SIR MACKENZIE BOWELL. (Continued from first page.) been raised against the call of Sir Mackenzie Bowell to the Premiership. It has been generally felt that the interests and rights of all classes, irrespective of race or creed, are absolutely safe in his hands.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell is perhaps one of the best preserved men of his years in the Dominion. Although 71 years of age, he retains the elasticity and vigor of youth. He owes this to a naturally strong constitution, an ever careful and prudent life. But it is in his splendid character as an honest man and a capable administrator of public affairs that he is best known.

HOW TO TREAT A COLD. Don't stuff a cold, as the old adage advises, if you do you will have a fever to starve. A genuine cold is a shock received by the many million nerves which approach near the surface of the human body, and which control the nearly seven million pores of the skin.

Professor Dewar has demonstrated that metals augment their magnetic qualities and increase in strength by diminution of temperature. Iron at 160 degrees can endure double its normal tensile strain.

Why will you die? That is the question the scientist now asks the miserable sufferer from consumption or lung trouble. The answer naturally is "because I can't help it." But the consumptive can help it. Miller's Emulsion made from Norwegian Cod Liver, and combined with the hypophosphites of lime and soda will cure nine cases out of ten of each of these ailments.

Exasperated young Mistress (after a worthy argument with her cook)—Why, Bright, it's perfectly absurd! Either you or I must be crazy. Bridget (proudly)—Sure and I wouldn't be so bold as to think you had no more sense than to keep a crazy cook.

The tail of a comet is far more transparent than the earth's atmosphere. A Comet Sometimes. When health is far gone in Consumption, sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from the use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your health.

Astronomers search all over the world for spider webs. They are used for cross lines in telescopes. Business and professional men who suffer from tired exhausted feelings consequent upon mental effort, will find in Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic a sure conservator of the vital energy, relieving brain girth, restoring nervous energy and muscular vigor, renewing the blood, restoring lost appetite and aiding digestion.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS. Edited by ALBERT SHAW. It was in April, 1891, that the first number of the American Review of Reviews was printed. The new idea of giving the best that is in the other magazines in addition to its own brilliant, original articles, took America by storm, as it had taken England—though the magazine itself was not at all a reprint of the English edition. It dealt most largely with American affairs, and is edited with perfect independence, in its own office.

THE REGULAR DEPARTMENTS. Besides the special articles and character sketches of leading men and women, the Review contains the following departments: The Progress of the World—An illustration of the progress of the world, with special reference to the progress of the various nations, and a list of the leading men and women of the world. The Review of Reviews is published weekly, and is sold at the rate of 10 cents per copy. It is published by The Review of Reviews, 13 Astor Place, New York.

Priestley's Dress Fabrics. In the long run it is the quality of the material that will determine the success of a lady's costume. Every American lady who has studied the matter knows that Priestley's Dress Fabrics are the best that the market affords. It is conceded on all hands. The ladies of Great Britain cordially acknowledge that the American ladies prefer Priestley's dress fabrics to French. Our Canadian ladies are now asking for them. They wear better than other goods; but their great charm consists in a peculiar richness and softness of appearance, and a flexibility which enables them to drape in the costume with that suggestion of flow and rhythm which is the dream of all tasteful women to realize.

See that the goods you buy are stamped "every five yards with 'Priestley's name.' No others are of their manufacture.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience for distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves." Dr. J. F. Knefelter, Conway, Ark. "Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope this day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
