Local and Other Items.

THE Railway Men's Convention will open in the city of St. John, N. B. on Friday 25th inst.

SONG SERVICE.—At the Gospel Meeting in Prowse's new block tomorrow at 3:45. Strangers always welcome.

TEA AT GROSHAUT.—A tea party, in aid of the new church at Groshaut, will be held on Tuesday, August 22nd. Advertisement and further particulars later.

GOSPEL MEETING.—Remember the Gospel meeting in Prowse's new block Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Strangers always welcome. Lesson, John 11-25 "I am the resurrection and the life."

TEACHERS LICENSE.—A second class teacher's license has been granted to Grace L. Gordon, of Roseneath, King's County, on supplementary examination. Owing to some of her papers having been accidentally mislaid her name did not appear in the list at the time of publication.

DARKEST RUSSIA which will be seen at the Opera House next Tuesday evening must be a good play else it would not have survived or succeeded for the past six years, during which time it has been before the public, for good plays alone are able to do this. There is a delicate love story running through the entire four acts used to tell the dramatic story, and the whole is lightened and enlivened by a view of the highest and best of comedy, so that Darkest Russia is by no means dull and drear but an enjoyable strongly drawn drama of today.

UP TO DATE.—Captain James Wiener of the ferry boat Elfin has had printed an artistic little folder, on one page of which is given the time table of the Rocky Point ferry. On the other the following is neatly printed. "Visitors will find in Rocky Point a beautiful resort, and enjoy a twenty minute sail across our harbor which gives an excellent view of our city, together with the pretty scenery of Victoria Park and North and West Rivers. The camps of our Micmac Indians afford much interest and can be reached by a ten minutes walk from the Point."

A FRIENDLY TIP.

"I'm going to Europe again next week," said Banks.

"That so?" said Stocks.

"Yes, I find I'll have to go over, though I hate the job. I would have gone last week only I have been putting it off."

"He never cares to wander from his own fireside, eh?" quoted Stocks.

"No, it is not that," said Banks. "In fact, he rather likes to wander occasionally but I'm such a poor sailor. Every time I cross the Atlantic and my business takes me across four times a year, I put in a week of perfect misery."

"That rather takes the edge off the pleasure of an ocean voyage, doesn't it?" said Stocks.

"It certainly does," said Banks. "You are a good sailor, yourself, I understand."

"I've only been seasick once in my life, and I've crossed the pond a score of times," said Stocks.

"You got used to it, I suppose," suggested Banks.

"Well, no," said Stocks slowly. "I don't think I got used to it exactly. But the first dose of seasickness was enough. I took precautions next time."

"How?" enquired Banks.

"Well, I reasoned it out. Seasickness is caused by gas in the stomach. The rocking of the boat churns the contents of the stomach and brings about fermentation. Hence the gas; and then the nausea. I saw that if I could get my food digested before or in spite of fermentation I would be all right. So knowing that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets were good for Indigestion—"

"Yes. I know that too," interrupted Banks.

"I tried them for seasickness," continued Stocks.

"How did they work?" asked Banks.

"Well, I have never been seasick since," said Stocks. "I have carried Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets on every voyage I have made since."

"I must invest 50 cents in a box this trip," said Banks.

John T. McKenzie, THE TAILOR

CHARLOTTETOWN - P. E. ISLAND

AN INTERCESSIONAL.

(From London Truth.)

Suggested by the Poet Laureate's request to the Times to point out that his proper designation is not Sir Alfred Austin, but Mr. Alfred Austin.

"The Fount will play again next week,
The 'Birthday-honors' list they'll print,
So, more in sorrow than in pique,
'Tis time I gave a gentle hint;
I'll mention I'm not knighted yet,
Least they forget—lest they forget!

"Since first my merits they up-somm'd,
And granted me my heart's desire
They cannot say I've not 'tum-tum'd'
Persistently my laureate lyre—
Ode, eclogue, madrigal, 'Jay-ette—
Still they forget—still they forget!

"In loyal accents I have lisped,
I've ranted in a Jingo vein,
In ecstasy I've ever crisped
The British Lion's mighty mane!
My Muse to turgid tasks I've set—
Yet they forget—yet they forget!

"Beneath a bright Italian sun
I've broken out in various spots—
A Tate and Brady rolled in one,
A kind of country Doctor Wait;
Yet with no recompense I've met—
They still forget—they still forget!

"No wonder that my heart is sore
When at the feast I'm forced to see
'Sir Lewis' proudly walk before,
'Sir Edwin' take the pas from me;
I'm Laureate, 'tis true, and yet
They still forget—they still forget!

"But hope, oft crushed, flies up once more—
They may pooh-pooh my futile rhymes,
Yet how, I'd ask, can they ignore
My hint in yester-morning's Times?
Methinks in Saturday's Gazette
They can't forget—they can't forget!"

L'ENVOI.

(Written after looking at the Times on Saturday last.)

"What's this? It is extremely odd!
Names stare at me from very line—
'Salt,' 'Armstrong,' 'Stanley,' 'Rennell
Rodd.'
But there is not a sign of mine;
'Preece,' 'Pollitt,' 'Agnew,' 'Murton,'
'Ratton'—
They do forget—they have forgotten!"

WONDERFUL ASTHMA RECOVERIES.

Clarke's Kola Compound Officially Tested by the British Columbia Government, at the Home for Incurables, Kamloops, B. C., the Medical Superintendent Pronounced Long-standing Cases Cured.

Many temporary relief asthma remedies have during the past few years been placed before the public, but until the introduction to the medical profession of Clarke's Kola Compound, nothing has been found to have any effect on preventing future attacks. The Medical Superintendent for the Home for Incurables in Kamloops, B. C., has had probably the best chance in Canada to thoroughly test this wonderful remedy for asthma. He reports that on the three cases of asthma where Clarke's Kola Compound has been tried, in not a single instance did it fail to cure, and on one particular case a lady had been confined to her bed most of the time for nearly a year previous to taking this remedy, and less than three bottles have completely cured her. Over one year has now passed, and there has not been the slightest indication of asthma returning. Three bottles of Clarke's Kola Compound are guaranteed to cure any case of asthma. Over 500 cases have already been cured in Canada alone by this remedy. Sold by all druggists. Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 121 Church street, Toronto, or Vancouver, B. C., sole Canadian agents.
