'That Memorable Game'

DETROIT Red Wings and their supporters will not soon forget the night of Wednesday, March 14 when they lost a soccer game 3-2 to their arch rivals, the New York Rangers.

It was the night that referee Eddie Powers awarded Andy Bathurst a penalty, that sent Detroit goal, Hank Bassen, threw his stick to stop a clear breakaway by Rangers' Dean Prentice. It was probably the last time that the Red Wings will berth in the Stanley Cup playoffs and plays that do this are merely costly ones. Of course, Detroit has bowed out of contention as yet but the road is rough and rocky, remaining five days and nights of the regular schedule.

We commented last week on Clarence Campbell's edict that there is no such thing as a protest in the National Hockey League. We stated and we repeat that it seems a horrible thing that a team has no appeal if a referee makes an error. I don't consider this too serious because all that happens is that the referee will be reprimanded. Such a reprimand will do the offended club no good whatsoever. They might as well give him a leather medal for the "boner" he pulled.

A CANADIAN Press staff writer, Laurent Chassion, reporting that Detroit-New York game puts his thoughts down in this manner:

"Referee Eddie Powers called the penalty shot WHEN BASSEN THREW HIS STICK IN STOPPING A BREAKAWAY BY NEW YORK'S DEAN PRENTICE. Powers ALLOWED BATHURST to take the shot since he was the LAST MAN TO HANDLE THE PUCK AS IT ROLLED AWAY AFTER BASSEN HAD KNOCKED IT AWAY FROM PRENTICE."

According to this writer Bassen committed no foul on Bathurst and Mr. Powers gave Andy the penalty shot. Since the book says the offended player must take the try on the goal, we are still at a loss to know why Bathurst got the assignment.

It would put Rangers three or four points ahead of the Red Wings. It would put Rangers three or four points ahead of the Red Wings. It would put Rangers three or four points ahead of the Red Wings.

However, there's no court of appeal.

Big One Tonight

The Red Wings will be listening in tonight when Boston Bruins entertain New York Rangers in Beantown.

Let's Stop Nonsense

WE HAVE read loads of copy panning Gal Terriers for their surprise loss to Sweden. A great many writers talk about these foolish penalties the Terriers picked up and ridicule them for getting it.

However Scotty McVie, Regina Leader-Post is most insistent. We agree with Mike Hennessy, Charlottetown Post. Cecil "Bobby" Dowling, has gone to Saint John, N.B., for a throat operation.

Bobby has been bothered with the throat of late but hopes to have things back in tip top shape shortly. He comes to be back from Saint John within ten days.

Cards Blank Torso; Resumes 10 Days

Veteran righthander Larry Jackson, whose jaw was broken last spring in a fight with training camp, has been firing "em up" during the current exhibition season.

Cardinals ace worked the first nine innings, struck out six and yielded only three hits before rookie Paul Foa came on to finish the job.

Meanwhile, New York Yankees resumed their winning ways, bringing their record to 18-1 with 13-10 triumph over Philadelphia at Clearwater.

Three-run homer by pitcher Marshall Bridges and solo job by rookie Pedro Gonzalez powered the fourth-place Cardinals to a 3-1 victory over the Cubs.

In other Florida games, Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Pittsburgh Pirates 4-1 at Tampa.

Bobby Hull Faces Big Task In Weekend NHL Action

MONTREAL (CP) — Bobby Hull faces the highest pinnacle of his young National Hockey League career when Chicago Black Hawks visit Montreal and New York this weekend.

Not only is he closing in on the record of 50 goals in one season, he is also involved in a battle with Andy Bathurst of Rangers for the scoring title.

The battle will probably not be won until Hawks and Rangers face off in New York Sunday, last night of the regular schedule.

Bathurst is ahead, 22 points to 18, and he'll have to stay ahead if he is to become the first Ranger in 20 years to win the title. If he and Hull should be tied in points when the schedule is over, the title goes to the one with more goals.

Hull's 40 goals puts him 21 ahead of Bathurst with two games left for both.

"It could have been a little stickier two seasons ago when Hull won his first scoring title with 81 points over Howie Nowlan, who had 75 points. Hull was only one point behind and both ended up with 39 points.

ics Con Series Lead In Bankers 2-0

The Ramblers had a one-man advantage twice in the first period, but both times Macdonald's strong defensive play held them scoreless.

In the second, Amherst had his back to the wall when Dave Kelly was assessed a five-minute major for spearing Macdonald, but the team held Montreal as Macdonald pulled off several fine saves.

Montreal's offensive effort was more than matched in the rest of the period, the Maritimes champions playing their finest hockey since the series began.

Amherst, which came back strong in the final period of previous serious games, lost its spark in this one and couldn't organize in the last 20 minutes.
