the Maritimes surely stamps her as a great pacer. In fact, it is the belief that she is racing better now than at any other time. Whether that's good enough to handle Hi Jay is something that can be answered only on the racetrack.

We do know that both are high class pacers and Charlottetown is fortunate in having both of them race out of this capital city. The folks around here will be eagerly awaiting to see the two go at each other in the two classics here Monday and Friday of Old Home Week.

We aren't making any predictions on which of the pair will win the majority of the battles. We wish both of them the best of luck. Horsemen who invest this kind of money are deserving of all the good fortune possible.

We hope both June Byrd and Hi Jay have an abundance of it.

Park Takes Opener

THE National Park All-Stars looked impressive in chalking up that first semi-final win over Barry's Lions.

These All-Stars have plenty of class and they possess a team spirit that is surely hard to beat. From here, it looks as though the Park boys are really in earnest about winning this City Softball League championship.

They'll be hard to stop.

Harness Racing Slated For S'side

Harness racing is back at Summerside Raceway tonight.

Nine dashes comprise the program that appears likely to provide thrills in abundance for the large crowd expected to attend.

Dashes five and nine have eight starters ready for the word and trying to select winners in these dashes is a tough chore. Glydon Willis has drawn the rail with his Progress Brand that equalled his mark at Summerside the last time out. The opposition will be supplied by Chief Ozaukee, Echo Ridge Eddy, Captain Chief, Scottish Light, Gay Laird, Norine Clegg and Cathy Girl. That's a formidable looking outfit and a double dash winner here is most unlikely.

Dashes four and eight look action - packed with Glydon Willis again on the rail, this time with Happy Gallon C. Others competing are Pay Roll, Mr. Gallon, Chuck H, Wing Victory, James L. S., Rio Grande and Star Abbott.

The horses in the number one dash make a single appearance but all other performers get a second outing.

The whole affair shapes up like a splendid night of harness racing and the Summerside Raceway promoters expect one of the season's best turnouts.

Races go promptly at 8 o'clock.

Cubs Overpower Philadelphia 5-3

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rookie second baseman Ken Hubbs, who stroked a solo homer in the first inning, teamed with Ron Santo to hit back-to-back doubles in the seventh inning as Chicago Cubs scored three times for a 5-3 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday.

Starter Art Mahaffey had a 5-1 lead on a three hitter when his right shoulder stiffened, and he was forced to leave the game in the sixth inning. Billy Smith, his immediate relief, took the loss—his fifth in six decisions—although Santo smacked his game - winning double off Jack Baldschun.

Don Cardwell, making his fourth relief appearance of the season, pitched the last two innings to save starter Glen Hobbie's third win of the year. Hobbie has lost nine.

STARTS SPURT

Pinch - hitter Jim McKnight touched off the Cubs' winning spurt with a single. Don Landrum, newly returned to centre field in the latest revision of the Cub lineup, also singled to set the stage for the double trouble explosion by Hubbs and Santo.

The Cubs added an insurance run in the eighth when Cardwell, who handled the Phillies in order during the last two innings, singled shortstop Andre Rodgers across.

Night action in the national had New York at Milwaukee, Los Angeles at St. Louis, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati and San Francisco at Houston.

In the American League, the full slate was scheduled at night, with Boston at New York, Chicago at Washington, Detroit at Minnesota, Cleveland at Kansas City and Baltimore playing a twin-bill at Los Angeles.

FOOD SHORTAGE SPREADS

BERLIN (AP) — New food shortages in Communist East Germany were reported Tuesday by Information Bureau West, an official West Berlin intelligence agency. It said the practice of requiring customers to register in a single shop for meat is widespread. The Leipzig area was said to be 12,000 tons behind its scheduled meat production this year.

SINKS WINNING PUTT

Frank Wibley sinks a five-foot putt to win the Millar match play to defeat young Bob Panasiuk (squatting left) on the 20th hole at Toronto's Uplands Golf Club Saturday. Wibley, playing out of Kitchener's Westmount Club putted badly during the match but came hot and birdied the final hole. Panasiuk, 20, playing his first Millar tournament, evened the match on the 16th and the game was close until the final putt. (CP Wirephoto)

Houk Adds Four Players For Second All-Star Team

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP)—Colorful Yogi Berra, picked for the 14th straight year, and leading batsman Pete Runnels have been added to the squad for the second all-star game, American League president Joe Cronin announced Tuesday.

