Work in the fields, preparing for next year's crops, is progressing rapidly. Early and late the hum of many tractors is heard, their gleaming lights showing their trail to a late hour, as the furrows quickly turn and the landscape rapidly changes colour day by day.

Hallowe'en has passed with possibly lesser results than "in days of yore". Maybe the youth may have been well advised at home, or have taken a tip from the letter of the City Chief of Police in the press, and went out to enjoy a couple of hours devoted to fun and frolic in keeping with the annual custom.

Church services throughout the field were fairly well attended by attentive listeners to the Thanksgiving theme, somewhat belated through the absence of the pastor on holidays, but well set forth in remembrance of the Giver of all things: "Lest we forget".

The public school has re-opened, following a brief holiday season. Many are of the opinion that, in the best interest of all concerned, the limited time should be extended an extra week, so that the gathering of potatoes from the large acreages will be completed in time for all pupils in the senior grades to be back to school at the end of holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cameron have closed their fine tourist home for the season, and have left to resume their former occupation at Streetsville, Ont. Upon return, they purpose to re-open this attractive tourist home where, during the past season, difficulties were daily experienced in accommodating visitors from the mainland and across the border, seeking an ideal spot to spend happy holidays.

FAMED CANAL THREATENED STOCKHOLM — (CP) — Competition from highway and rail traffic threatens to close the 327-mile excursion voyages on the Gota Canal from Gothenburg on the North Sea to Stockholm on the Baltic. The route has been a tourist attraction for 120 years.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN INMAN

—The death of John Inman occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Russell Bell on Thursday morning, October 16th. Mr. Inman was born in the Dock 84 years ago, the son of the late George and Rebecca Inman. Fifty-eight years ago he married Louise Kinch and moved on the farm adjoining his father's. He was a prosperous and industrious farmer and had one of the finest farm homes around.

In 1935 he retired, and with his wife moved to their new home in Alberton. Here as on the farm his home was a place where young and old liked to visit, his ready wit and cheerful smile will be remembered by his many relatives and friends.

After the death of his wife in 1946, he went to make his home with his daughter. He was a man of sterling character, and his word once given, was never broken. His illness was long and trying, but he never complained. He was a faithful member of the Sacred Heart Church, and during his illness was visited frequently by his pastor, Rev. W. E. Monaghan and Rev. M. J. Rooney, who administered the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church.

He leaves to mourn his passing, the following sons and daughters, Mrs. Florence Beeler, Portland, Me.; Mildred, Mrs. Lindsay Maynard, Waltham; Mrs. Mabel Cain, Somerville, Mass.; Hether, Dock; Sybil, Mrs. Henry Carl, Boston; Isabel, Mrs. Russell Bell, Mill River; John, Dock; (one son George predeceased him), also one sister, Mrs. Barbara Lewis, survives.

The funeral was held Saturday morning, October 17th. In the absence of his pastor, High Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. Walsh of Palmer Road.

The pallbearers were: Dr. G. L. Keefe, Messrs. Ira Wallace, Frank Keefe, Norman Oliver, Maurice Perry and Alfred Foley. Interment took place in the family plot in the church cemetery. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Wall-Adams Wedding

—A quiet but very pretty autumn wedding took place at the Trinity United Church, Summerside, on Saturday, November 1st when Hazel Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Adams, Darnley, became the bride of Reuben Frederick Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wall, Baltic.

The church was attractively decorated for the occasion with baskets of mums, baby's breath, and asparagus fern. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. C. D. Matheson.

The bride looked lovely in a white gabardine suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of Queen Elizabeth roses, and her only ornament was a necklace, gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid, Miss Muriel Wall, sister of the groom, wore a blue gabardine suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mr. Roland Adams capably supported the groom. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a double strand of pearls, while the groomsmen received a billfold, gift of the groom.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a wine taffeta dress with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with navy accessories.

Following the reception was held for forty guests at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, with its artistic arrangement of Better Time roses, was centered with a three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Presiding over the tea urn was Mrs. Fulton Simmons and assisting were Mrs. Daniel Champion, Mrs. Francis Paynter, and Mrs. Morley Crozier.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower in Darnley where she received many lovely and valuable gifts.

The happy young couple will reside in Baltic, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.
