During the past few weeks the work of rebuilding the Masonic Temple which was destroyed by fire in January has been proceeding rapidly. Under the direction of Mr. Hayden VanDerstine, the crew has been working diligently despite the cold weather to complete the framing as rapidly as possible. Already the first and second floors have been put in, and each floor partitioned off. The roof has also been completely framed, and the men are awaiting some fine days in order to complete the roofing job. It is hoped to have the building completed sometime during the late summer or early fall, although the building may be occupied before then.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mr. John George returned home a few days ago from Toronto, Ontario, where he has been employed for some time.

Captain William Sigsworth of Newport left on Thursday for Boston, Mass., where he will visit his daughters who reside in that city.

The Georgetown Boy Scouts held their weekly meeting on Wednesday night in the Legion Hall, under the supervision of Scout Master Daniel MacCormack.

A considerable number of hockey fans made the trip to Murray Harbour on Wednesday night to witness the first game of the King's County Intermediate "B" finals between the Murray Harbor team and the Morell team.

The annual fancy dress carnival was held in the Georgetown rink on Tuesday night and was attended by a large crowd of spectators. Approximately fifty skaters were in costume, including a large number of children. Many and varied were the characters represented and from the sublime to the ridiculous were on hand to lend a gala touch of color to the event. First prize for ladies fancy dress costume was won by Mrs. Walter Solomon who dressed as an "Irish Colleen". Gents first honors went to Mr. Cullen DeLory for his portrayal of "Satan". The award for the most humorous and original was won by Mrs. J. A. B. MacConnell for his costume "Chicken of Tomorrow". In the children's class, Miss Phyllis Walker took top honors as "Miss Canada". The boys first prize went to Master Wayne Llewellyn who was dressed as "Peter Rabbit". Children's most humorous was worn by Richard Lantry as "Tramp". A special prize was given to a youthful couple, Miss Joan Batchelder and Miss Aldine MacCormack who were costumed as "Bride and Groom". The door prize which was a box of chocolates, donated by Mrs. Clay, proprietress of the Elson Restaurant in Montague, was won by Miss Doreen Scully. Judges were Mr. J. Boudreau, Mrs. J. Howard MacDonald and Mrs. Herman Lavandier.

The March meeting of the Elmiras Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Harris with an attendance of six members. The meeting was called to order by the reading of the ode. The minutes were then read, and answered. Any business arising out of the minutes was discussed and correspondence read. The roll call was answered by a Baby Shower. After the new committees were appointed for the month of March the meeting then adjourned. Following, the members played a nice game of Bingo for articles donated by Mrs. Harris. After being a delightful lunch was served by the hostess. The April meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cairns of Souris have recently returned from an enjoyable six weeks visit to Montreal and Boston. While in Montreal they were the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis MacAulay, their daughter Evelyn accompanied them to Boston and while there were the guests of their other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace I. Snow Jr.

February 4th marked the anniversary of Mrs. Cairns 69th birthday which was fittingly celebrated by a surprise birthday party. Many bouquets, telegrams, gifts and cards were received to which Mrs. Cairns nicely responded. A moving picture camera took a role of the evening's proceedings, which was supplied by Mr. Snow's uncle, Mr. Francis P. Watkins.

After a three weeks stay in Boston they returned to Montreal by automobile to complete the remainder of their visit.

BROADSTAIRS, England - (OP) - They're going in for artificial flowers now in Broadstairs park. Bandmen complained that real flowers dripped onto them in concerts that followed watering-time and so the "falsies" are going to be used.

"THE FOUNTAINHEAD" ARRIVES MONDAY
 Warner Bros. "The Fountainhead" starring Gary Cooper and Patricia Neal... the most tumultuous love story to be brought to the screen in a decade, opens Monday at the Prince Edward Theatre.

Because of the great scope of the story, the film version of this best-selling novel was in preparation for over three years. It is an epic story of a strong-minded man willing to make many sacrifices rather than compromise his integrity and the beautiful woman who fought against his ideals though she was in love with him.

Heading the large supporting cast are Raymond Massey, Kent Smith, and Robert Douglas.

Rhoads-Glover Nuptials
 The home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rhoads, of Elford, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, on Saturday, January 21, at 2 o'clock when Ames Elizabeth Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Glover, of Murray Harbour, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Harry Oliver Rhoads, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rhoads.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Woollett, of Gesto, under an arch decorated with chrysantheums and white wedding bells, and the tall white burning candles on either side.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Dave Ferguson, of London. For her wedding, she chose a gown of pearl grey, and a corsage of mauve orchids. Her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Dolron, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., wore a navy blue afternoon dress, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Marcel Elford, of Palerma, was best man.

