ANOTHER ISLANDER TO THE FRONT.—The friends of Mr. T. F. Norton, formerly of New Glasgow High School, will be pleased to learn that he has been chosen valedictorian for the senior class in Arts at Kentucky University. Mr. Norton won the highest honors in the class of '93, which is an unusually large one.

DONATION.—Miss Sherriden begs to acknowledge with many thanks a most acceptable donation for the P. E. Island Hospital from the members of the Ladies' Hockey Club, viz., two comfortable invalid chairs and two invalid tables, the latter having been made to order by Mark Wright & Co., after the style of those used in St. Margaret's Church Hospital, Boston.

DRAMATIC.—The dramatic entertainment in St. Patrick's Hall, Souris, on Thursday evening, given by the members of the Star Club, was well attended. Everything went through without a hitch. The young men who had charge of the affair are to be congratulated upon the success that attended their first effort to entertain the public.

CHEESE FACTORIES.—We hear that those interested in the proposed East Point cheese factory, owing to the scarcity of fodder and other disadvantages experienced by a number of farmers in that section of the country this spring are inclined to postpone the building of their factory until next year. The contractor for building the one at Lowan Brae, Mr. Lazar White, is busy making preparations to build as soon as the snow leaves. A call has been made upon the stockholders for the amount required for pre-arranged purposes. The contract for building the Little River factory has been let to Keele & Marow. This one is being built not altogether on the cash plan, as each stockholder is allowed to furnish scantling, boards, and other necessary building material in payment of his subscription. The one at St. Peter's Bay is also going ahead. Michael Flynn and William Bulger have the contract for putting up the frame. Others are under way. It looks as though King's County will have a full share of business in the dairying line.

A DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.—Last Tuesday the dwelling house of John Longapie, of Lowan Brae, was burned to ashes. There was no one home at the time except two young girls who were at work picking potatoes in the cellar. The first they knew of the fire was as they were coming up out of the cellar when they found the house all about their heads. They had just time to rush to the door and thus save themselves. Everything in the house, potatoes, seed grain, clothing, dishes, furniture, etc., was destroyed. There was no insurance, and as Longapie is a poor man the charitable disposition are being appealed to in his behalf, and we are glad to hear that the appeal is not being made in vain. Through the generosity of neighbors and other friends, a new house will soon take the place of the old one. Mrs. Longapie is in the United States having gone there last fall to visit a sick daughter.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Edward McLeod returned on Thursday from his business trip to Montreal.

Mr. A. E. Macdonald, purser of the steamer Northumberland, left a day or two ago on a brief visit to Boston.

Messrs. James Paton and Geo. Stanley left Liverpool for New York on the Teutonic on Wednesday.

News Notes.

An extradition treaty between Sweden and the United States has been signed.

The Scotch Catholic pilgrims to Rome on the occasion of the Pope's Episcopal jubilee numbered 135, which is a fair proportion compared with England's 900. They were presented by the Archbishop of St. Andrew's, the Bishop of Aberdeen, Monsignor Campbell, rector of the Scots college at Rome, and Lord Ralph Kerr (brother of the Marquis of Lothian.) Each of the pilgrims was presented separately. The Pope made a long address and blessed the pilgrims and Scotland.

Great Britain has a national debt of about £800,000,000. It was incurred largely in wars which acquired India, made Canada British, relieved the thirteen Colonies from French aggression and extended an empire all over the world, while preserving Europe from the despotism of Louis XIV and Napoleon I. Yet the Globe refers to the British people as paying the interest on great debts which are a legacy from the follies of the past.

The February trade returns in the United States show a continued heavy decline in exports. Compared with February, 1892, the decrease in cotton exports amounted to $11,530,000; in exports of breadstuffs the decline was $10,868,000; in provisions there was a falling off of $1,565,000; in cattle decrease of $1,046,000; in oil, $507,000. The decline in these five principal articles amounts to over $25,000,000. Not only have quantities fallen but so have values. The average export price of wheat was 78 7/8 cents per bushel as against $1.05, 9 last year.
