SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA, May 8.

In the House this afternoon, Sir Charles moved a resolution giving the Government power to borrow twenty-five million dollars. He explained that five million dollars was needed to meet a floating debt in London; six millions to meet amounts due for Railway subsidies. In this case, however, the policy of taking power to borrow a larger amount than was actually required, had been adhered to.

He then proceeded to discuss the debt in general, and argued that large as has been the increase in the debt during the past ten years, it was not nearly so large as it appeared on its face. In the first place, unlike other debts, it was incurred wholly for public works that were of great value. In the next place the construction of these public works had so increased our credit abroad that we were now able to borrow at three and a quarter per cent. standing third among the nations of the world in the matter of national credit. He then proceeded to analyze the debt, and showed that in a debt like ours it was not proposed to pay off in the near future, but to meet at maturity by issuing new bonds. It was really not the amount of debt but the amount of annual interest that was the measure of its burden on this country. Therefore, when it was proposed to alarm the country regarding the magnitude of its debt, it was important that the country should understand that its total net debt could be funded to-morrow if need be for the annual payment of interest on one hundred and seventy-five million dollars at the rate we apy a year.

Mr. Charlton, in the absence of Cartwright, criticized Sir Charles' statement, and argued that the debt was far too great, and had been spent in constructing useless public works. The I. C. R., he said, could not be given away, and as to the P. E. I. Railway, it was worse than useless.

After recess the borrowing resolution was adopted and the House proceeded to the consideration of the resolution assuming the Lake St. Peter Debt.

A lively debate ensued, the Grits not going the length of opposing the resolution, but attempting to magnify the amount of the debt assumed.

Horse Notes.

THE CARRIAGE STALLION PHYSICIAN.

The handsome carriage stallion Physician, recently purchased in the United States by Mr. John Richards, Bideford, arrived in the steamer from Pictou last evening and is now at the Eureka Stables where he has already been seen and admired by a large number of prominent breeders and horsemen. Physician is a rich bay, stands 16 hands high, and weighs when in flesh, we should judge, about 1200 lbs. He is very handsome and stylish, has a splendid set of legs and feet, powerful back and lion, and is, taken all in all, a handsome specimen of horseflesh. His breeding is fully equal to his individuality, his sire being the horse Edward Everett, sire of fourteen with records from 2.18 to 2.30; and his dam the noted mare Dolly Varden, the dam of Eclipse 2.25 and Dr. Syntax 2.30. The dam of Edward Everett was by imported Margrave, and Dolly Varden's sire was imported Eclipse. It will thus be seen that Physician is very strong in thoroughbred as well as in trotting lines, and should produce an excellent class of driving and saddle horses, and his mares should be valuable for brood purposes. Physician goes to Mr. Richard's farm at Bideford in a few days, and will, we understand, be used among the farmers of the western section of the Island. We wish Mr. Richard's every success with his purchase.

A PROMISING YOUNGSTER.

The All Right mare Pansy, owned by T. C. Connor, dropped a fine bay colt by Preceptor at the stock farm of Dr. Baxter, on the McLauchlin road, on Thursday last. Pansy is by All Right, sire of Geo. Lee, 2,23½, Black Pilot, 2.33½, and several other speedy ones. Preceptor by Nutwood, 2.18, was imported from Kentucky by C. C. Gardiner, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and is now 3 years old. He is one of the best bred colts in America, Maud S., 2.08¾, being his aunt on the sire's side, and Patron, 2.14¼, his uncle on dam's side. He is little more than broken to harness, but shows remarkable trotting action.—Moncton Times.

FOR THE AMERICAN MARKET.

Mr. W. S. McKie, of this city, passed through St. John with twenty-four fine horses on Monday. Mr. Keegan shipped twenty-eight fine horses in the St. Lawrence this afternoon. They are for the American market.
