Some of the Evidence.

Some very interesting and instructive evidence has been given before the Royal Commission on Prohibition...

Bishop Courtney has also been on the stand. He has said to Prohibition, go thy way for this time...

A different kind of evidence was that given by Stipendiary Motion, of Halifax, and it is well worth re-publishing here.

Drunkenness during the last six years he was impressed had increased in the city. He would read a statistical report...

THE ADDRESS

Of Retiring President Ives Before the Convention.

Timely and Practical.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—It has become customary for the president of this association to open the proceedings of each annual meeting with an address.

And first I wish to draw attention to some things suggested in the opening address of my predecessor in office. The desirability of having our association incorporated, was last year dealt with to some slight extent.

At our last annual meeting I had the honor of introducing a matter which received the attention of the association. The proposal was to shorten the day's school sessions in summer and lengthen them in winter...

When our last annual meeting was convened in Charlottetown there was in educational circles a great deal of unrest. Officials were being dismissed and replaced by new men.

ward we are told does not consist in things material. They are rather the satisfaction of doing good, of benefiting others and of moulding the minds that are to shape the destiny of the future...

The teacher above all others ought to have a cultivated mind—a mind fed from all the available sources of thought and he should be able to have the means at his hand of keeping abreast of the times in the intellectual plan at least.

have since had the opportunity of making myself acquainted with the works of some of the masters and I am sure that had I been required to do so before receiving my certificate I should have been able to avoid many mistakes.

THE above Hotel, which is centrally situated and within five minutes walk of the Railway Station, and in close proximity to the Post Office, Banks and all the business houses of the city, has been improved, thoroughly renovated and refurnished.
