grunted once or twice and then went on with her own business of filling her stomach. Perhaps the grunts were a warning not to climb too high. Anyway, Baby Porky was satisfied to climb only about halfway to where his Mother was. Even that was quite a climb for a baby only two days old. After a while, he backed down and went back to his nursery under the roots of the old stump. There he curled up for a nap until Mother should come down and nurse him.

FURTHER PURGES LOOM

BERLIN, Sept. 5 —(AP)—Further purges in the Communist administration of Soviet-occupied East Germany were indicated today by sharp press attacks against unsatisfactory performances in socialized industry and agriculture. The Russian zone was shocked last week by the expulsion of its high officials of the Communist regime from the Party.
