To Talk Later

They say you shouldn't give an opinion on a case while the jury is out. So we'll refrain from commenting on the "ten second protest" for the time being. We feel rather strongly on the matter, however, and will have something to say later.

Minor Hockey Week

The thing to talk about now is minor hockey. All this week the boys of the town will be having their inning, and we adults who are interested in sports should try to make it an enjoyable and rewarding one for the small fry. Teams from RCAF station. Kensington, Borden, O'Leary. and Charlottetown will play Summerside minor teams at Civic Stadium this week, and it is hoped the parents of the players and others will encourage by their attendance the boys, and the minor hockey promoters, Gord Kelly and company, who have worked and are working so hard to make this week a success.

As has been often pointed out before, it is not only the ability to play hockey that is being taught those kids. (when the job is well done), but the gentle art of give and take, which might be called character building, is also given attention. The background is ideal for such training. The kids love to play hockey, and so their attitude towards their instructor is favorable. The pills are handed them, sugar-coated with the enjoyment which hockey afford. Teachers and parents try to impart principles of proper conduct under much more difficult circumstances because of the hostility arising from lessons, not loved as sports are, and restrictions imposed in the home. So your son may never reach the NHL, or be a success in any adult league, yet he may pick up important success factors for the give and take of adult living. We have good leaders here in Summerside, and parents should be grateful for this, and lend their support whenever possible.

In what might be termed an upset victory the Slemon Park boys of the Summerside High School defeated Eric Johnson's town foursome who represented the high school with considerable credit last year. So congratulations to this cinderella team, Charles Conkey, Iain Wolfenden, John Nelson, and Melvin Baxter. We're now backing you to sweep through all the other schoolboy curling quartets on the Island, and represent Summerside and Prince Edward Island in the Canadian bonspitl.

Bounce From Behind

Our Junior Legionaires tied Halifax Junior All-Stars 5-5 yesterday (Sunday) at Halifax.

The Halifax boys led 1-0 at the end of the first period, and 3-1 at the end of the second. The Legionaires in one of those sudden blitzes for which they have become famous scored four goals in the first ten minutes of the final period, and led 5-3. But the Nova Scotia boys bounced back to score two goals and tie the game.

BOUQUET AND BRICKBAT

It matters not what work you do:
Ditch-digger, banker, or dressmaker,
As long as to the kids you're true,
In minor hockey you're a "taker".
You may be handsome, well-to-do,
Have many friends and live in splendour.
In spite of this, you're just a schmoo
If you're a bloomin', blinkin "Sender".

Saints Topple Mounties To Maintain Their Lead

SACKVILLE (Special) — Jack Kane's St. Dunstan's Varsity Saints took over sole possession of first place in the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League at Sackville Saturday. courtesy of a 6-4 victory over Mount Allison University. The Saints had beaten them on home ice the night before 7-3. They are now two points ahead of Acadia Axemen in the standings. Acadia stayed in the race by edging Dalhousie 2-1 Saturday.

For the Saints, Dennis DeCarufel. Billy MacMillan, and Dick Tingley each scored two goals. Mount Allison's goals were scored by John Rising, Pete Manderson, Dave Manderson, and Ken Evans. The Saints led 2-1 after the first period, scored two more in the second. but the Mounties outscored them 3-2 in the final twenty minutes. John Rising put Mount "A" ahead 1-0 at 11:51 with a long shot from just inside the blueline that got past goalie Gerard Smith. Dennis DeCarufel evened the count at 13:07. banging in Billy MacMillan's pass from the corner. DeCarufel scored his second of the game three minutes later on a pretty play with Vince Mulligan. Mulligan carried the puck from his own end to the Mounties' blueline and then passed to DeCarufel coming down the wing, who promptly shot the puck into the right hand corner.

Billy MacMillan garnered his first on a solo effort at 8.05 of the second. Taking the puck at centre ice, he skated around the defense and rifled a shot past Chuck Lawrence in the Mount Allison net. Dick Tingley increased the lead to 4-1 at 10.43 when he tipped in Jim Peddle's shot from the point. It was in this period that the Saints had the most chances to score. Dick Tingley, for example, had Chuck Lawrence at his mercy twice at the four minute mark, only to have the puck miss the net.

