A SIMPLE SOLUTION.

Why Dodd's Kidney Pills Always Cure Kidney Disease.

What a Prince Edward Island Doctor Says on the Subject—Dodd's Kidney Pills are the Only Cure for all Kidney Complaints.

GASPEREAUX, P. E. I., July 2.—The startling story that comes from Murray Harbor South, concerning the rescue of Mr. William Sharam, of that town, from the deadly clutches of Kidney Disease, has set the people throughout the Island talking. Many other persons have been cured of Kidney disease, on this Island, by Dodd's Kidney Pills, but Mr. Sharam is so well known that his case excites more than ordinary interest.

One of the most cleverest and successful physicians was asked today, how he accounted for the enormous number of Kidney disease cases that have been cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"It can be accounted for in only one way," he answered, "Dodd's Kidney Pills possess the power of curing disordered Kidneys. No other preparation known to man possesses this power."

"Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Gout, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Heart Failure, Paralysis, Nephritis, Diseases of Women, etc., all spring from disordered Kidneys. These diseases are all marked by the retention in the blood of certain dead matter, that healthy kidneys extract from the blood, and throw out of the body."

"Now Dodd's Kidney Pills restore the Kidney's health. Then the blood is properly purified, all poison being drained out of it, and thrown out of the system. There can then be none of the disease named. It's very simple you see."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills are undoubtedly the only medicine that can cure these diseases. They never fail to cure them—they cannot fail."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Idealism and Realism.

"What do you think, my dear?" exclaimed Mr. Brownjones in tones of joyful excitement. "You know the Federation of Authors is meeting in our city. Well, we are to have the honor of entertaining the celebrated novelist Godolphin Whatnot as our guest."

"Um," responded Mrs. Brownjones enigmatically. "Is Mr. Whatnot a realist or an idealist?"

"Why do you want to know?" asked Brownjones, surprised.

"Well, if he is an idealist I can just leave things as they are, but if he is a realist I must give the house a thorough cleaning from top to bottom. I may not be literary, but I've dipped into realistic novels, and I know their style: 'The right hand curtain hung slightly askew, suggesting that one of the drapery pins had lost its grip. A pendulous cobweb waved mournfully from the cornice just above the door leading into the hall, and there was a fine bloom of dust, like that of the purple grape, on the piano lid. In the left hand corner of the room, almost buried in the pile of somewhat faded carpet, was an invisible hairpin, clearly indicating the recent presence of a woman in the apartment.' Find out right away, Barrington, what Mr. Whatnot is, and then I shall know how to proceed. I have no desire to let my house afford material to a realistic observation sharp."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Tears For Revenue Only.

A heterogeneous collection of loafers sat in the village public house, alternately wiping their eyes and sighing heavily. The landlord's son had been buried that day, and a fitting air of gloom pervaded the place.

"What a lot of fuss you make about it!" cried a smart young bravo who had been surveying the company with ill concealed disgust. "Why should we bother ourselves about a corpse?"

The others stared at him aghast, but before they could reply the landlord himself came in and proceeded to serve out quarts of ale in dignified fashion. He went round the room systematically until he came to the smart young man, who held out his hand for the pitcher.

"Nay, lad, that'll get no ale from me," said the landlord.

"Why not?" was the aggrieved question.

"Cos the hes'n't earned it like t'rest. They've been blubbing for two hours, an' the hes'n't as much as ta'en thy handkerchief out of thy pocket. My motto today is 'No blub, no ale; so 's'f'ed to go w'out.'"

Then the young man understood why the grief of the company had been so intense.—London Telegraph.

As to Horseback Riding.

The Kentuckian was talking freely about horses. Although it was a safe stable, he was speaking his mind. He had made the proper speeches about the gait of the beautiful creatures the dark trainer trotted up and down; he had not lost his look of grave acquiescence when he heard things about the horse who trots. But a change word touched his true thought, and he spoke the faith of Kentuckians and westerners, Texans and Californians, in something this wise: "That's right. It ain't really riding to get up and down and look stylish on a trotting horse. You can't say much about it in Boston, or anywhere in cities where people don't care about the easy steps. They don't know what you're talking about. It's a queer notion and one my folks in Kentucky can't get used to—that a trotting horse can be a saddle horse. Women want to be stylish, though, everywhere, and they would learn how to rise up like the Boston women. But they didn't keep it up. A steal away and the gallop's the thing for country American riding."—Boston Transcript.

Wisdom Beyond His Years.

His mother found him in the jam and reprimanded him. A little later she caught him teasing his baby sister and reprimanded him again.

"I don't see what's got into you, Willie," she said. "You're usually the good little boy, but today you're up to all kinds of mischief."

"I'm tired of being good," he returned with juvenile frankness.

"Tired of being good!" she exclaimed. "What do you mean by that?"

"Well, brother Bob is naughty most of the time, and you're always giving him things to get him to be good, and I guess I'll be naughty for awhile and see if I don't get something too."

Sometimes a youngster seems to have wisdom beyond his years.—Chicago Post.

A BLACKSMITH'S STORY.

He Became so Run Down That Work Was Almost Impossible—His Whole Body Racked With Pain.

From the Bridgewater Enterprise.

Mr. Austin Fancy is a well known blacksmith living at Baker Settlement, a hamlet about ten miles from Bridgewater, N. S. Mr. Fancy is well known in the locality in which he lives. He is another of the legion whose restoration to health adds to the popularity of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Fancy related his story of illness and renewed health to a reporter of the Enterprise as follows:—"During the last winter, owing I suppose to overwork and impure blood, I became very much reduced in flesh, and had severe pains in the muscles all over my body. I felt tired all the time, had no appetite, and often felt so low spirited that I wished myself in another world. Some of the time, necessity compelled me to undertake a little work in my blacksmith shop, but I was not fit for it, and after doing a job, would have to lie down; indeed I often felt like fainting. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using a couple of boxes, I felt a decided relief. The pains began to abate, and I felt again as though life was not all dreariness. By the time I had used six boxes I was as well as ever, and able to do a hard day's work at the forge without fatigue, and those who know anything about a blacksmith's work, will know what this means. Those who are not well, will make no mistake in looking for health through the medium of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."
