Souris And Indian River Plays Are Finalists In Provincial Festival

Plays by St. Mary's Dramatic Club, Souris, and the Indian River Dramatic Club were selected last night as finalists out of the three rural entries in this class for the forthcoming Provincial Drama Festival.

The playoffs were completed last night in St. Peter's Bay when the St. Peter's Bay Dramatic Club presented their comedy, "More Power To You," under the direction of Mr. Daniel MacDonald.

The Indian River entry is a comedy drama, "Eyes Of Love" and St. Mary's have entered the comedy, "Shea's Wedding." These productions will appear as finalists in the festival to be held at Parkdale Hall the week of May 26.

A large crowd witnessed the performance by the St. Peter's Bay Group last evening in the Legion Hall and heard adjudication by Mr. H. Barry Bugden and brief remarks by the president of the P. E. I. Drama Festival Association, Mrs. Fred Gates.

Mr. Bugden complimented the group on their choice of play, saying he found it very entertaining but quite difficult for the average cast. A number of the members of the cast were congratulated for the fine characterization they had given of difficult roles.

Miss Jean MacDonald was chosen as the best actress of the evening for her consistent performance as the eccentric "Aunt Kate Davenport," and 12-year-old Dunstan MacDonald was selected as best actor for his very natural performance as "Max."

Following the adjudication before the audience, Mr. Bugden talked with the cast and its director and answered questions and made suggestions to the very enthusiastic players.

The members were privileged also to hear a partial recording of the play through the kindness of Mr. Pius Blackett, Charlottetown, who had recorded the performance during the evening.

The cast of the play was as follows: "Mrs. Hortense Dean", Mrs. James MacKenzie; "Frances", Edna MacEwen; "Victoria", Marion Sanderson; "Max", Dunstan MacDonald; "Aunt Kate", Jean MacDonald; 'Paul Plummer"; Henry Wilson; "Lord Arthur Lansdale"; Glendon MacKinnon; "Anthony Brice", John Wilson; "Susan", Henrietta MacKinnon; "Brian", David Pratt.

A very fine vocal trio was offered as a specialty by Tommy Ledwell, Daniel MacLean and Stanford Jardine, accompanied by Mrs. M. N. Beck and a step dance by John Wilson, accompanied by violinist Kenneth MacDonald was also very well received.

Lt.-Governor Prowse Pays Warm Tribute To Salvation Army

A warm tribute to the work of the Salvation Army was paid yesterday by His Honour Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse in officially opening the special Red Shield campaign for funds for the extension of Sunset Lodge.

Stating that he felt it "an honour and a privilege" to appeal to the public in this connection, His Honour added:

"Each and everyone of us knows the splendid work done by all connected wih this grand organization — no one in need has ever been turned away regardless of colour, race or religious affiliation. In peace and during war, as well, thousands have been helped by the 'Army' as it is affectionately called by those who know it best.

"At this time, in order to maintain the work among the needy of this Province and also extend Sunset Lodge, the home operated by the Army here in Charlottetown for elderly ladies, a considerable sum is necessary. Through the generosity of two of our recently deceased citizens a goodly amount of the money needed was left to be used for development of Sunset Lodge, however, in order to complete the annex which is to be built to increase and improve accommodation and facilities at Sunset Lodge, considerably more money must be obtained.

"This amount, coupled along with that necessary to perform the usual services given by the Salvation Army in our Province, approximates $25,000. Volunteer workers have been organized all over our Island Province to make a thorough canvas in an effort to raise the necessary funds for this most worthy cause. They are giving of their time and energy and doubtless each and everyone of them will also make their personal contribution to the fund. May I personally congratulate them and bespeak on their behalf the wholehearted support to the Salvation Army campaign of all our citizens."

In conclusion, His Honour stated that in his opinion, "no other organization carries on any more worthy work than the Salvation Army, and in their effort to provide comfortable accommodation for the elderly ladies of this Province, they deserve every support."

Reviews Work Of Salvation Army

Senior Major A. W. Martin of the Salvation Army gave a very fine talk at Rotary yesterday on the subject "They Live Again". His talk dealt mainly with the work of the Salvation Army in aiding those who have been sent to prisons, reformatories, and prison vocational schools.

The Salvation Army follows four basic principles which are spiritual regeneration, family reconciliation, vocational rehabilitation and learning of new trades, and the preservation of the status of those who have been committed to institutions of various kinds. He said there had been an increase of one thousand persons in Federal prisons in the past five years and of these five hundred and fifty one were under twenty one years of age and some as young as fifteen years.

The Salvation Army during the past year had made personal calls on 6,425 prison inmates across Canada and in addition had made 8,000 police court calls. In experience it has been found that the three curses of the present time are drink, drugs, and divorce, all of which are unsolved national problems.

