

Exchange Vows In Toronto, Ont.

Sherbourne Street United Church, Toronto, was the scene of a summer wedding on August 7, when Rev. Noble E. Haton performed the double-ring ceremony and united in marriage, Irma Olive, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacLaren, St. Peter's Bay, P. E. I., and Ralph Lorne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Weeks, Kensington. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Melvin, wore a floor-length gown of white nylon net over satin with fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves. She wore a finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewellery was a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

The bride was attended by her maid, Miss Phyllis MacLaren, as maid of honour and Miss Gladys Weeks and Mrs. Keith MacLaren as bridesmaids. They were similarly attired in gowns of ice blue nylon net over taffeta with matching hats and mitts. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother, Randolph and the guests were ushered by Keith and Victor, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Arlington Hotel. Supper was served to 40 guests. The tables were decorated with baskets of gladioli and the bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Later the young couple left on a honeymoon trip through the United States.

For travelling the bride wore a powder blue suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Frank MacLaren, Mrs. William Dover and Mrs. Aldus MacKenzie from P. E. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Weeks will reside in Toronto.

Montague W.M.S. In Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church, Montague, was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Wiggington on Sept. 21, with 17 members and two visitors present.

The devotional was led by Mrs. Arnold Wightman, assisted by Mrs. Ethel Stewart and Mrs. Duncan MacIntyre. Mrs. Bert Hanefeld sang two hymns, one in English and one in Dutch, which were greatly enjoyed.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and roll call was taken. Mrs. Leon Johnston reported on the box which she and Mrs. Brehaut packed. Two boxes were sent to Halifax valued at $51.00. A letter of thanks for the boxes was read by Mrs. Johnston.

The fall thanksgiving was discussed and Mrs. E. H. Stewart and Mrs. Lorne Wiggington were appointed to make arrangements for the special speaker, the date of the service to be decided later. The treasurer's report was then given.

It was decided to name a nominating committee at the next meeting to choose the new officers for 1955.

Mrs. D. R. Fraser, literature secretary, agreed to order the new study book about India and also a map of India. She then read a letter urging the society to try to increase their subscriptions for "Missionary Monthly."

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Duncan MacIntyre; the devotional leader will be Mrs. George Nicholson, study book, Mrs. Lorne Wiggington, lunch committee, Mrs. Lester MacLeod and Miss MacQuarrie.

It was also decided to hold the October meeting the fourth Tuesday of the month instead of the third because of the church supper on the 30th.

Mrs. Horace Fraser reported the baby band party will be held soon and the "World Friends" will be ordered.

There were five sick calls, 20 hospital calls, 14 cards, 13 treats, and nine shut-in calls made during September.

Mr. Frank Greene Sr., very kindly donated about 30 squares to the society for an Afghan and the members expressed their appreciation for this and for other help she has given the society in the past.

The meeting closed with the March Benediction and lunch was served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Vincent Prosper who died Oct. 26, 1953.

We have lost a son with a heart of gold, Who meant more to us than wealth untold. Without a farewell he fell asleep, With only memories for us to keep.

Always remembered by mother and father, sisters and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. William Prosper, Georgetown.

Heavy Damage In Car-truck Accident

At about 2:30 Monday afternoon a half ton Ford truck driven by a resident of Albion, collided with a 1954 Ford car owned by a resident of Baldwin's Road. The truck had been moving toward Lower Montague and the car was being driven out onto the main highway when the collision occurred. Both vehicles were considerably damaged and it was fortunate that no one was fatally injured.

The truck landed in an almost unbelievable position, appearing to have fallen out of the sky and landing upside down with the rear end protruding high into the air. The wreckage was supported at that odd inclination by a twisted and battered door, which was the only thing keeping it from falling over and possibly fatally injuring the driver, who was thrown from the car.

potato crop. Digging has not started as yet but the coming week will see it general throughout the area.

The many young friends of Jimmie MacKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. James MacKay, Savage Harbour will be happy to learn that he has completely recovered from his recent illness and is able to be about again as usual.

According to reports the surveyors from the Provincial Department of Highways will shortly come to the Harbour to survey the road so that all will be in readiness when the time comes to place the poles for the bringing of electric power to the district.

Among those attending the Old Time Fiddling and Sleep Dancing contest held at the Charlottetown Forum on Tuesday night were Messrs. Frank MacQuillan, E. F. LeClair, John MacCormack and Vincent Coffin all of Savage Harbour.

Joseph MacKenna of Point de Roche working in the interests of the Junior Red Cross branch of his school made a house to house canvass of Savage Harbour during the week. Joe though young in years has a wealth of experience as a salesman and is always willing to lend his talents in support of any worthy object.