The ineffectiveness of the St. Dunstan's powerplay was very evident in the early minutes of the third period. With forty-nine seconds played, John Marshall of Mount "A" got a penalty for holding. Then with nine seconds left in the penalty, Pete Manderson scored while shorthanded to bring the score to 4-2. He picked up a loose puck at the bluefine, and skated around Gerard Smith, who came out of the net about ten feet.

However. Billy MacMillan got that goal back ten seconds later when he beat Lawrence from close in. Tingley made it 6-2 at 11:38 mark. Standing on the faceoff mark, he wheeled around with a backhander that caught the top left hand corner. After this goal, the Saints let up considerably. Mount Allison tried to put on the pressure but was hindered by penalties to both teams.

Dave MacLernon scored for the Mounties at 17:56 on a neat backhander for the Mounties third goal, and Ken Evans closed out the scoring at 19.24 on a quick shot from the blueline.

The close checking that prevailed in the third period resulted into a near brawl in the final minute of play. Billy MacMillan, who threw some crushing body checks in this period, hit Billy Hay along the boards. Hay then turned around and hit MacMillan on the side of the head with his stick. After swinging sticks at each other MacMillan proceeded to clobber Hay before the linesmen separated them.

After the game, both MacMillan and Vince Mulligan had to get stiches. MacMillan received two to close the cut where Hay hit him with the stick, and Mulligan got five stitches on various cuts on the face.

Referee Wilf Miles called a total of fifteen penalties, nine were to St. Dunstan's.

Saints Lose Hoop Battle

Sackville, N.B. (CP) — Mount Allison University Mounties overcame a 10-point deficit at half time to down St. Dunstan's University 80-77 in a Maritime Intercollegiate basketball conference game here Saturday.

It was the second time in 24 hours that St. Dunstan's saw a 10-point lead evaporate. Friday night University of New Brunswick Red Raiders rallied from behind to defeat the Charlottetown team 70-64.

In Saturday's game St. Dunstan's led 45-35 going into the second half but faded before the Mount Allison's strong comeback led by Mike Harrison.

Harrison scored 29 with Phil Johnson adding 19.

Bob Francouer topped St. Dunstan's and game scorers with 35 points. Len Sirois scored 16.

Local 'Y' Swim Team Takes Top Honors

Last Saturday the Charlottetown YMCA Bluephins swim team travelled to Moncton to swim in competition against the St. John Y, Fredericton Y and Moncton Y swim teams in the 2nd annual Moncton YMCA Invitational Swim Meet.

Placing last in the meet last year, the local Y team went into the meet as the underdogs. This year the local Y team took top honors.

With about one quarter of the meet over the Charlottetown team was in last place and looked like there was no hope of winning. At the haly way mark all four teams were in the running for the trophy with Charlottetown, Saint John and Fredericton tied with 58 points and Moncton in 2nd place with 52 points. Coming to a three way tie at the half sparked the local team and at that point they took the lead to win with a 149 point total.

Fredericton placed second with 130 points and Saint John third with 125. Moncton finished forth with 123 points.

The difference in points shows how close the four teams are. In many cases it took the finish judges 10 minutes to decide the order the swimmers finished.

Blair Mayne, Ralph Ross. Fran Whitlock beginners in the Butterfly stroke took first away from the New Brunswick swimmers while Bob Lively and Carol Brown placed a close second.

Top swimmers in the freestyle events for the local team were Gordie Beck, Janice George, Dave Walters, Steve Wonnacott, Fran Whitlock and Carol Brown all placing first in their events. While Heather MacLean and Bob Lively showed great skill in the Breaststroke events.

The local Y team proved their skill in freestyle and relay events as they placed first in 8 out of 13 events making this the deciding factor for the team. Wayne Schleyer co-captain of the swim team received the trophy on behalf of the team.

Winning the Moncton Invitational Meet gives the local team a good idea as to what they can do in the Maritime Y Meet to be held this year at the local YMCA on the fourth of April.

Ch'town Midgets Nip Geo'town

GEORGETOWN — Charlottetown Midgets defeated Georgetown Midgets 4-2 at the Georgetown Rink Saturday night.

