CAR DEMOLISHED AND BURNED ...

Two men escaped death in this Volkswagen which was in collision with a three-ton truck near Georgetown Saturday night.

... AFTER COLLISION WITH TRUCK

This 1960 three-ton truck was extensively damaged in the collision with the above Volkswagen about 11 o'clock Saturday night.

The driver of the truck, Boyd Edward MacKinnon of Montague, is reported to have sustained injuries to the arm and shoulder. A passenger in the truck was Robert MacLean of New Perth. The box from the truck was thrown clear of the two vehicles and lodged in the opposite ditch.

What fans claimed to be the most exciting race card of the year, ran down the curtain Saturday night on the 1964 Ontario edition of Old Home Week festivities at the Charlottetown Driving Park and Exhibition grounds.

Three Hospitalized After 3 Accidents Sat.

MONTAGUE — Two accidents on Saturday resulted in at least two from each being sent to Charlottetown hospital and a third of a imported car rolling over all being investigated by Montague Detachment of RCMP.

The first occurred Saturday evening about 8:40 p.m. at Peakes between two cars and a tractor resulting in Ernest Smith, and Patricia Smith both of Peakes and Patrick Burns, of M. Stewart being injured. The accident occurred between a Volkswagen believed driven by Mary Francis Georgina Smith, a car thought to have been driven by Arthur Joseph Burke of M. Stewart and a tractor driven by Lawrence Louis Hendrickson of Peakes. RCMP are investigating.

At 11 p.m. on Saturday night, a Volkswagen was completely demolished and burned following a collision with a 1960 three-ton truck on the outskirts of Georgetown. This accident resulted in Gerald Cronin and Herbert Williams of Cardigan being rushed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

It was also reported that Boyd Edward MacKinnon of Montague was a passenger, Dr. John Bonnell responded to the call.

The third accident about 8:00 p.m. Saturday night on the outskirts of Montague on the Commercial Road did not involve another vehicle. A Volkswagen driven by Sidney Beck rolled over causing considerable damage but neither he nor his passenger, David MacKinnon was injured.

Pulp Loaded At Geo'town

GEORGETOWN — The Norwegian freighter MV Ase loaded 1,200 cords of pulpwood here today for the European market. The ship arrived Thursday from Dublin, Ireland.

The wood here was loaded from the Henderson Lumber Co. yard.

14 Homeless After Blaze

SOURIS—Fire at Souris Lane Road Saturday destroyed a two-story dwelling belonging to Mr. and Mrs. James Longphigh. Lost in the blaze, which started around 3 p.m., were most of the couple's furniture and all clothing except what occupants of the building were wearing at the time.

The blaze is believed to have been started from a fire. The Souris Fire Department arrived on the scene, but was unable to save the house.

The 14 occupants of the home, which included the couple's children and grandchildren, are staying with relatives.

They had left the same plane earlier after landing two hours later than expected at Vancouver Airport.

At the hotel where about 200 youngsters waited—some from 5:30 a.m.—aircraft turned into hells when planes started to taxi for the first time since early a.m. of the afternoon. A crowd of 100 youngsters waited for the first time since early a.m. of the afternoon. A crowd of 100 youngsters waited for the first time since early a.m. of the afternoon.

More than 100 reporters and cameramen crammed a 30 by 20-foot room for a press conference that yielded no information. The temperature was blistering.

In the Beatles appeared a good humor.

John Lennon said they were late arriving because "we had to go back to get deloused," referring to the aircraft's mid-flight detour to allow the group's passports to be stamped at Seattle Airport. Asked if he minded if a line of girls George Harrison replied: "We don't fight off the girls—the public."

Wayne And Shuster Program Plays Centre Theatre Tonight

Canada's most famous comedy team, accompanied by a cast of 27 stage and television personalities, begin a two-week engagement tonight at Confederation Centre Theatre.

Johnny Wayne and Frank Shuster arrived here by plane Saturday evening with their supporting company to begin receiving honours which will mark their return to the Canadian stage after an absence of nearly nine years.

The gum-chewing, wisecracking pair teamed up with the crowd gathered at the airport to greet the celebrities, and then boarded Dr. Frank Mac-
