ALBERTON W. M. S.
Mrs. J. M. Sproule was hostess to Alberton Auxiliary of the United Church W. M. S. for the March meeting. The opening worship, which had for its theme, "In Everything by Prayer," was led by Mrs. Charles Johnston.
Business was conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. A. C. Green. Roll call was answered with verses of scripture. Minutes were read by the secretary, Miss Annie Leard. Correspondence was read and given attention.
The Easter worship and program will be led by Mrs. Sproule. The meeting will be in the church hall. Community Friendship work during the month included 21 home calls, 30 hospital calls, 19 cards, 7 letters, 16 treats and 1 bouquet of flowers.
The supply secretary reported that one hundred pounds of clothing valued at $150.00 had been shipped for overseas relief. It was decided that there would be a special offering at the next meeting to defray expenses of shipping the goods overseas. The secretary was asked to send Easter cards to elderly and shut-in ladies in the congregation.
The final study of a series on Japan was presented by Mrs. James Hodgson. The meeting closed with a circle of prayer and the Mizpah benediction.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Red-Bowed Carriage Whip It Went A-Courting Too!

"I wish Ellen" James said at breakfast today "you'd give the flu a bit of cleaning. It was last night, it was no good of a good housekeeper!" I smiled teasingly. "I expect" I added "we'll be needing it tonight. Cleaning the lanterns and lamps used to be a daily job but now" he twinkled "to think they'll live!" James said stepping off with the younger farmer into the foggy March night, their objective the unwired "fold."

B. & P. MEET

The Charlottetown Business and Professional Women held their March meeting at the Charlottetown Hotel. St. Patrick's decorations were used on the dinner table and Irish music was enjoyed during the dinner. The guest speaker was Miss Mabel Matheson, President of the Prince Edward Island Teachers' Federation, who spoke on the Conference on Education held recently in Ottawa, at which she was a delegate. The programme was in charge of Misses Ann Walsh, Mary MacLennan, Bessie Beer, Margaret Irving, Alma Yeo and Ethel Taylor.

ALBERTON W. M. S.

The March meeting of Alberton Presbyterian W. M. S. was held in the Vestry of the church. Mrs. V. J. Campbell, who chose for her theme "The Power of Prayer," was assisted in conducting the opening worship by Mrs. E. F. Kerr who read a poem, and Margaret Forsyth who dedicated the offering. Psalm 145 was read responsively and the hymns were in keeping with the topic.
