

The Belfast Election.

News of the election of Mr. Donald Montgomery will be heard with universal satisfaction. The electors of Belfast have given to the public service a young gentleman (one of native growth, too) whose prudence, probity and ability none can dispute—a man without even a taint of radicalism.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Votes. Rows include Belle Creek (94), Eldon (135), Murray Harbor Road (132), Lot 50 (92), Lot 49 (100).

Over the Whole Field.

We have heard from seventy-seven constituencies in Ontario, fifty-four constituencies in Quebec, and all the constituencies in the Maritime Provinces. We are now in a position to estimate, from pretty accurate data, the glorious results of the great contest.

The Liberal-Conservative majority in the next Parliament will be at least fifty, and it will very likely be between sixty and seventy. The glory of their great victory is somewhat marred by the temporary loss of Mr. Peter Mitchell, Mr. King and Mr. Langevin.

In Ontario no less than thirty-six Government strongholds have been captured from the enemy; while among the prominent Liberal-Conservatives returned by the Conservatives are: Thomas White, of the Montreal Gazette; Kirkpatrick, of Fontenac; McDougall, of Halton; Dalton McCarthy, of North Simcoe; McKenzie Bowell, of Belleville; Bunting, of the Toronto Mail.

In Quebec ten Grit strongholds have been taken by storm; and such men as Masson, Pope, Colby, Coursoi, Mousseau and Caron are returned to bear aloft the Liberal-Conservative standard.

Nova Scotia has done nobly. Ten Nova Scotian seats filled by Grits in the last House will be filled by Liberal-Conservatives in the next. Tupper will fill the place, unworthily filled by Jones, of chief representative of Nova Scotia in the Dominion Government; while the vigor and ability of McDonald will be displayed in the part simply and dumbly taken by Coffin.

New Brunswick alone of all the Provinces has endorsed the incapacity and corruption of the "Fly on the Wheel" Ministers. The causes are not far to seek. The people were misled. Till within a few weeks, the St. John Daily Press was a unit in favor of the Government. Till the Sun arose, there was, in many parts of the Province, nothing to dispel the illusions presented by the Daily Telegraph, the Daily Freeman, and the Daily News.

But, of all the Provinces, Prince Edward Island has the greatest cause to glory in the victory achieved. In no Province were there greater difficulties to overcome. In no Province was the triumph of the Liberal-Conservatives so complete. Through the manipulations of the Local Premier thousands of Liberal-Conservative electors were disfranchised. The "Free Trade Humbug" and the "High Taxation Scare" were artfully and persistently kept before the people. The National Policy of the Liberal-Conservative Party was grossly misrepresented. All the unworthy expedients known to Grit campaigners were tried. But, tried in vain. The stigma attached to the Island ever since its representatives—after weeks of tergiversation—deserted Sir John McDonald in his extremity has been wiped out. The Cabinet Seat Deprivation has been avenged. The "National Policy" has been endorsed by overwhelming majorities.

"It will soon be time for Messrs. Pope and Brecken to commence in earnest to find an answer to that conundrum that puzzled them and all other Protectionists:—How, under the protective system, are you to raise a revenue without resorting to direct taxation."—Patriot.

Let not fear perplex the, Oedipus, Mortals know nothing of futurity; And these prophetic seers Are all imposters.

MORE GOOD NEWS!

Sir John Elected by Acclamation!

ELECTIONS IN MANITOBA.

MONTREAL, Sept. 19. Out of one hundred and ninety (190) constituencies heard from, the Conservatives claim about one hundred and twenty-seven; the Government about sixty-three (63).

The Montreal Gazette estimates that the Conservatives will carry 13 out of the remaining 16; and thus give them a majority of 74 in a full House.

The early resignation of the Government is expected.

SACKVILLE, Sept. 20.

The following despatch has just been received from Winnipeg, Manitoba:—

"Sir John A. McDonald has been returned by acclamation for Manitoba—Tuxon declining nomination. Dr. Schultz for Lisgar, and Dubec for Provencher, are also elected by acclamation."

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.

A meeting of the Cabinet was held this afternoon. It is the intention of the Government to take the earliest possible steps to give constitutional effect to the result of the verdict of the people.

Hon. John Simpson is seriously ill.

The life of Chief Justice Harrison of Ontario, is despaired of.

THE RESULT.

ONTARIO.

FURTHER returns from Ontario are as follows:—

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Names, Gov't, Oppos'n. Rows include North Simcoe (McCarthy), South Lanark (Haggart), South Norfolk (Wallace), East Peterborough (Burnham), Halton (McDougall), South Huron (Horton), Centre Huron (Govert), North Huron (Farrel), Stormont (Fulton), East York (Boultsbee).

Prescott returns Routhier, Opposition, instead of (Hagar) Government, as at first reported. The Opposition gains are swelled by nine, and the Government by one. Seats secured by Opposition, 57; seats secured by Government, 20; majority for Opposition in Ontario, 37.

QUEBEC.

Further returns from Ontario are as follows:—

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Names, Gov't, Opp. Majority. Rows include Montmorenci (Valin), Bellechasse (Larue), Kamouraska (Dumont), Temiscouata (Grandbois), Pontneuf (Dr. St. George), Nicolet (Methot).

Making 38 seats secured by Opposition and 16 by Government. Majority for Opposition in Quebec, 22.

Total majority for Opposition, as far as heard from, 66.

"MR. BEYDGES' FLAG—the pole for which is said to have cost some hundreds of dollars—was flying all day yesterday in honor of the Liberal-Conservative victory."—Moncton Times.

This is almost as good as the remark of a prominent Grit official here: "It is a great pity Sir John is out; but we must find another constituency for him!"

