

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Miss B. Green, Box 361, Davis, Okla., writes: "For three years my face was covered with large pimples. I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them for three weeks I was greatly relieved; and now the pimples are entirely gone."

DARNLEY-SEA VIEW MISSION BAND

The March meeting of Darnley and Sea View Mission Band met at the home of Mrs. Fulton Simmons. Meeting opened by singing hymn 759, "If I Come to Jesus".

Erma Bearsto was appointed to have something for next meeting. The first five commandments were repeated by the members. Mrs. Simmons had charge of the study book. Six visitors were present.

RICH RESOURCES

Arkansas, great producer of oil and natural gas, also has the only diamonds mined in North America.

Successful Concert Given At Tignish

The Tignish Dramatic Club under the direction of Mr. Charles MacInnis, assisted by Rev. L. B. Dooley, presented a three act comedy, "The Adventures of Molly Shannon" in the St. Mary's Parish Hall on Wednesday evening, March 28.

The play was well presented, with the cast all taking their parts as well as veterans of the stage, and the audience at each performance enjoying an evening of pleasant entertainment.

The Specialties between acts were well received, and the Tignish Orchestra furnished the music. On the two first nights, Irish airs were played and on the last evening music appropriate to Easter time was enjoyed.

As the curtain went up on "The Adventures of Molly Shannon", the stage setting was the comfortable living-room of the rich and over-bearing Mrs. O'Baron (Miss Lauretta Shea), who had difficulty in keeping maids and chauffeurs in her employ for longer than two months.

Mrs. O'Baron was having an argument with Annie, the maid (Miss Janet Perry). Annie had informed her she was leaving at once and as Mrs. O'Baron is giving her a "bit of her mind" Danny McGuire, the chauffeur (Mr. Henry Gaudet) appears on the scene to announce he is leaving, this adds a bit of merriment to the situation.

Maggie Shannon the house-keeper (Mrs. Claude Hogan) is treated equally as mean as the other help, but being a forgiving person, overlooks Mrs. O'Baron's bad temper, but Maggie is terribly up-set when she finds that the new maid who has come to take Annie's place is her own daughter Molly (Miss Irene Gaudet) under an assumed name, and Tom McFadden (Mr. Arthur Arsenault) applies for the position of chauffeur and secures it after presenting a whole sheaf of references from former employers.

Myron O'Baron, the son (Mr. George Gavin) with a love of music and hopes to become a famous composer, but can only work at his music while his mother is absent from home, his sister Marguerite (Miss Marie Arsenault) in love with Harry Ryan (Mr. Francis LeClair) an attractive fellow, with a hatred of work, who gets his share of abuse from Mrs. O'Baron.

Dolores Dwan, a prima donna (Miss Jewell McInnis) promises to sing in Myron's opera but at the last moment will not, when she finds Myron was inspired by Molly to write a song, but Molly comes to the rescue at the eleventh hour. In the last act we find Myron a success, Molly a star, Maggie a Grand Lady, Mrs. O'Baron has found happiness at last and Harry winds up in the hands of the police.

Specialties included an Irish dance by Anne Marie McAlduff and Audrey Richard, a piano solo by Miss Helen Marie McCormack and a vocal solo by Mr. Henry Perry.

Members of the orchestra were Mrs. Kenneth Fraser and the Messrs. Adrian Richard, Ralph Arsenault, Leslie Doucette, Everett Harper and Malvin LeClair. Congratulations are in order for all who spent so very much time in preparing this splendid entertainment. There was a sale of home made candy at each performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millar and children were visitors to Summerside on Saturday.

Mrs. Margaret Grant visited with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Milligan, Summerside, during the week.

Master Sterling Phillips visited with his mother, Mrs. Gladys Phillips in Summerside over the holidays.

Miss Reby MacCaul who is employed in Summerside, spent the holidays visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack MacCaul.

Mrs. E. S. Burtleigh entertained the members of the Bideford United Choir on Good Friday evening to practice the hymns sung at the Easter Service on Sunday afternoon.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized by the Rev. K. G. Sullivan in the United Church parsonage at Summerside on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, when Mary Isabel MacQuarrie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacQuarrie, became the bride of George William Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ford, Northam, R.R. bride was charming in a navy dress of celanese crepe with blue accessories. She was attended by her mother, Mrs. Neil MacQuarrie, who also was lovely in a blue dress with navy accessories. The groomsmen were Mr. Neil MacQuarrie, father of the bride. After the ceremony they motored to the bride's home where a reception was given for the immediate families and relatives. The young couple will reside in Ellerslie and their many friends wish them many years of happy wedded bliss.

Mrs. E. R. MacNevin was hostess to the members of the Bideford United Ladies' Aid and Women's Missionary Society on Friday evening with a large number of members and visitors present. Mrs. Claude Hayes, president of the Ladies' Aid, presided over the first meeting of the evening. The hymn 101 "Aids and Did My Saviour Bleed", followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison opened the meeting. The Scripture, Matthew 27, verses 27 to 37 was read responsively. Minutes were read and adopted. Treasurer gave a report. There was some discussion on repairs to be made to the interior of the church. Mrs. E. S. Burtleigh asked the members to her home for the next meeting. Hymn No. 97 closed the Ladies' Aid meeting.

Mrs. E. S. Burtleigh, president of the W.M.S. presided over the second meeting. The roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The Easter Thankoffering amounted to $11.25. The new mite boxes were distributed to the members. Devotional service opened with the first two verses of hymn 233 "O

Zion Haste thy Mission High Fulfilling" Miss Dorothy Baxter read the Scripture, Mark 10, verses 1 to 22, followed by a reading by the president and a poem by Mrs. James Burtleigh. Mrs. Baxter conducted a Biblical Quiz. The meeting closed with the last three verses of hymn 253 and Benediction. The next meeting is to be held jointly with the Ladies' Aid at the home of Mrs. E. S. Burtleigh. At the close of the meetings a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

were at some belated baking, with last minute requests. James usually leaves so many things to be done that I am left to do them. I am the very echo of those the younger farmer gives to Jeanie. We have proved this by coming to a stable to find her intent on determining whether or not a horse stretching lazily in the first stages of colic or a heifer looking wildly at the sight of skirts might not be in some pain. It may be that it is out of a desire to have their wives retain girlish figures that they give us these exercises in their absence or it could be out of a regard for the old adage: "Satan finds mischief for idle hands," a state which they suspect comes over us, once we are given our own pleasures.

So night has wrapped the fields now and the nesting farmsteads, and one of these somewhat lonely and deserted by afternoon is again alive and complete. A light shines down from a bedroom in the house
