COMMISSION

that such a study would ever be undertaken.

"Every opportunity will be given the commission to make an exhaustive examination of higher education in the province."

Premier Shaw made his announcement following a cabinet meeting yesterday.

There were indications before the meeting that the cabinet would make a decision on when a plebiscite may be held in the potato industry to allow growers to determine whether or not they would prefer a new potato marketing board and a one-desk selling agency for potatoes.

FEW LEGAL KINKS

Agriculture minister Andrew MacRae said after the meeting that there are still "a few legal kinks on the mechanical aspects of a plebiscite to be ironed out."

Premier Shaw added that the matter is being worked out by Mr. MacRae, the provincial federation of agriculture and the provincial potato producers association.

The premier said that the cabinet has completed consideration of new regulations that will conform with recent amendments to the Liquor Control Act to provide for the sale of liquor by the bottle and by the glass in licensed establishments in the province. He added, however, that the government is not quite ready to make the regulations public.

Conservative members of the Legislature met in caucus in Charlottetown yesterday afternoon and it is believed that the members were advised of the cabinet's decisions regarding the liquor regulations. Also thought to be discussed at the caucus was the government's thinking on the plebiscite requested by potato growers.

Rev. Fiander Addresses H & S On The Effects Of Prejudice

KENSINGTON — Rev. E. J. Fiander, St. Mark's Anglican Church, Kensington, was guest speaker at the Kensington Regional Home and School meeting held recently in the school auditorium.

"Prejudice" was the subject of his address, and the speaker dealt with such questions as "Why does it exist?" How does it begin?" "What is it?" and "How can we live with it?"

"Prejudice" he said, "means to judge before", and among reasons for it's existance, are lack of knowledge. Personal contact helps to overcome prejudice affecting a group which may be considered inferior because they are different. Children learn prejudice from parents, and may also be taught to respect parents of a minority group, by their parents and teachers.

A worthwhile discussion followed, on the thought provoking address. The president, Boyd Beairsto, who presided, introduced the speaker, who was thanked by Mrs. Gordon Cousins, Principal of Kensington Elementary School.

Mrs. Austin Pendergast and Mrs. John Bernard were appointed a nominating committee to bring in a slate of officers for 1964-65.

Mrs. Phillip McInnis, Mrs. J.K. Zielinski, Mrs. Maurice Cousins, Mrs. Robert Carruthers and Mrs. Keith Ramsay were appointed to attend the provincial meing on June 1.

The principal, Mrs. Cousins announced a Rally Day to be held at the school on the last Friday in May or the first Friday in June.

A letter was read from Mrs. L.G. Ramsay, chairman of the Jubillee Day Quen committee, asking the Home and School to sponser a candidate for Queen, and Mrs. Phillip McInnis, Mrs. Boyd Beairsto and Mrs. Claude Hogg, were appointed a committee to select a contestant.

The attendance cup was again won by Mrs. Webster's room.

A pantry sale was planned for May 30.
