AFFAIRS IN THE STATES.—An idea of the situation in the States was furnished by Senator Blackburn a few days ago, when he said: "The people behind us are impatient and have a right to be impatient. Standing in the midst of the desolation which surrounds them, their trade stagnated, with their labor unemployed, with enterprise paralyzed, with two millions of men tramping our highways and streets, begging not for bread but for labor with which to earn it, st ikes in every community brought about by men who cannot find employment, the people demand that action should be taken."

WEDDING BELLS.—This morning the First Methodist Church was the scene of a very happy event, the marriage of Miss Annie Colwill, daughter of W. P. Colwill, Esq., and Mr. Whitfield Howard, of North River. At 6.30 the wedding party arrived at the church and marched up the aisle to the strains of the wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Duchemin, and took their places at the altar. The church was filled with spectators. After the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Brewer and the party showered many times with rice, they drove to the station, where Mr. and Mrs. Howard took the train en route to Boston and New York and probably the World's Fair. The bridesmaids were Miss Janie Colwill, the bride's sister, and Miss Laura Howard, sister of the groom, who wore charming costumes of cream and pink, respectively, with hats to match. The groom was supported by Mr. R. Nutting Taylor, of this city, and Mr. Frank Howard, of Cornwall. We extend congratulations.
