Conference of N. B. and P. E. Island at St. Stephen.

(From our own correspondent.)

EDUCATIONAL MEETING.

Chair was occupied by the President. On the platform were Revs. F. Smallwood, J. Shenton, C. H. Paisley, A. M., J. Burwash, A. M., and Dr. Stewart. After singing prayer was offered by Rev. F. Smallwood, Rev. C. H. Paisley read the report. During the last four years an average of a little over $6000 have been raised. This Conference has raised during the last year:

St. John District	$ 68 82
Fredericton District	169.54
Miramichi District	63.56
Sackville District	131.16
St. Stephen District	22.08
P. E. Island District	125.06
	$580.22

This is a gross increase over the previous year of $44. Dr. Stewart was the speaker. He said that every true revival of religion was characterized by a revival of true education. John Wesley he said was an earnest advocate of education, and quoted his advice to his preachers "Preach on the subject of Education." The educational work of our Churches took two departures. One was the right training of our Ministers, and the other was to provide a higher education for the young people under proper religious safeguards. We had advanced in some respects on the old country in the matter of education. There, the Ministers were educated apart from others, here, we had co-education. This gave the Ministers a much broader and more thorough education than they would receive if educated alone. He eloquently and triumphantly vindicated Sackville from some charges made against it. The speech made a decided impression upon the audience. Rev. J. Shenton spoke next. He mentioned the good which he had received at Sackville. He spoke of the amount of money paid last year in the Province of New Brunswick on the public schools. In a few years he said these educated young people would fill important offices in society, and demanded for them a thoroughly educated ministry. Rev. J. Burwash would not speak because of the lateness of the evening.

After taking up a collection and singing the Doxology the Benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. H. Paisley.

Rev. D. D. Currie preached at 7 o'clock on Tuesday morning, and Rev. J. Crisp at the same time on Friday morning.

$6,000 DEBT PAID.

A debt of over $6,000 has burdened the St. Stephen Church for some years. A short time ago Z. Chipman, Esq., offered to give two dollars to every one subscribed by the people. Last Sabbath after the sermon he spoke of God's goodness to him and the many mercies that he was continually receiving. He is nearly blind, but seems all the more thankful because he has his other senses. In a few minutes the whole debt was raised. The people separated to their homes with thankful hearts.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Conference opened in usual form—Prayer offered by Rev. Mr. Day leading in prayer.

A telegram conveying fraternal greetings was received from the Nova Scotia Conference. Several requests were made and granted for brethren to leave the Conference over the week, and to supply the pulpits in St. John, Woodstock, Fredericton and other places. A telegram was received from the Newfoundland Conference to the effect that the Basis of Union had been carried by a large majority. It produced immense excitement. The brethren cheered again and again. Rev. W. W. Colpitts asked permission to say good-bye to the Conference. The preachers, one by one, shook hands with him, wishing him God speed in his work. Rev. J. Shenton and Dr. Inch were appointed Treasurers of the Centennial Fund. The Secretary read a telegram which was to be sent to the Nova Scotia Conference. Rev. T. Marshall read the report of the Contingent Fund. It was accepted. Rev. R. Duncan read the report of the Missionary Committee. A long discussion was held on the Children's Fund, and the injustice it does to some ministers. It was resolved to have the matter up for discussion on Tuesday morning. Report of the Special Committee was received.

Afternoon Session.

METHODIST UNION.

The subject of Union was brought before the Conference by a resolution moved by Dr. Pickard and seconded by Rev. R. Duncan, in favor of accepting Union. Dr. Pickard as a member of the Union Committee explained the action of that committee. It was a remarkably able speech. Rev. R. Duncan said that he would not speak now. Dr. Pope moved an amendment to the effect that while cordially approving of organic Union, we reject the Basis. He was in favor of laymen not only in the Conference but also man for man on our Stationing Committee. He made several objections against the Basis. He made a most effective speech His appeal to the Conference to reject the Basis was powerful. Dr. Stewart spoke in favor of the Basis. He rejoiced that the first practical effects of the great Ecumenical Council were to be worked out in the Methodist Church of Canada. He claimed that some of the essentials of Methodism were touched by the Basis. It was a most powerful plea to accept the Basis. Rev. Wm. Dobson spoke in opposition to the Basis. Rev. C. Evans spoke in favor of Basis. All agree that Union is desirable, and in order to obtain there must be mutual concession. He spoke well in favor of it. Rev. T. Marshall spoke in opposition to the Basis. He raised several objections to the Basis.

EVENING SESSION.

Dr. Rice, President of the General Conference was introduced to the Conference. He was heartily received. After explaining why he was here he took his seat.

