UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

(Chap. 25, concluded.)

checked even the sobs of sorrow. They pressed around her in breathless stillness.

"Eva !" said St. Clare, gently.

She did not hear.

"O, Eva, tell us what you see ! What is it ?" said her father.

A bright, a glorious smile passed over her face, and she said, brokenly —"Oh ! love—joy—peace !" gave one sigh, and passed from death unto life !

"Farewell, beloved child ! the bright, eternal doors have closed after thee ; we shall see thy sweet face no more. Oh, woe for them who watched thy entrance into heaven, when they shall wake and find only the cold gray sky of daily life, and thou gone for ever !"

POETRY.

The quaint simplicity and tenderness of the following lines remind one of the unction as well as the rhythm of some of the Catholic lays of the middle age.

EVA.

Dry the tears for holy Eva,
With the blessed angels leave her ;
Of the form so soft and fair
Give to earth the tender care.

For the golden locks of Eva
Let the sunny south-land give her
Flowery pillow of repose.—
Orange-bloom and budding rose.

In the better home of Eva
Let the shining ones receive her,
With the welcome voiced psalm,
Harp of gold and waving palm !

All is light and peace with Eva ;
There the darkness cometh never ;
Tears are wiped, and fetters fall,
And the Lord is all in all.

Weep no more for happy Eva,
Wrong and sin no more shall grieve her :
Care and pain and weariness
Lost in love so measureless.

Gentle Eva, loving Eva,
Child confessor, true believer,
Listener at the Master's knee,
"Suffer such to come to me."

O, for faith like thine, sweet Eva,
Lighting all the solemn river,
And the blessings of the poor
Wafting to the heavenly shore !

SINGULAR CUSTOM.—The Tonquinese and Siamese, people who live in the neighbourhood of China, have a singular custom of blackening their teeth. The process occupies three or four days, and is done to both boys and girls when they are about twelve or fourteen years old. During the whole operation, they never take any nourishment, except of the liquid kind, for fear of being poisoned by swallowing some of the stuff, with which they color their teeth. Every person, high and low, rich and poor, is obliged to undergo this severe operation, as the people allege "it would be a disgrace to human nature to have teeth white as those of dogs or elephants !"

"BURNING ONE'S FINGERS."—It is strange how strong a partiality for anything dangerous is implanted in our minds from the earliest existence. What is there that a child fears, as long as any semblance of pleasure or amusement presents itself ? The cat—that fearful, clawed, whiskered, spitting, hissing, tail-stiffening representative of the tiger—who shall say that we from our tenderest years ever dreaded seizing on the cat—armed though she were with all those terrors—whether by her tail or the nape of her neck her hind legs, or by any amount of fur which our juvenile fist could embrace. Did I ever dream that the poker could prove my enemy? Nurse had turned her back for a moment: I was in front of the fire, the poker was seized with greedy delight, and ere nurse could turn round—I had burnt my fingers. Oftentimes in life do those burnt fingers come back to my memory. Alas ! we are, all of us, daily burning our fingers in some fire, or with some poker or other. And alas ! the burn is too often such as neither cold water, sliced potatoes, turpentine, nor any other household remedy, will heal.

LORD CHANCELLOR HARDWICKE was very fond of entertaining his visitors with the following story of his bailiff, who, having been ordered by his lady to get a sow of a particular description, came one day into the dining-room when full of company, proclaiming with a burst of joy he could not suppress, "I have been at Royston fair, my lady, and I have got a sow exactly of your ladyship's size."

THE GOLDEN KISSES.—Edward IV., to raise money for a war with France, sat himself sundry hours every day to receive contributions from his subjects, who subscribed pretty liberally in consequence of their animosity to the enemy. Among others, a rich, yet niggardly old widow brought £20 (a large sum in those days) to him. This so highly pleased the king, "that he not only returned her thanks," but told her, "For her kindness she should kiss the king;" which being done, the woman pulled out another bag, saying: "Odsbodikins, if kings sell their kisses so cheap, give me 'tother touch of the lips, and here's another £20 for you !" The king smiled at this, took her at her word, and thought his kisses well sold.

A PEDANTIC fellow called for a bottle of hock at a tavern, which the waiter not hearing distinctly, asked him to repeat. "A bottle of hock—hic—hæc—hoc," replied the visitor. After sitting, however, for a long time, and no hock appearing, he ventured to ring again, and enquire into the cause of the delay.—"Did I not order some hock, sir ?—Why is it not brought in ?"—"Because," answered the waiter, who had been taught Latin grammar, "you afterwards declined it."

IT is said to be a bad sign to see a man with his hat off at midnight explaining the principles and theory democracy to a lamp-post.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erw wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that, for a very long period, I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming, that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition, I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant'

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks. (Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASM IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood, with whom I am well acquainted, was affected for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position, which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs, that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.