A motor party from Savage Harbour consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Coffin, Mrs. Joseph Douglas, Miss Francis Coffin and Mr. Carl Coffin visited the Moore Bird Sanctuary situated a few miles out of Montague on the Murray River Road. They are loud in their praises of the fine work being carried out by Mr. Moore and of the friendly hospitable manner in which Mr. Moore welcomes all visitors.

The water front at Savage Harbour proper is a veritable beehive of activity those days with two dredges Nos. 25 and 12 preparing to begin digging operations. This along with the crib work now being built from Guil Island towards MacShane's shore for a distance of 450 yards will create a great improvement in the harbour. No. 25 is a brand new dredge of the clam shell type and has only operated a very few days prior to coming to the harbour. Freeman Webster of Morell is in charge of this craft which carries a crew of six. No. 12 is a suction type dredge, carried a crew of thirteen and is under the command of Capt. MacNally of Summerside. The brunt of the task of removing the 16,000 yards of sand and mud will fall to No. 12 as the other dredge does not lend itself so readily to the peculiar conditions which are encountered here. It is understood that it will take many days preparation before the big dredge will be ready to operate.

King's County Hospital Nursing Club Meeting

The first fall meeting of the King's County Hospital Nursing Club was held at the home of Mrs. Leon Johnston on Monday, Oct. 18. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The matter of the Canada Packers cooking school was discussed and Mrs. Carl Stewart and Mrs. Horace Fraser were appointed to look into the matter and report at the next meeting. It was decided to hold the coming meeting on a Monday instead of Wednesday.

The financial report was given and showed a satisfactory balance. The buying committee was asked to buy another bolt of flannel and also some cotton. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. G. Bennett and the lunch is to be served by Miss Florrie Beaton and Mrs. Tom Clair.

At this point Mrs. Leon Johnston came forward and read an address to Mrs. Charles Aitken, expressing the regret of the members at her moving into Charlottetown. Upon completion of the address Mrs. Aitken was presented with a gift from the members. Mrs. Aitken warmly thanked the members.

This was followed by a social hour and a lunch served by the hostess and the lunch committee.

Another Red Deserts

VIENNA (Reuters) — The independent evening newspaper Bild-Telegraf says a man in Soviet army uniform was arrested in the grounds of the United States high commission's radio station Monday night. A U. S. embassy spokesman would not confirm or deny the report. Bild-Telegraf says the man claimed to have deserted from his unit and asked for political asylum.

Bathurst Hovers

The Mahaneys came into the world at Saint John. The Mahaneys all lived Doucet, 42, and slightly built, has driven a department store truck for 17 years except for Second World War service as an Army sergeant.

He took the news of the quads' arrival by blurring out to doctors: "My goodness gracious. Why should this happen to me?"

PLAINLY AWE-STROCK

He was plainly awe-struck when he was told his family had jumped from one to five because he had expected twins.

Mrs. Doucet was described as "tickled pink."

"I'm so glad there's a boy," she added.

This north shore lumbering town of 5,000 people recently French speaking inhabitants looked on the quads as a major civic achievement. One said it was the greatest thing that had happened to Bathurst since the two-year-old discovery of base metals a few miles away.

The deluge of anticipated gifts started with the quads only a matter of hours old. A dairy offered to supply them with milk. Sacred Heart University offered to educate the boy in high school and pay the cost of a bachelor of arts course.

GETS ANOTHER WEEK

Doucet had just finished a two-week vacation but his boss, J. Harper Kent, gave him another week off with pay. He also loaded Doucet down with cigars.

"I just bought bricks for a new bungalow," he muttered, "but now

Toronto's Main Street To Be Re-opened Today After 5-year Subway Project

TORONTO (CP) — Once upon a time — maybe it was only a couple of years ago — a little girl stepped from Union station, looked upon Toronto and exclaimed: "Gee, Mama! Wooden streets!" Sure enough, in front of the station and on up Yonge street, the city's main thoroughfare, ran a street of wood. Toronto was building a subway and the workmen had to gouge out an underground route and cover the long hole with wood for the convenience of the motorists and shoppers.

But as the years went by the convenience became an inconvenience. One street after another was blocked off, sidewalks disappeared under mounds of earth and materials.

Shoppers began to desert the downtown district and the merchants began to howl. Protestations grew to a fury but like all storms, they have subsided.

For today, with a great whoop-de-do, Toronto officially unveils its NEW YONGE STREET.

The last blockades have been removed and the final paving is laid. Gone are the streetcars, overhead wiring and lights. Flush against the storefronts are the new neon signs and street lighting.

After five years' construction, Yonge street is again open for business.

The shopkeepers, with the financial assistance of the city, are throwing a party to celebrate. Originally they intended holding a day-long street carnival, but hurricane Hazel's disastrous punch at the city last Friday changed their plans. Instead, the celebration will be keyed around the Ontario Hurricane Relief Fund.