Georgetown led 2-1 at the end of the first period on goals by P. Walsh and G. Schully with J. Petrie scoring for Charlottetown.

In the second period J. Arsenault fired two for the visitors with no reply from the home team to make the score read 3-2.

Charlottetown held the Georgetown boys scoreless in the third and Billy MacKinnon added an insurance marker to make the final score read 4-2 in favour of Charlottetown.

Referees were Sonny Johnson and John Lavers.

Boston Shuts Out Leafs; Hawks Tie Canadiens 2-2

BOSTON (CP) — Second-period goals by Jerry Toppazzini and Guy Gendron touched off Boston's 2-0 National Hockey League victory over revenge-seeking Toronto Sunday night.

The third-place Maple Leafs were hoping to retaliate for the humiliating 11-0 loss pinned on them by the last-place Bruins eight nights earlier. But the hustling Bruins would have none of it.

Determination enabled Toppazzini to score while the Bruins were shorthanded. Toppazzini, on a penalty - killing prowl, broke loose from his own end and bore down on Toronto goalie Johnny Bower from the right side. The shot was stopped.

Toppazzini went behind the net, dug out the puck and got it out to the left side. He lost his first swipe to a defender's stick but knocked the puck loose again and fired it into the far corner.

Johnny Bucyk passed to Gendron at close range on a 2-on-1 break. Bower hurled himself to the ice where the shot struck his body and hopped over him into the goal.

Boston goalie Ed Johnston made 26 saves, 14 of them in the final period, as he registered his fifth shutout of the season.

Johnston was peppered furiously in spots during the third period but did not falter. The period had scarcely opened when he got a wicked slap shot by Dave Keon off his chest. The puck fell down on the ice where Johnston smothered it just before it got to the goal line.

JOHNSTON SUPERB

Other remarkable stops included one off Billy Harris on a three-one-two break and another diving save with his pads of George Armstrong's long, low slap.

The most conspicuous event of the scoreless first period came at 7:30. Frank Mahovlich, for the third time in less than a minute, intercepted a Dean Prentice pass. This time he barreled in but his shot hit the post.

Later Andy Hebenton of the Bruins missed a rebound right in front off a Prentice shot. Boston rookie Gary Dornhoefer failed on three shots near the end of the period.

Toronto's Allan Stanley got a 10-stitch cut on the left side of the forehead but was back for the start of the second period.

With Dornhoefer off for tripping in the second period and the score already 2-0, Johnston stopped a power-play break-in from the left side by Bob Pulford, the puck bouncing off his chest.

CHICAGO 2, MONTREAL 2

CHICAGO (AP) — Two goals in the final 6½ minutes enabled Chicago Black Hawks to tie Montreal Canadiens 2-2 in a National Hockey League game here Sunday night.

The deadlock kept the two teams tied on top of the standings with 56 points, five ahead of Toronto Maple Leafs who lost 2-0 Sunday night to Boston.

The Canadiens, who played without star centre Jean Beliveau and wingers Bernie Geoffrion and Claude Provost, built up a 2-0 lead midway in the second period.

Rookie Yvan Cournoyer. called up from the Canadiens' junior farm, got the Canadiens off at 4:35 when he converted on a pass from fellow newcomer Andre Boudrias while Phil Esposito of the Hawks was in the penalty box.

BERENSON SCORES

Canadiens were shorthanded in the second period when Montreal's Gord Berenson stole the puck from Chicago rear guard Elmer Vasko near the Hawk blue line and skated in alone to beat goalie Glenn Hall

Chicago's hopes of hanging on to the tie seemed futile until the 13:18 mark of the final frame when captain and defenceman Pierre Pilote took a pass from Ken Wharram near centre ice and skated through the Canadiens defence to beat Charlie Hodge from 10 feet out with a partially screened shot

The tying marker came at 17:36 when Bobby Hull, the league's top goal-producer, got a rebound of Bill Hay's shot and jammed in his 32nd season counter past a helpless Hodge.

The Canadiens made the best of rare opportunities. Hall was required to make only 14 saves during the 60 minutes. Hodge came up with 26, picking up half that total in the busy final period.
