CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. Jay Becker

(Top Record-Holder in Masters' Individual Championship Play)

QUIZ

Your right hand opponent deals and bids Three Diamonds, neither side vulnerable. What do you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠J4 ♥AJ5 ♦Q6 ♣AQ7542
2. ♠AKJ6 ♥AQ73 ♦8 ♣J942
3. ♠A9 ♥A6 ♦KS3 ♣AKJ883
4. ♠AKQ982 ♥K3 ♦4 ♣KQ76

1. Pass. The chief purpose of the preemptive three bid is to hamper the opponents in their exchange of information. Since the opponents, if they want to contest the preemptive bid, must do so in at least the nine trick level, it follows that whatever action they take is frequently attended with danger.

In defending against the three bid, safety is the first consideration. Although the three-bidder's hand may be assumed to be weak defensively, his partner's strength is unknown. Caution must therefore be exercised in challenging the preempt. To bid four clubs is fraught with danger. There are six losers outside of the trump suit itself.

The pass is strongly recommended. Remember that if partner has a good hand he still has a chance to speak.

2. Double. This is for takeout. With good support for any suit partner may name, there is little risk attached to the informatory double. If partner's hand happens to be such that he leaves the double in because he thinks three diamonds doubled is the best contract, we have enough defensive strength to expect to beat the contract.

To overcall with three hearts or three spades is out of the question. There is no need to try to guess which suit partner may have when the takeout double is available to do the job.

3. Three notrump. This bid means just what it says—a willingness to play three notrump. Partner is not being asked to speak, though he is privileged to act when he thinks there is a better contract.

There is some risk attached to the overcall since the long club suit may not run if partner has the wrong hand. But rather than double with insufficient support for either major, or bid four clubs which goes past the three notrump station, it is best to make the slightly dangerous three notrump overcall, which stands to gain in the long run.

4. Four spades. Although caution is recommended over preempts, it should not be carried to the point where extreme pessimism becomes a dominant factor.

So little is needed from partner to produce ten tricks at spades that it should be assumed he has the few cards necessary for the spade game. To bid only three spades would be carrying caution too far. A three spade bid would denote a much weaker hand.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L E B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
