THE Boston Provincialist reports that Mr. George Davies, of Charlottetown, is now the superintendent of three important departments at Jordan, Marsh & Co's.

MISS EMMA MARSHALL, of Woodlawn, King's county, N. S., daughter of Richard Marshall, cut her foot badly. Lock jaw setting in, she died within 12 hours.

REMEMBER the auction sale, by A. McNeill, to-morrow (Thursday) August 18th, at 12 o'clock noon, of Mrs. Breen's property between F. McKenna's and Hermans & Sons, Queen Street.

WE are given to understand that the Charlottetown Lawn Tennis Club have been obliged to decline the invitation of the Dorchester, N. B. Club, owing to a match being arranged between the Charlottetown Club and a team from the flagship which is shortly expected here.

UPWARDS of five hundred people left by special train this morning to attend the mammoth tea at Tracadie. The east and west also contributed largely. An immense number drove out from the city. The weather is beautiful, and those present are no doubt enjoying themselves.

A NEW YORK firm are advertising a brand of gin they manufacture as a great cure for all disease. Of course they publish certificates. One of these says: "After using six bottles I felt like a different man." We believe it, for we know many a one on a far less quantity, who has looked like a different man.

THE tickets for Wilson's Ministrels are having a fine sale, and they will, no doubt, be greeted by a large house. Every paper we have seen speaks very highly of them, and especially of Prof. Burton's Dog Circus. Don't fail to see their grand street parade at noon tomorrow. Tickets for sale at Reddin's Drug Store.

THE new pipe organ for the Queen Square Methodist Church arrived in the steamer Carroll last evening, and will be placed in position as soon as possible. Mr. George H. Ryder, of Boston, is the maker, and will personally superintend its erection. The total cost, we understand, is in the neighborhood of $3,000.

WHILE a number of little girls were at play in a warehouse on King Street yesterday morning one of the number, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. W. H. Batt fell down stairs with a two-year-old baby in her arms. She was knocked insensible, in which state she continued until this forenoon. It is feared she has concussion of the brain. The baby escaped without sustaining any very serious injury.

WE understand that our policemen are very active in compelling the youthful street musicians to "move on," while they allow other less musical and much more annoying nuisances to move about at their own sweet will going where they please and making all the noise they have a mind to. The unfairness of this proceeding is the subject of much comment. The boys furnish fairly good music, and are, so far as we can learn, not any more nuisance in the matter of blocking up the streets than the larger and more noisy aggregation. We believe in according equal rights to all, and on this account protest against the way the boys are being used.

Do not forget to attend the East Point tea on Wednesday the 24th August, on the beautiful grounds of Mr. Donald Gillis, near Big Pond. There is no finer place on the Island during the summer months to spend a few days than at the North Shore. The distance from Harmony to the tea grounds is 4½ miles, and 18 from St. Peter's Bay. This latter along the north side is a nice drive at present. Good music, bagpipes and violin, and games of all kinds will be provided. Railway tickets at one fare will be issued on Tuesday 23rd, from Wellington and all stations east to Harmony, good to return up to and on 31st, Aug., giving parties a few days in the country fishing, etc., after attending the tea.

THE steamer Carroll, with the usual general cargo and the following passengers, arrived from Boston at half past six o'clock last evening: Mr. and Mrs. C J French, Mrs Keller, W C Hunt, Mrs Harriet Baker, Mrs Brigham, Wm Everett, Miss O'Brien, Mrs McNeill, Miss McDonald, Miss McKenna, J K Dodge, J H Burhoe, Miss Dodge, Thos Reed, B J Graham, F W Maynard, A H Munroe, E Flagg, Herbert Laughton, Miss Alice F Daley, Miss Worth, Mrs Cormack, Mrs Jennie Milton, Miss Kate McLeod, Miss Power, Miss Barnes, Miss Mary McKenna, Miss Jessie McKenzie, Miss Ella Pierson, Miss Abbie French, Mrs. Annie Geeny, Miss Mary Spence, Mrs. Murchison, Mrs. Vose, Miss Larabee, Mrs Webster, P McIntyre, C Campbell, M Hennessey, D D McDonald, J W McDonald, A McDonald, J P Vaughan, T J Keenan.

THE Moncton Transcript says: "On the day of the Presbyterian picnic (Wednesday last) while Mrs. John Marks and some of the children were away at the picnic, the servant girl decamped, taking with her a variety of household goods, some of greater than ordinary value, and went to P. E. Island. Since then every day has brought to light the fact of many additional articles being missing; in fact she must have made an extensive haul. It is learned that her destination on the Island has been ascertained, and an officer, armed with the necessary documents, has gone over to interview her and require her presence here. The girl called herself Nellie, but always managed to evade giving a distinct answer when asked her second name. She was smart and clever looking, and managed to make herself very agreeable and obliging in the house. The officer is expected back today or to-morrow."

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

More Swindling.

MONTREAL, Aug. 16.

Jacques Cartier Bank was to-day swindled out $25,000 by means of a cheque which had been raised from $25 to $25,000. The cheque was presented by Joseph Duelos, of Joseph Duelos & Co., commission merchants, and cashed. Duelos says that a young man, a friend of his, named Charles Page, head book-keeper with Messrs. Beauchemin & Son, came to him in the morning, saying that he was not well known at the bank, asked if Duelos would be good enough to go to the Jacquis Cartier Bank and get the checque cashed for the firm with whom Page was engaged. He complied and gave Page the money and has not seen him since. Page was at one time book-keeper for Glover & Brass, importers, and had to cross the line on account of some fraudulent entries passed by him, and by which at the time it was realized, he had succeeded in defrauding both out of considerable sums of money.

LATER.

Page, who swindled the Jacques Cartier Bank out of, say $25,000, was arrested at Versailles, Que., about 18 miles from the border line. All the money was found in his possession.

Sir John's Movements.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 16.

Sir John and Lady Macdonald visited the different places of interest in the city this morning, including the Cathedral, Barracks and Drill Hall of the Infantry School. At 1 o'clock this afternoon Lady Macdonald held a reception at Government House. The weather was not all that could be wished for, and thus many were hindered from attending. After the reception the Premier and Lady Macdonald drove to Marysville, and visited the cotton mill, the church and other places. Sir John was much taken up with the place, and spoke highly of its appearance. To-morrow morning the Premier and Lady Macdonald leave for St. John.

The Railway Horror.

CHATWORTH, Ill., Aug. 16.

The damages on account of the accident will be little short of say $1,000,000. Probably 80 people have died. Five thousand dollars is the limit that can be collected for the dead persons. This one item will figure up say $400,000. The seriously wounded may collect say $10,000 to $15,000 each. Add to this the loss to business and damage to property and the disaster will cost the company say $1,000,000.

In Honor of Prince Ferdinand.
