Nicklaus Proves Himself

JACK NICKLAUS proved to everyone that he deserves a spot among big time golfers Sunday when he became the first man to capture the Masters classic at the tender age of 33.

The 200-pound, five-foot, 11-inch youngster, who ranks with Arnold Palmer and the little South African, Gary Player, in golf's "Big Three" showed that he doesn't wilt under pressure and maintained a perfect form despite stiff opposition breathing down his neck in the final stages of the tourney.

Palmer, generally rated the favorite and going for an unprecedented 4th Masters title, was unable to get rolling and finished well off the pace with a four-round total of 291 and a tie for ninth place with Don January.

The person who probably suffered most in seeing Palmer finish that far down the list was his longtime caddy in the classic, Nathaniel (Iron Man) Avery.

Avery started carrying clubs for Palmer in 1955 when the latter came to the Augusta National as a freshman and it's been his job ever since.

Impressed With Palmer

IRON MAN, a good golfer himself, was impressed immediately with the young Palmer. "Most people playing here for the first time are happy to make the cut," he said. "Mr. Arnie was not satisfied with nothing but what's that's the way he is."

Iron Man is a slouchy stoop-shoulder straggler in green and white overalls, 5 feet 11½ inches tall with only 158 pounds on his bones.

But cut school while still a tyke and picked up a reputation among his pals as a prankster and street fighter, that's how he got the name "Iron Man." It was a pretty angry character when I was a kid," he said with a touch of pride.

Palmer wouldn't have any other else. Iron Man probably would be the professional if the assignment were passed on to somebody else. "We work as a team out there," Avery said. "We don't argue. Sometimes we may disagree. But we just go into discussions and decide what's best."

Iron Man "clubs" Palmer - that is, suggests the stick of wood to use on each shot, and frequently helps read the break of the green. "I don't know if it's a mistake," he said. "I make a mistake, he don't get together with me. I get upsets, it don't help him and it don't help me."

A Lucrative Job

AVEY SAID he spent most of his time now in New York, doing nothing particularly, but always returns to Augusta to look up Palmer's bags. It's a part of the most interesting job in caddyng years.

After Palmer had won the championship and $20,000 first prize Iron Man was handed a cheque for $15,000. He blinked. His eyes popped. Then he rushed back to his boss. "I knew it was a mistake," he said. "The money is for my wife Winnie! Just get excited. It was meant to be $1,500. But it was nice while it lasted."

Avey said he can always tell when Palmer is getting ready for one of his miraculous come-from-behind finishes. "He tugs at his glove, rips on his trousers and starts walking fast," he added. "Then he says, 'The game is on.'"

An Island Native

DOUG HOWATT, who has been receiving so much praise for his fine play as a Moncton Hawk player this year, who scored the winning goal in the opening game of the best of seven Allan-Cup semi-final between Windsor and Moncton Sunday, is a former Charlottetown boy.

For the first time we met Doug Howatt and his brother Eric who was in 1958 when they were playing with Bathurst Papermakers. The Papermakers captured the Maritime Senior Hockey crown that year by defeating the Royals 2-2 in a home-and-home series. The Royals lost in Bathurst by a 2-1 score and returned home to lose by a 10-4 margin. Jacques Monette was goalie and coach of the Bathurst team.

Doug Howatt and Monette later went to the Amherst Royals and played in the Maritime Senior Hockey league in scoring with 18 goals and 18 assists over a 24-game schedule. Sub-goalie for the Ramblers that year was strip-tease artist Charlie "The Rock" Brown.

WORD HAS reached us that veteran Indian runner John Paul of Scotchfort is getting in shape for the gruelling Bassan Marathon, rated by the Guinness as one of the toughest endurance tests in the realm of sport.

This isn't the first attempt for Paul, who competed in the marathon for the first time in 1936 and finished 13th out of a large field of runners from all over the world in a time of 2:25. He has since made 11 more attempts, and in 1959-60 he finished 20th. He is now the following year.

John's son Isaac, who has turned out once for the Marlborough and who is now making and living in Manchester, New Hampshire, will also be competing this year and John insists he will finish ahead of his son in the competition.

Snider and Doped

BY JOE REICHLER (AP) - Duke Snider has known since last winter he would be wearing a New York uniform this season but he was hoping it would be the shirt front rather than Mets.

"It was all set for me to come to the Yankees," Snider said Wednesday, "but George Weiss blocked the deal."

There was no bitterness in the 36-year-old outfielder's voice as he spoke of the transaction which sent him from Los Angeles to New York.

"I feel bad, of course," Snider said, "but not about coming to the Mets, although I would have preferred the Yankees. Who wouldn't? But I hated to leave the Dodgers. It was hard."

Come See the CONSUL CORTINA for '63

The DeLorean public in New York apparently doesn't agree with its idol. At Tuesday's opening of the group of the Polo Grounds unfurled a large banner with the words: "Welcome back home, Duke!" Snider was more than 25,000 fans was made up only by the 100 given to the always popular Stan Musial of St. Louis Cardinals.

Like the rest of the Mets, the Duke accomplished little at the plate against right-hander Ernie Broglio, drawing a walk in four times at bat. The Cardinals now have a lead of 4-1.

"I don't have my timing yet," Snider apologized afterwards. "I haven't played much this year."
