Cartwright's Insult to the Highlanders.

After, in one of his "pic nic speeches," charging Sir John McDonald with thieving, Mr. Cartwright said:—

Perhaps he (Sir John) could not help it, as coming from a race of thieves and plunderers, his hereditary instincts were too strong to be suppressed.

MR. BRECKEN'S REPLY.
In his speech at the Liberal-Conservative pic nic on Saturday Mr. Brecken made the following allusion to this insulting language, used by the Finance Minister towards the Scottish Highlanders:—

I see before me the descendants of some of those true hearted Highlanders who rallied to the standard of the Royal Charlie, and, fighting nobly in his cause, left their bones to bleach on wild Culloden's moor. When fortune deserted him, and a price was laid on his head, he wandered through the Highlands and Western Isles, with no other companion than the faithful Flora McDonald, and no other defence than the loyalty and patriotism of the high-souled sons of the Gael. The canopy of heaven was his only covering; the stars of the firmament were his only sentinel; the heather was his only couch. Every effort was made to arrest him; every inducement was offered to betray him, but those who knew his hiding places scorned the proffered bribe. His informer might have stepped from poverty to luxury; his betrayal would have transformed the pauper into a millionaire; but the fairest jewel in England's diadem could not swerve the Highlanders from their devotion, or break the bond of affectionate attachment which bound them to the royal boy. As long as literature exists, the story of the wanderings of Prince Charles, will be read with thrilling interest, and the unselfish devotion of the Scotch Highlanders will excite the admiration of mankind. Yet these are the men whom Mr. Richard John Cartwright accuses of possessing "predatory instincts," and stigmatises as "born thieves;" and Mr. Cartwright is the man who has the brazen effrontery to ask the Highlanders of this Province for their political support; and Mr. Peter Sinclair is the Scotchman who obsceniously fawns upon this wanton insulter of his countrymen, and who is now seeking your suffrages, in order to retain this foul-mouthed slanderer in office.

"PURE STANDARD ELEVATORS."

How They Elevated the Standard.
"THE THIRTY WHO FELL BY THE WAY."

AFTER the elections of 1874 the following pure "Standard Elevators" fell before the Courts of the land—by virtue of an Act made and passed for the purpose of suppressing bribery and other corrupt practices at elections:—

- Sibley, Tremblay,
- Jodoin, McDonald (Cornwall),
- McNab,
- McGregor, Wood,
- Chisholm, Cameron (S. Huron),
- Irving, Walker,
- Norris, McKenzie (Montl),
- Devlin, Stuart,
- Coupl, Kerr,
- Biggar, McDougall (South Ren-
- Murray, frew),
- Aylmer, Cook,
- Wilkes, O'Donohue,
- Prevost, McLennan,
- Higinbotham, Dymond,
- Cushing,

Some instances, in the above list, are extremely interesting. Mr. Cook, M. P. for North Simcoe, an earnest Liberal and sound Reformer, testified as follows at his own election trial in 1874:—

"In the spring of 1871, I canvassed the constituency for one month or six weeks; in 1872, I canvassed the constituency for a similar length of time. Speaking from memory, the expenses of my canvass in 1871 would reach about $10,000; it might amount to $13,000, for I do not charge my mind with $2,000 or $3,000 in election matters. I have been examining my accounts for election expenses in 1872, and, making a rough estimate, I place them at $13,000 to $15,000. They certainly did not exceed the latter sum. That amount I paid myself. I do not know anything about sums paid by my friends. In 1874 the expenditures were much smaller, because I thought

I would have the sympathy of the people in consequence of my expenditures in 1872, and that my opponent would have to carry the Pacific scandal on his back."

Here is a confession of an expenditure of $25,000 in corrupting the electors of one constituency. Mr. Cook has again been chosen as the Ministerial standard bearer for his county at the coming election. The "Party of Purity," which slurs Sir John for using money at election contests, has not demanded that Mr. Cook shall step down and out.

Then we have Major Walker, of London. As far as could be ascertained from the evidence, some $20,000 was spent in his case. In his election trial, in which he had the "bad eminence" to be both unseated and disqualified, Mr. Justice Gwynne delivered his opinion as follows:—

"We can as readily believe it possible for the respondent to have been immersed in the lake and to have been taken out dry as that the acts of bribery which the evidence discloses have been committed on his behalf, almost under his eyes, in his daily path, with means of corruption proceeding from his own headquarters, and from the hands of his confidential agent, could have been committed otherwise than with his knowledge and consent."

Yet the Reformers, with mouths full of abuse of Sir John for using money at elections, have not withdrawn their affection from Major Walker. He is the candidate of the party at the pending election for London, and the picnic companion of Mr. McKenzie in his western wanderings.

In South Huron, Mr. M. C. Cameron admitted in his evidence that $10,000 to $14,000 was paid to win that county in the interests of purity of elections.

The Hon. Malcolm Cameron, in that remarkable confession which he made and published before his death, stated he had spent $6,000 in contesting Russell, the expenditure (these are his words) "having a good effect in subsequently securing that constituency for the Reformers." And he complained that his party had not reimbursed him, as they promised to do, thus showing that the expenditure was not a personal, but a party affair.

HOW THEY MADE A "BIG PUSH."

The following is the letter by which the Hon. Geo. Brown, of the Globe—the head Reform manipulator—the power behind the throne—inaugurated the election fund on behalf of the Reform party. We give the salient points of this model epistle, known as THE BIG PUSH LETTER:—

"Toronto, Aug. 15th, 1872.

"HON. JOHN SIMPSON,
Pres't. Ontario Bank.

"MY DEAR SIR,—The fight goes bravely on. We have expended our strength in aiding outlying counties and helping our city candidates. But a BIG PUSH has to be made on Saturday and Monday for the East and West divisions.

We, therefore, make our GRAND STAND on Saturday. There are but a half-dozen people that can come down HANDSOMELY, and we have done all we possibly can do, and we have to ask a few outsiders to aid us. WILL YOU BE ONE? I have been urged to write you, and comply accordingly. Things look well all over the Province. Things look bright in Quebec!

"Faithfully yours,
"GEORGE BROWN."

RESULTS OF THE BIG PUSH.

It is estimated that Mr. Simpson's bank has actually received substantial benefits to the extent of $20,000 per annum, in the shape of income from Government deposits given the bank without interest.

HOW THEY "MANIPULATED" THE P. E. ISLANDERS—VIZ: BY SENATOR SIMPSON, D—D SCOUNDRELS.

When Laird, Sinclair, Yeo, Perry and McIntyre agreed or consented to support the "Pure Standard Elevators" it was understood that one of the Island representatives should have a seat in the Cabinet. Laird accordingly got the seat. But after a year or two Laird was sent out to civilize the wild Indians of the Great Northwest and an Ontario schoolmaster named Mills took his place. Yet Sinclair, Yeo, Perry and McIntyre meekly continued their support of the "Standard Elevators. For further particulars apply to Hon. D. Davies.
