Kensington Breeder Takes High Awards In Guernseys

Some good competition was seen at the Provincial Exhibition yesterday in the Guernsey classes and some good cattle were shown during the day. Harold Palmer of Kensington won both the Premier Breeder's and the Premier Exhibition's banners. J. Eric Hurry of Winsloe was the runner-up in both cases.

Owen Younker and Son of Kingston were a very close third for the exhibitor's award. Daniel MacLean of Milton and Ernest F. Coles and Son of the same place followed in that order.

Daniel MacLean was third in the competition for the Premier Breeders award. Younker and Son were fourth and the Coles were fifth. The banners were donated by the Canadian Guernsey Breeders Association. They were presented to Mr. Palmer by Neil A. Matheson, M.P., a former secretary of the Prince Edward Island Guernsey Breeders Association. The banners commemmorate the fiftieth anniversary of the C.B.A.

Championship honors were shared by Guy Rodd of Brackley, J. Eric Hurry, Alton J. Bell of Kensington, Harold Palmer and Owen Younker and Son.

Mr Rodd had the junior and grand champion male in Brackley Melba's Patrician. This senior calf is a maternal half brother of Brackley Nancy that was reserve junior and reserve senior All Canadian several years ago and was later a champion at the Canadian National Exhibition. Mr. Rodd also showed yesterday the junior champion and reserve grand champion female to cop top honors in championship ribbons. His Brackley Trixie was reserve senior and reserve grand and her calf, Trixie's Maid was junior female champion.

FEMALE CHAMPIONS

The senior female and grand female champion was Fraserdale Fore Heroine, a two year old heifer shown by Owen Younker and Son. This heifer was junior and reserve grand female champion last year and was also the junior champion at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Reserve junior female champion yesterday was Harold Palmer's Maiden Hill Nora's Pride.

The senior champion male was Brackley Jeanie's Forward shown by Ernest F. Coles and Son. Reserve senior was Patosie Phillip shown by J. Eric Hurry. Janet's Buddy went reserve junior and reserve grand male for Alton J. Bell of Kensington, a new breeder who had reason for pride in winning a championship ribbon on his first attempt.

MacLean Horne of Alberton took a number of animals to the show and had some strong placings. Roscoe Walker of Kensington showed a couple of animals and showed up well. He had a third in the class for two year old males and a fifth in the class for dry mature females. Harrison showed a junior yearling male and placed second.

BOATING ON SUMMERSIDE HARBOR

Summerside Harbor is the scene of a newly revived interest in boating, and this summer has seen a substantial increase in the number of fast outboard motor boats in use here. This has led to the organization of a boating club and the construction of a club house on Holman's Wharf.

The calm sheltered water of the harbor offers an ideal site for this sport and in addition to the enjoyment of the boat owners, the interesting picture which these craft present as they glide swiftly through the harbor waters provide a pleasing scene to the large number of spectators who enjoy watching the boats in action.

Tenders To Be Called For Retaining Wall

Tenders will be called immediately for the construction of a concrete retaining wall to be built along the Summerside waterfront, according to a report attributed to Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, M.P.

Tenders will close on September 14th and the new wall, which is expected to be completed this fall, will connect the portion of the Marine Wharf where the new construction ends, with the existing sea wall just east of Morrison's beverage manufacturing plant.

The firm of Morrison & MacRae are at present hauling and spreading gravel on the Marine Wharf, and the surface of the wharf will likely be paved next year S.

Record-Equalling 63 In Opening Round Of Golf

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WESTON, Ont. (CP) — Charlie Sifford jazz-footed down the fairways of this suburban Toronto course Wednesday to a record-equalling Canadian open golf championship round of 63.

He carded his brilliant nine-under-par score in mid-afternoon and it held up as the low score of the round although Arnold Palmer, 1954 U. S. amateur champion from Latrobe, Pa., came through with an eight-under 64. Palmer put together a pair of 32s and Sifford a 31-32.

This opening round of the 72-hole $15,000 tournament developed into a free-for-all par-busting parade as more than 40 came up with under-par cards and another score or more equalled the par-72 figure.

But defending champion Pat Fletcher from Saskatoon wasn't in the select crowd. He just about shot himself out of contention with a 75.

