

Campbell-Stewart Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, Wednesday, July 14, at 10 o'clock, when Dorothy Stewart, daughter of Mr. Harry Stewart, Montague, became the bride of Richard Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Campbell, Whim Road.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of roses, peonies and syringas, and the guests' pews were marked with tiny bouquets of pansies with white satin bows.

Rev. D. A. Campbell officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The wedding music was played by the church organist, Mrs. A. F. Campbell, and the soloist was Mr. Malcolm Munro, who sang during the signing of the register "I Love You Truly."

To the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in a floor-length wedding gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt of white tulle and lace over layers of white nylon tulle and silver satin.

The bride's table was adorned with bouquets of cut flowers and tall taper, and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake which was beautifully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Campbell and responded to by the groom. A buffet luncheon was served and Mrs. H. J. Munro, Mrs. Edward Farquharson and Mrs. Colin MacDonal poured tea. The tea was cut by Mrs. Harry Lawson and those serving were Mrs. Frank Graham, Mrs. Sandy MacDonal, Mrs. Basil MacKinnon, Mrs. Forhan Bears, Mrs. Martin MacDonal and Mrs. George Stewart.

Immediately following the reception the happy young couple left on a wedding trip to points of interest in the Maritimes. For travelling the bride chose a beige suit with red accessories and wore a corsage of Sweetheart roses. On their return they will reside at Commercial Cross where the groom owns and operates a successful retail business.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale, Florida, Miss Elizabeth Dyer, Bridgewater, Mass., Mrs. Russell Downe, Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawson, Stanhope, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Watts, York.

The bridesmaids were Miss Nan Stewart, sister of the bride, and Miss Laurie MacDonal. Miss Stewart's gown was of blue lace over tulle with matching halo head-dress, and Miss MacDonal wore a floor-length gown of yellow lace over tulle with matching halo head-dress. Both carried old-fashioned nosegays of yellow, white mauve baby mums.

Little Misses Carolyn Campbell and Paula Downe were charming as flower girls with dresses of pink and blue organza with matching head-dress and carried baskets of sweetpeas and roses.

Mr. Robert Campbell, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Forhan Bears, uncle of the bride, and Mr. Claude Stewart, brother of the bride.

The reception for seventy guests was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Kilmuir, Mrs. Stewart chose for her granddaughter's wedding a dress of mauve crepe with the profession and next year is engaged to teach in Sturgeon school.

Memories of Home

I love it, I love it and who would blame me for loving that old home there. I've treasured it long—ever since a wee child, For many sweet hours around it I whiled. Neath the green grove's shade, So contented I played.

Endearing it fondly my parents lived there With a family of twelve their fire-side to share. In sweet loving harmony together were tied— Which brightened the home with parental pride.

We loved that dear cot 'Twas a mansion we thought— Where an old fashioned garden was mothers delight, Including bright roses, red, pink and white.

Tread softly kind stranger when you draw near To this hallowed spot I love so dear. For those memories cling And loneliness bring.

In the thick tangled wildwood beyond the main road Was the song bird's, wild rabbit's and squirrel's abode. In spring time pink May flowers and gold thread entwined So dear to my childhood, Were sounds in that wildwood.

From main road to river once was a fence Of stumps and brown stones, 'twas an old time defence From the animal kingdom that might interfere With garden or crops of friend neighbor near. It was a good neighbor policy And not made for fallacy.

This path to the river I traversed so oft, In summer so green and velvety soft. That happy day path I wish I could see But paths like people oft separate. The path of life has many a turn Upon its broadway so much we all learn.

Like youth of today our family did roam— Married and settled in homes of their own — In the far away West some members sojourned — Were happy and prosperous but never returned. Neath the sod of the West Those beloved ones rest.

The younger ones stayed in the land of their birth— In due time were interred in their beloved brown earth. In St. Mary's church yard at Montague Where sad and prayerful I bade them adieu. In peace may they rest In the home that is best.

Off in the night when others are sleeping And the moon thru the casement shyly is peeping — There comes o'er heart a pang of depression — Seeing old home in a strangers possession. —Lena Vessey, Portland 5, Maine. (Formerly of Montague).