Mrs. Albert Elford sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register. Miss Phyllis Mulkaster accompanied the soloist and also played the wedding music.

Mrs. Rhoads wore for the occasion a gown of teal blue crepe with an orchid corsage, while Mrs. Ferguson wore brown crepe with a corsage of Johanna Hill roses and sweet peas.

Luncheon was served to forty guests, by Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Herbert Latham, Mrs. Lloyd Rhoads, and Miss Olive Rhoads. The bride's table was beautiful with a lace cloth, candles, and a three-tiered wedding cake.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Rhoads will reside in London.

Scout News and Notices
FIRST BASILICA SCOUTS
 At our weekly meeting the Scouts of the First enjoyed a very exciting and active meeting. During the meeting the following test periods were held: Scout Law, Scout Promise, Tenderfoot Knots. Games were led by the A.S.M.

FIRE BY FRICTION
 A demonstration of fire by friction (bow method) was given to the boys by the S.M. The thrill that the boys received when the tinder burst into flames in their hands as they whirled it about was well worth the effort.

TESTS PASSED
 The following tests were passed during the last two weeks: Scout Promise: James Kelly, Pat Connolly, James McQuarrie, Melvin Pneau. Scout Law: Pat Connolly, James McQuarrie, James Kelly. First Aid: Garnet Steele, Hubert McKenna, Billie Kelly.

COMPETITION
 The Robins won the Honour Patrol Flag for this week by one point. The grand totals are: Beavers 57, Foxes 48, Robins 39.

REGISTRATION
 To date a total of eighteen boys have been registered in this Troop.

ABE ZAKEM, S.M.
SOURIS
 The First Souris Troop has run into difficulties in finding a suitable hall for their meetings. Owing to the large enrollment at the Souris School, the hall in which they have been holding meetings has been turned into a classroom.

Father Murnaghan has, however, kept his boys active in hockey and hopes to challenge one of the Scout teams at an early date. Meanwhile, the search for a hall continues.

NINTH CHARLOTTETOWN
 Monday evening saw the Ninth Troop out and away on a sealed order hike. Observation was stressed and all Patrols gave excellent verbal reports on their return to the Troop Hall.

A standing Patrol was posted in Victoria Park. These Scouts reported all Patrols who passed through this area. The standing Patrol, however, was spotted on two occasions by the sharp eyed Patrols passing through.

KNOTTERS COURSE
 Last Monday a review session was held for Scouts taking the Knotters Course. Final tests will take place on Monday, March 13th at 8:30 in St. Paul's Troop Hall.

THIRD SUMMERSIDE TROOP
 During Education Week the boys of the Summerside Scout Troop put on a display in the High School. This consisted of a mannequin dressed as a Scout, Troop Flag and Union Jack, Knobs Board, Troop Charter, and a display of pamphlets and Scout Tests.

This Troop was also featured on a fifteen minute radio programme on February 18th. The programme was made up of Camp Fire songs and a talk by the Scoutmaster, Eric Tanton, titled "What Spouting Is and Does."

Thursday evening your Commissioner had the pleasure of being with the Summerside Troop at their regular meeting. Twenty-four boys were present. They spent the evening on First Aid, Artificial Respiration, and Knotting.

The Scoutmaster has also been holding an extra meeting a week for Patrol Leaders so that the Troop may receive the full benefits of the Patrol System.

SCOUT CAMPAIGN
 Alberton
 Led by a $30.00 donation from the Alberton Women's Institute, $15.00 of which went to the Troop, the citizens of Alberton donated $105.00 to further the work of the Island Boy Scouts Association. This brings the total received to date to $3,900.00.

Souris
 Canvassers Ken Fraser and J. J. MacDonald are now making a canvas of Souris. They hope to raise $100.00 for the use of Provincial Headquarters in promoting Scouting throughout the Island.

PARKDALE W. I.
 The regular monthly meeting of Parkdale Women's Institute was held in the hall, March 6, with the president, Mrs. Cantwell, presiding. Twenty-one members and three visitors were present. Reports were given by the various committees.

The hall committee reported that a load of coal had been donated by the Community Sunday School. It was decided that the members would supply lunch for the card parties for this month. The report from the Cubs showed that there were 38 enrolled, with an average attendance of 30. The sick committee reported that a school committee reported that a load of coal had been donated by the Community Sunday School.