"Jazz music is the stuff I love and I was realy shufflin' and jazz-footin' down those nice green fairways," Sifford said after his hot round. The 33-year-old native of Philadelphia, Pa., who has earned only $582 in the winter and summer tours this year, added:

"I listened to jazz records at breakfast this morning and I loved 'em. You can be sure, boy, that its jazz every morning for me while this tournament is on."

Ed (Porky) Oliver, the veteran from Lemont, Ill., set the record of 63 in the Canadian Open at Montreal Beaconsfield in 1947. It stood up until last year when Bob Rosburg, of San Francisco, Calif., equalled it in the first round of the Open at Vancouver.

Both were among the 180-odd golfers who started Wednesday in search of the $3,000 first-prize money. Oliver shot a 71 and Rosburg a 70.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

Summerside baseball players didn't seem to get too rusty from their long summer lay-off. It was rather surprising to see Joe Bernard and Paul Schurman pitch so efectively against the Truro Shieks, considering the fact that they had not pitched all summer. Garland Harris, the other pitcher used, did see some action with the Midgets this year, but deserves a great deal of credit for his performance against these strong Intermediates considering his age. Garland struck out five batters in three innings, and gave up only three hits.

• • •

Boxing fans are looking forward to the card Jerry Sheen is putting on at the Raceway Stadium on September 3. The main bout will feature "Duck" Trainor from Charlottetown, and a MacDonald boy from Glace Bay. Trainor is today about as exciting a slugger as you will see in Prince Edward Island. This MacDonald chap has a rep in the Bay as a fighter who sneers at Fancy Dan tactics. He believes in trading punches from bell to bell.

• • •

Bud Ramsay will take on Holly Borden from New Glasgow. These boys met in Halifax earlier this summer, and Ramsay got the nod from the two judges and referee, but the fans thought it was a really rousing battle all the way. We can believe that, having seen Bud in action more than once. He carries the fight to his opponent all the way.

• • •

Frank "Peanuts" Arsenault will fight "Young Tiger" Steele from Charlottetown. These boys met at the Forum early in the summer, and pleased the crowd no end with their punching display. Steele won a split decision, but everyone we talked to admitted it was a pretty close afair, with "Peanuts" taking charge in the early rounds, and rocking Steele with some solid punches, and the "Young Tiger" roaring back in the final rounds to gain his split decision.

• • •

The Grand River "Gals" are improving every time they play a softball game. They gave the Capitol Stars the scare of the season last Tuesday night. They had a substantial lead half way through the game, but the Stars caught them in the ninth inning. The "Gals" deserve a lot of credit for the way they've improved. Give them another year of practice and experience, and we'll bet dollars to doughnuts they'll be the team to beat for the Island crown.

• • •

When playoff time rolls around, the Capitol Stars will be strengthened by three or four of the Grand River team. This should make them a pretty tough aggregation to beat for Island honors, and they may even worry the mainland teams, though we have heard there is a very strong Halifax team this year, put together this spring for the express purpose of taking the Maritime crown.

• • •

Johnny Carroll's C & B Midgets will journey to Springhill on Sunday to take on the Springhill Juveniles in an exhibition game of baseball. This is a pretty large assignment for our Midgets. Taking on a higher division away from home will be like a lightweight taking on a welterweight in the bigger fellow's home town. We have a feeling, however, that this Midget team will give a good account of themselves.

Fisheries Minister Out Of Hospital

MOSCOW, (Reuters) —Canadian Fisheries Minister James Sinclair is "considerably better" and has left hospital after a fall 10 days ago, the Canadian embassy said Wednesday.

An embassy spokesman said it had received a telegram from Petropavlovsk in the Soviet far east—where Sinclair fell—reporting that the minister had returned to his hotel there. The accident occurred while the Canadian was touring Soviet fishing installations. He is expected to continue his tour shortly.

Boy Fatally Injured By Dogs

BRACEBRIDGE (CP) — Wayne Baker, 6, died Wednesday of injuries suffered when he was attacked by a pack of dogs, police said.

The boy, whose home was in the Toronto suburb of Scarborough, was chewed Tuesday and rushed to Bracebridge Hospital for several blood transfusions. He died as he was being put on an ambulance that was to take him to Toronto.

It was reported that while he was walking along a road with his pet dog, another dog attacked the pet. The boy tried to part the dogs and both turned on him. Other dogs joined in.
