

PRECIS OF EXAMINATION.

REFERENCES.—1, Discipline. 2, Method. 3, Instruction. 4, Teacher. 5, Special.

- 1—1, Good. 2, Common. 3, Judicious. 4, Active. 5, When examined, 22.
- 2—This School vacant at the times visited.
- 3—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Imperfect from bad attendance. Present, 18.
- 4—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Suitable. 4, Skilful. 5, When examined. Present, 21.
- 5—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Respectable. 5, Examined, 24.
- 6—1, Vacant. 5, The house to be removed to a new site.
- 7—Suspended: from the bad condition of the house.
- 8—Vacant.
- 9—Vacant.
- 10—1, Good. 2, Fair. 3, Satisfactory. 4, Diligent. 5, Present, 20. Population sparse, and few take interest in this school.
- 11—1, Lax. 2, Peculiar. 3, Fair. 4, Too excitable. 5, Present, 18. The people anxious to sustain a good school.
- 12—1, Very good. 2, Good. 3, Suitable. 4, Active. 5, Examined, 19. The few who support this School, keep it up very well.
- 13—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Good. 4, Attentive. Present, 16. Several parents willing to do all they can to educate their Children.
- 14—4, Desirous of doing her duty. Small attendance. Present, 12. The School closed until the house would be suitable.
- 15—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Competent. 5, Present, 20. The People rather careless.
- 16—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Fair. 4, Able and willing. 5, Present, 19. The house too small and deficient in many respects.
- 17—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Fair. 4, Very attentive. Present, 26.
- 18—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Suitable. 4, Skilful. Present, 24.
- 19—1, Proper. 2, Good. 3, Fair. 4, Very good. 5, Present, 22. This school was formerly disreputable, but now hopeful.
- 20—1, Kind. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Shows talent and tact, and the Trustees, proverbial for zeal and fidelity. Present, 24.
- 21—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Usual course. 4, Seemed anxious to succeed, and always respected by the Trustees, but there is now an estrangement that causes discord, the house is commodious and sufficient for a Grammar School, which is very much needed. Present, 30.
- 22—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Fair. 4, Attentive, but in delicate health. 5, Furniture, bad, irregular attendance, and books too few. Present, 19.
- 23—1, Strict and kind. 2, Superior. 3, Judicious. 4, Mr. D. McDonald is deservedly well sustained by the people among whom he has raised a remarkable Educational revival: he teaches a Night-School for old and young. 5, Examined, 35.
- 24—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Good. 4, Experienced. 5, The house is small. Attendance in Spring and Harvest, irregular, but the people, in general, disposed to keep up the School. Examined, 21.
- 25—1, Good. 2, Very suitable. 3, Appropriate. 4, The incumbent succeeded his brother, and has the school well organized and a fair attendance, considering the population. Present, 22.
- 26—This, a thriving settlement. The people anxious to have a suitable school, but were disappointed in their first Teacher; his successor is an old man, anxious to do his duty.
- 27—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, The usual. 4, Very respectable. Present, 25.
- 28—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Effective. 4, Skilful. Present, 23.
- 29—1, Very good. 2, Excellent. 4, Intelligent and diligent: the children acquitted themselves admirably well: Mr. Beaton has their respect, and well deserves it. Present, 26.
- 30—1, Satisfactory. 2, Good. 3, Suitable. 4, Teacher very zealous and attentive. 5, The house small and inconvenient. Present, 23.
- 31—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Good. 4, Experienced. 5, The house is large, but deficient of equipments, yet the children acquitted themselves well, considering their attendance and ages. Present, 30.
- 32—1, Kind. 2, Fair. 3, Satisfactory. 4, An old Teacher, inclined to devote his energies to his duties. 5, House rather small, population sparse, attendance fluctuating. Present, 21.
- 33—This School was vacant, the Teacher having left the Island and promised the Trustees to return soon. His successor, Mr. A. A. Beaton, is giving general satisfaction. Attendance, fair. Present, 20.
- 34—1, Fair. 2, Appropriate. 3, Satisfactory. 4, Zealous and pains-taking; respected by his employers. 5, The Church is occupied as a School-House, which is a great draw-back to the Teacher, who adopts all available measures to do justice to his pupils. 5, Present, 24.
- 35—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Explanatory. 4, Very competent. 5, The house sufficient, and needs some repairs and some furniture, but the inhabitants are chiefly new settlers, yet some show their ardour to attain social elevation by mental culture. Present, 28.