UNION.

Rev. T. Marshall resumed in favor of the amendment. He spoke on the financial part of the basis. Rev. J. R. Narraway, A. M., spoke in favor of the motion. He made a most amusing commencement. He acknowledged that he was moved by sentiment; but explained that sentiment belonged to every good cause. He made a most effective speech in favor of the laymen. Said the Basis was a compromise in which every party must give up something. He discussed the various objections against the Basis. Rev. J. Shenton spoke in favor of the amendment. Said he was sorry to differ from his brethren on this subject. He made several remarks to support his position. Rev. J. Reid was opposed to the Union. He delivered a well prepared speech. He mentioned that a majority of our ministers had not accepted the Basis.

Dr. Stewart moved that vote be now taken.

28 were in favor of the amendment.

40 were in favor of the motion. Motion carried.

The Basis of amendment was thus carried by a majority of 12. Conference adjourned soon after, 10 o'clock. The debate was very able and good tempered throughout.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Conference opened in the usual form. Rev. J. Read read the Pastoral Report, which was an admirable one, and was well received. There was a long discussion relative to the report of the special committee with regard to the Ministers whose names had been connected with what is called the Moncton Land Lottery. A committee consisting of Revs. W. Dobson, E. Evans, and J. A. Clarke, A. M., was appointed to look into the matter and report to Conference. Rev. A. D. McCully, B. D., was examined on the doctrine of the Church by Rev H. Daniel. It was a thorough examination, and highly creditable to Mr. McCully. He was unanimously voted to be received into full connection and ordained. A good deal of routine business was disposed of. There was no afternoon session. Some committees occupied most of the time.

SABBATH SCHOOL MEETING.

Ex-President Phinney in the chair. There was a small audience. After singing, prayer was offered by Rev. T. L. Williams. Rev. W. W. Brewer read the report which was encouraging. It showed that there were 164 schools, 1,204 teachers and officers, 8,882 scholars, 15,505 volumes in the libraries. For Missionary purposes, $1,061.37; for School purposes, $3,250.27; and for General Sabbath School Fund, $81.01. Rev. A. Lucas spoke of our Sabbath School literature as an evidence of our desire to train well the young. He made mention of the spirit in which this work was done. He spoke of the necessity of the Holy Spirit in our work. Rev. W. J. Kirby next spoke of the good that he had received in the Sabbath School. He was rejoiced to know that there had been an increase in the number of reported conversions. He mentioned that many of the most holy men and women were converted to God in early youth. The Church should hold the relation to the young of a parent to a child. Rev. J. Seller spoke of the duty of parents to the Sabbath School Childhood to the most beneficial form of humanity. A parent must remember to bring up a child in the way that it should go. What the parent is, the child is likely to be. The grand purpose of the Sabbath School is to bring the child to God. Made some appropriate remarks relative to the necessity of teachers being prepared for their work. Teachers make greater impressions by their examples than by their precepts. Prayers ought to be made by parents for the success of the Sabbath School. He spoke of the great influence of a godly father or a godly mother. He urged parents to honor God by training up their children in the right way. After collection, and singing of the Doxology, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. Seller.

A New Swindle.

HOW CANADIANS ARE VICTIMIZED BY CONFIDENCE MEN ON ROADS CENTERING IN BUFFALO.

A new confidence game has lately been discovered, and it is practised almost entirely on trains running between Buffalo and Canadian cities. Canadians are usually the victims, and a well-dressed and urbane sharp works it on them by asking them for a $20 Canadian bill in return for American greenbacks. The confidence man tells his victim that Canadian bills will be subject to a discount, and the visitor from the Queen's dominion is only too glad to effect a change. The favorite way of doing the business is to give back three good $5 bills and a bad one for the $20 bill. The bogus five is generally a pretty good counterfeit, and the fraud is not discovered until the man tries ineffectually to buy something with it. The operations have been conducted so quietly that the railroad detectives do not appear to have tumbled to the racket, and most of those who are bitten prefer to pocket their loss in silence to being held up to the possible ridicule of their friends and the public generally. A well-known shoe merchant of Buffalo became aware of such a case a few days ago. A resident of Hamilton called at his store and made a purchase, tendering a $5 bill in payment. The bill looked all right, and the genuineness of the greenback was not called into question until the return to the store of the proprietor. He detected the counterfeit, and being unable to find his customer in the city wrote to him. In response the Hamilton man explained how he came into possession of the bad bill, and offered to replace it with a good one the next time he came to Buffalo if nothing was said about it.

Five hundred and seventy-five cars of freight, inward and outward, were handled at the St. John Station of the Intercolonal Railway for the week ending on the 23rd June.
