Millionaires In Two Strenuous Practice Sessions

SYDNEY, N. S., Oct. 10—(CP)—Candidates for the 1951-52 Sydney Millionaires club went through two strenuous sessions today at Sydney Forum.

Playing-coach Bill Dinning opened all stops to get the Maritime major champions in top shape for the opening of the new Maritime major big six next Monday night when Moncton Hawks will be the visiting club.

Skating with the club today was Orville (Red) Olson from last year's North Sydney club, one of 10 defencemen battling for a berth.

Dinning used Don (Red) McRae, team captain for two years, on the forward lines throughout the afternoon session.

On defence, Ed Merineau, from last year's North Sydney club, worked with Joe Levandoski, ex-pro from New York Rangers' chain. They played together at Kansas City last season.

Ronnie Matthews and Johnny Baby were together as another unit; Tom Rookley and Lawrie May doubled up as a pair, while Dean MacBride teamed up with Olson.

Sonny MacDonald, defence stalwart with Junior Millionaires, also attended the practices and was tried up front and on the defence line.

The club's spare goalie, Greg Gloyd, was between the pipes for both sessions. Best looking string on the attack was the reunited line from last season—Cliff Roach pivoting for Bill Cupulo and George Robertson.

Don (Whip) Whalen was going well on another line with Kent Storey from North Sydney at centre. Lou Hauch, the Regina Caps high scorer of last season, continues to impress the rail-birds with his sharp work.

George Robertson, the big left winger who was formerly with Montreal Canadiens, appeared to be going faster than ever, and defenceman, Joe Levandoski was attracting a lot of attention Johnny Baby was skating faster at the afternoon session and teamed well with Ronnie Matthews.

First official act of the Royal couple was this review of the R. C.A.F. honor guard at Dorval Airport. The Duke is shown immediately behind the Princess. Flight Lieutenant Paul Roy, escorting the Princess is officer in charge of the honor guard.

United Church Y.P.U. Hold Convention

The first convention of the Maritime Young People's Union of the United Church of Canada opened Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6, in Halifax, at St. Andrew's United Church Hall with over 225 delegates present representing the three Maritime provinces. Twenty-five of the delegates were from Prince Edward Island.

Miss Jean Furay, President, of Saint John, N. B., presided at the banquet served by the ladies of the church. A welcome was extended by Rev. W. C. Anderson of St. Andrew's Church and Don Hiltz, President of the Halifax Presbytery, Y. P. U.

Rev. J. Eaton Davidge, recently appointed Field Secretary of the Christian Committee of the United Church in the Maritimes, was guest speaker. Mr. Davidge urged the delegates to make a personal commitment to Jesus Christ.

Professor George Grant of Dalhousie University, then addressed the convention on World Affairs. This was followed by a period of "Twenty Questions," on Biblical subjects directed by Rev. Harry Rackham.

The evening session closed with vespers under the leadership of Miss Anna Hamilton, Springhill, Nova Scotia, on the subject, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

On Sunday morning, delegates attended church with their hosts and hostesses.

The first part of the afternoon was spent in touring points of interest in the city, after which everyone returned to the church for "Worship in Music," directed by Professor H. Hamer.

Rev. J. D. N. MacDonald then addressed the group on the theme, "Choose Ye This Day." A delightful buffet supper which followed, was served by the members of the Halifax Presbytery.

The evening worship was led by members of the Conference executive with Dr. Sid Gilchrist, Medical missionary in Africa, as guest speaker.

The evening was brought to a close by a friendly hour in the social hall at which films were shown by Dr. Gilchrist.

The closing session on Monday morning consisted of a service of worship, an address by the theme speaker and two group discussions led by Mr. Watmore and Rev. Mr. Davidge. The Convention was brought to a close by an Installation of Officers and a Communion Service in St. Andrew's Church.

"At last! I have a PLAN FOR SAVING that works!"

"I'm something like you. I've a good job... a family... plenty of things I hope to do... plenty of places I hope to see someday. And, like you, I have bills to pay... am concerned about the future... wish I could save more money."

"Luckily, my wife is good at family finances. She can make a dollar go farther than anybody I know. We sat down and did some figuring. To put it briefly, we decided that the best way to make our savings grow was through life insurance."

"So we called in the Mutual Life representative. He was good at family finances too."

"We talked it over... figured it all out. Now, with a Mutual Life policy we have a plan for savings that works."

"AND EVERY DOLLAR SAVED IS BUSY PROTECTING US"

That's something to remember. An insurance policy is not only protection for your family; it's also a plan for family saving that works.