In a further bid to stem the rising National League tide, Al, manager Ralph Houk of New York Yankees has named his circuit's hottest pitcher — Los Angeles' Ken McBride, winner of 10 straight — and left handed Jim Kaat of Minnesota.

Going into the second All-Star test at Chicago's Wrigley Field Monday, the Americans have won only one of the last seven starts, though still clinging to a 16-15-1 margin in the series.

The National League won the first game at Washington 3-1.

Houk made his moves under a ruling permitting an addition of three players to bring the squad to 28 for the second All-Star contest. New York's Berra, who has played a majority of his 14 games as a catcher, will be a spare outfielder while Runnels of the Red Sox is an added infielder.

Given a free hand in the pitching department, Houk chose McBride (11-3) and Kaat (9-9) while dropping Boston's Bill Monbouquette who hasn't hurled a complete game in nearly a month.

Houk also named Milt Pappas from Baltimore to his roster staff instead of teammate Hoyt Wilhelm who had been picked for the first game but had to be replaced by Pappas at the last minute when he developed a sore shoulder.

LIST REPEAT PITCHERS

The repeat pitchers are Detroit's Jim Bunning and Hank Aguirre—only American League southpaw July 10, Dick Donovan of Cleveland, Minnesota's Camilo Pascual, Dave Stenhouse of Washington and the Yankees' Ralph Terry.

The eight All - Star players for the other positions who were voted their berths by fellow athletes must be in the starting lineup for both games. They are Yankee outfielders Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, left fielder Leon Wagner and second baseman Billy Moran of Los Angeles, catcher Earl Battey and third baseman Richie Rollins of Minnesota Twins, Baltimore first baseman Jim Gentile and Chicago shortstop Luis Aparicio.

Except for the additions of Berra and Runnels, the reserve men for the non-pitching positions remain the same. Detroit's Rocky Colavito, the Angels' Lee Thomas and Jim Landis of the White Sox are the outfielders.

Bobby Richardson and rookie Tom Tresh of New York, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson and Norm Siebern of Kansas City are the infielders. As in the first game, there will be two additional catchers, Elston Howard of the Yankees and the Indians' John Romano.

Halifax Track, Field Coach Sets Hopes On 3 Athletes

HALIFAX (CP) — Halifax coach William Haley Jr., won't be underestimating the competition when he leads a contingent of six Nova Scotia track and field stars to Toronto next month for the British Empire games trials.

Bill is "facing the facts of life" when he says at the outside only two of his performers — and possibly a third — have a remote chance. It isn't because of a lack of faith that he makes the prediction, he a lot Tuesday. But he is fully aware of the competition they will face during the three days of the trials Aug. 4-6.

Only 15 athletes will be chosen to represent Canada at the games in Perth, Australia in November and Bill has a winner picked for all of the top spots, the mile, the 880 yard, 100-yard and 220-yard events.

By the time he lists off "the sure things" there's little left over for the Nova Scotia group.

Mike Noble of Halifax, who is a real threat in the 880-yard and mile events in the Maritimes is Bill's number one hope.

Mike's best time for the half mile is 1.52 and Bill hopes it will be good enough to earn him a spot on the 880-yard relay team. Mike can tick off the mile in 4.15 but he's up against tough competition in the event in the form of Toronto's Bruce Kidd.

Another Nova Scotia favorite is Bridgetown's Howard Jackson whose feet put him in good stead in either the broad jump or hop, step and jump. Bill feels Jackson's double ability may be enough to win him a slot because of the relatively few athletes who will be chosen and needed for double duty men. Jackson's best distance for the broad jump is 22 feet 10 inches; and for the hop, step and jump 45 feet .2 inches.

Another high on the list of favorites is tiny blonde Gwen Hildis of Halifax whose size is no indication of her ability. She can squeeze the 100-yard event into 11.3 seconds and can cover 220 yards in 32.6.

Another girl who does double duty is Charlotte Baldwin of Halifax, a relative newcomer. She is being entered in the 220-yard and 880-yard events although she has never run the half.

Bill said she was chosen for the 880 on the basis of her 440-yard efforts. She can crack the quarter in one second more than a minute but will be given a chance at the half before it is definitely decided she will compete in this classification. Her time for the 220 is 26.2.

Fleet-footed Joey Skier of Halifax has 10 seconds for his best time in the 100-yard dash and 22.6 in the 220-event. Cyril MacDonald of North Sydney will be entered in the shot put event. His best throw with the 16 pound shot was 48 feet.