"GILLIES, of North Bruce, set down in the EXAMINER as belonging to the Opposition, has always been a staunch supporter of the Government."—Patriot.

If the editor of the Patriot will but look again he will see that Mr. Gillies is classed by the EXAMINER as a supporter of the Government.

The Sultan offered to confer on Lady Layard, the wife of the English Ambassador, the first distinction of a new order for ladies, but Lord Salisbury declined to authorize its acceptance. The mother and consort of the Khedive have been decorated with the first class of the order.

A letter from a Canadian watering place says: "Canadian femininity in dripping bathing suits is by no means a repulsive sight, for it is more robust, more healthy, less shapeless, less attenuated than the American article; at least, those specimens of the American article seen at Newport. It sports on the beach here with the utmost freedom."

James Broadbent, of Indianapolis, while en route thence to Chicago, claims that $15,000 was stolen from his pocket while asleep. Last year Broadbent received notice that he would get a large sum from the settlement of the Broadbent estate in England. He stated he carried $15,000 on his person for more than a year, being afraid to trust the banks.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Some of the Souris East officials (Grits) have taken the liberty of letting the public know what I said and did at caucus meetings a few evenings ago. Now, since they know so well what I do, I will take on myself to tell them what I don't do. I don't attend caucus meetings at J. Dunphy's barn for the purpose of trying to make arrangements to delay Dr. Muttart's telegrams. When this is done by an individual holding a very important office in Souris East, I think he should be one of the last to send my name to the Patriot. Whatever I say or do at meetings is intended for the public good. Can those parties who sent the report to the Patriot say the same? I was tempted at first to send their names for publication; but I will spare them this time—although it is more than they deserve.

Respectfully yours, JOHN CANTWELL, Souris West, Sept. 16, 1878.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—The employees in Mr. Newson's Factory had resolved on having their annual picnic. Accordingly, on Wednesday morning last, they embarked from Pownal Wharf on board Mr. Coombs' first-class pleasure boat (No. 10) for a cruise down the harbor extending to Orwell Bay, and afterwards running back to a cove inside the Block House. All went ashore at the spot selected for the picnicking ground. Appetites being sharpened by the invigorating sea breeze, ample justice was done to the contents of pocket pistols, provision baskets, etc.—seasoned red-hot with politics. After thus refreshing themselves, the entire company broke up into small detachments, one of which wended its way to the contiguous Light House, where one of our savans expatiated on the light house system, the electric light, and the last transit of Venus. Another party roamed the woods in quest of adventures. A squirrel was their only trophy; but they chivalrously refrained from exterminating the smaller denizens of the forest, (the grey birds, owls, etc.) A squad of sober-sides seemed to immensely enjoy a game of quoits; whilst another set amused themselves and friends by an exhibition of gymnastics. Taken altogether, this has been the best picnic of the season.

Having resolved on returning to the city, we marched steadily to the landing place, where three rousing cheers were given for the Queen, the Boss, and for Pope and Brecken,—followed by a lively discussion on our red sandstone formation, which had been partially exposed by the joint action of the waves and weather on the adjacent cliff. The geologist of the party gave it as his decided opinion that it was the work of the coral insect (Sebastiani Caboti) or the Colorado beetle. Whether he was right, was left for clearer heads to determine.

The embarkation was conducted with an amount of order and precision rivaling the famous retreat at Corunna. Arrived at Connelly's Wharf, three cheers were given for our active and skillful boatman, which were received with more than the average amount of aquatic stolidity. After this the elder branches of the party made tracks for home, there to give a glowing account of the day's doings; whilst the youngsters slowly and sadly went on their way to place themselves once more under maternal surveillance.

Thanking you for your valuable space, I am, A PIC-NIC-ER.

Our Washington Letter.

AN ELEPHANT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept 17, 1878.

The Treasury has an elephant in its hands in the form of ten million silver dollars. One million of them weighs just 26 tons, therefore the United States Treasury holds to day 260 tons of silver dollars. The principal demand for these standard dollars comes from the Western States thus far; and as silver certificates are used to represent the coin, there is little danger of the supply now on hand being exhausted. The higher Treasury officials confidently predict an immediate disappearance of the slight premium which gold coin now commands.

YELLOW FEVER.

Although the most distressing accounts of the yellow fever scourge continue to reach us and the pestilence appears as yet unabated, yet Southern residents predict, with the utmost confidence, its disappearance within a month from now. They reason from analysis, saying that ninety days is sure to compass the disease. It was so in all of the three epidemics that have visited New Orleans in the last twenty-five years. In 1853 the yellow fever carried off 8,117 persons in the city of New Orleans; in 1852, 4,839 were stricken and died of the same dread disease; and in 1867 there were 2,972 victims. In each case the pestilence ran its race within ninety days. In 1853 the epidemic raged more fatally than it has ever done, though within seventy years that ill-fated city has been visited no less than twenty times by yellow fever, tens of thousands of citizens being victims. Well versed physicians tell us that the way is perfectly plain to prevent the terrible plague, and nothing is necessary for that save simple sanitary measures. Prominent Southern men declare their belief that hereafter such precautions will be taken in the cities now under the curse as will effectually prevent the introduction or outbreak of yellow fever to any extent in all years to come.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—Bare one follower of Mr. McKenzie was returned from P. E. Island—Hon. Jas. Yeo, Prince County—and the Charlottetown Patriot, formerly Mr. Laird's paper, is the sickest Grit sheet we have yet seen. It does not give one word in reference to the polling on the Island or in Queen's County, more than to say, in an eight-line paragraph, that "the majority of Pope and Brecken will be in the vicinity of 800," and that "McDonald and Muttart's majorities reach 1000." Come friend of the Patriot, do not neglect your newspaper business by not publishing election returns, even though the majorities are against you.—Moncton Times.