Major Martin spoke of the help Rotarians and other organizations were giving to the present Salvation Army drive and he hoped they would be able to enlarge the present Sunset Lodge in Charlottetown. He had been stationed in Charlottetown during the period 1928-31 and he helped organize a band here at that time. Some of the band instruments were presented by the late Senator Prowse and the late Lt. Col. Moore. Of his 40 years in the Salvation Army Major Martin said that 34 of these he had spent in field work.

Capt. Titcombe of the local branch introduced Major Martin, at the request of Chairman Roy Cudmore. Co-Chairman Brig. W. W. Reid thanked the speaker.

During the business part of the meeting yesterday a resolution was passed for eight directors of Rotary instead of the present seven and Rotarian Bob Parent was elected to fill the extra directorship. During the meeting free copies of a beautifully illustrated issue of the Kentville Advertiser published in connection with Apple Blossom Week were distributed with the compliments of Mr. Frank Burns, the publisher, and of the Kentville Rotary Club.

Several members have already indicated their intention of attending the big Rotary district convention at Digby June 19-20, and further information about the convention was supplied yesterday by the Club Secretary.

Farm Laborers Arrive From Germany, Holland

Within the past few days about a dozen Dutch and German farm workers have become available for Island farmers. All of these men have either arrived in the Province, or are due here before the end of May.

Mr. Vincent Chisholm of the Department of Immigration, Halifax, in cooperation with the National Employment Office, Charlottetown, has already placed some of the new arrivals from Europe, and has made arrangements to place others as they arrive from across the Atlantic.

There are several family groups among the immigrants as well as a number of single men. Two German workers are expected in the Province this week, and have been allotted to Mr. Reg Coffin, Rollo Bay; and Mr. Raymond MacDonald, Howe Bay. Single Dutch workers have been engaged by Mr. Eric Simpson, Cavendish; Mr. Alton Rodd, Milton; Mr. Malcolm McLaughlin, Dunstaffnage; Mr. Harry Wood, Bunbury and Mr. James Rankin of Southport. Family groups have been placed with Mr. Sam Hume, Uigg; Mr. Wilfred Holmes, Union Road; Mr. Walter Heartz, East Royalty; and Mr. E. Howatt, New Wiltshire.

The Netherlands Government takes an active interest in the settlement of Dutch workers, and Immigration officials must have first-hand information about the farms to which the Hollanders are alloted. Living quarters must be comfortable and the farmer must have the reputation of being a good employer. If at all possible Immigration officers visit all farms before workers are placed.

Sunset Lodge Fund Drive Is Launched Successfully

Twenty-three special names teams will begin their exacting but friendly task of laying the foundation for the general drive, when they start out this morning to contact contributors to the Sunset Lodge and Red Shield Salvation Army campaign. Jim Montgomery gave the morning orders to his men at a supper meeting at the Queen Hotel last evening, which was presided over by City Chairman, Brigadier Reid.

Three minute pep talks covered the ground when given by Provincial Chairman, T. R. Cudmore, Brigadier Reid, Senior Captain Titcombe and Senior Major Martin, and listened to by men who know what it is all about.

A fund of $40,000, left by two deceased devotees to the cause represented by Sunset Lodge, brought the objective of expansion within the realm of possibility, with the result that $25,000 is now sought to make the movement a reality. Several city firms have increased their contribution three-fold, over last year's contribution, and the announcement that Lieut. Governor T. W. L. Prowse had given the Chairman a cheque for $250.00, was received with great pleasure.

Sr. Major A. W. Martin, who was in command of the Charlottetown Corps from 1928 to 1931, and who with Mrs. Martin spent the week-end here, recalled his tour of duty in Charlottetown as "Three of the happiest years of my life."

The Major organized the first Salvation Army Band in the city, when instruments and uniforms were donated at a cost exceeding $1,000, by citizens. Major Martin is in charge of the Eventide Home for men, in Moncton, N. B., and is looking forward to the expansion of Sunset Lodge here, and the probability of equalling Eventide in size and utility. Major Martin concluded, "we are in a bona fide field, cross roads of all sections of the community. We do not have to sell the idea, the very nature of our work appeals to all colours, races and creeds."

Provincial Chairman Cudmore reported that he had, in company with Brigadier Reid and Captain Titcombe, visited more than 100 Presidents or Secretaries of Women's Institutes, where the finest co-operation was promised, including home to home canvas. "The utmost enthusiasm prevails" said Mr. Cudmore, "and we did not meet with the slightest criticism, on any occasion. I am convinced that the rural drive will be really 'All out' for Sunset Lodge."

The general drive begins a week from today.
