FOR THE WOMEN

As His mother Used to Do.

He criticised her puddings and he found fault with her cake; He wished she'd make such busciut as his mother used to make; She didn't wash the dishes and she didn't make a stew, Nor even mend his stockings as his mother used to do.

His mother had six children, but by night her work was done; His wife seemed drudging, always, yet she only had the one, His mother always was well dressed, his wife would be so, too, If only she would manage as his mother used to do.

Ah, well! She was not perfect, though she tried to do her best, Until at length she thought her time had come to have a rest; So when one day he went the same old rigmarole all through, She turned and boxed his ears, just as his mother used to do.

Sleep and Health.

It is not sleep alone that rests the brain cell, though sleep is absolutely essential to recuperation of the brain as a whole. But not all parts of the brain are involved in any one kind of mental effort. The blood supply of the brain is so arranged that by expansion or contraction of different arteries parts of the brain may be flushed with blood and other parts dammed off, so to speak, somewhat as the various currents of an irrigated field are regulated by the gardener. And as rapid flow of blood is essential to great mental activity, this means that one part of the brain may be very actively at work while another part is resting and recuperating. Thus it is that a person suffering from brain fatigue may leave his desk and go out into the fields with a bicycle, and, by diverting his mind, give the overworked cells a chance to rest and recuperate. But it must not be overlooked that such exercise involves other brain cells, which, in turn become exhausted, and that in the end for the recuperation of the brain as a whole, sleep is absolutely essential. No recreation, no medicine, no stimulant will take its place. The man who does not give himself sufficient hours of sleep, or who is unable to sleep when he makes the effort, it literally burning away his brain substance and can no more keep on indefinitely in this way than a locomotive can run on indefinitely without getting fresh supplies of fuel.—New York Sun.

Motherhood as a Profession.

"Ideal motherhood is the work not of instinct, but of enlightened knowledge, conscientiously acquired and carefully digested," writes Helen Watterson Moody, in the Ladies' Home Journal. "If maternity is an instinct, motherhood is a profession; and yet many a girl undertakes it with less understanding of its duties and less anxiety for their discharge than she gives to the selection of the tailor who is to make her new gowns, or the costumes of the bridesmaids in her wedding procession. It is quite the fashion, nowadays, in well-to-do families, to provide the daughters with some special training by means of which they could earn their own bread and butter if the family fortune should

Tortured by Itching

Women are almost driven Insane.

Instant Relief in Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

One of the most distressing symptoms imaginable is the almost unbearable itching which is an accompaniment of Leucorrhoea or whites. The nerves are irritated by the poisonous discharge, and the result is an itching which is only rendered more excruciating by rubbing or scratching.

Especially at night, when the body is warm, the patient is tormented beyond the powers of human endurance. Sleep or rest is out of the question. Nervousness, irritability and despondency are a natural result.

In these offices there are on the file thousands of letters from grateful women who have found in Dr. Chase's Ointment a quick and certain cure for this itching to which women are subject.

During the expectant period many women suffer similar agony from itching of the parts, or itching piles, which are absolutely cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The first application of this great discovery of Dr. A. W. Chase will afford prompt relief. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

suddenly fail. It is held to be altogether wise and proper to educate a daughter to a contingency, yet while nineteen out of twenty of our girls marry and become mothers, no training whatever for the real profession of their lives is thought to be necessary. Any practicing physician will tell you that four-fifths of the illness among children could be avoided by proper knowledge and care on the part of the mothers, and yet our girls feel that they must take up college settlement work, and scientific whist and the banjo, to get a little excitement into their lack-lustre lives until the great excitement of marriage comes."

Brushing Improves the Hair.

The very best brushes should always be chosen, and at the very least one hundred strokes a day should be vigorously administered. The bristles of the brush should not be so hard as to drag the hair out in case of a tangle obstructing their course. Nor should they be yielding. It is useless to brush the hair unless the skin of the head be brushed as well. The friction stimulates it and makes the hair grow. Brushing the hair with slow and languid strokes is simply useless. Vigor and intention are necessary to produce a really good effect and induce the bright, healthy gloss that hair should have.—Ladies' Home Journal.

SEED WHEAT

DEAR SIR,—

I am very glad to be able to inform you that after testing the WHITE FIFE WHEAT, imported by you from the North West last fall, I have no hesitation in recommending it to the farmers of P. E. Island.

I sowed twenty grains without making any special selection, and, out of the twenty, nineteen grew strong and healthy.

Farmers in this section of the country pronounce your seed wheat the best sample that they have seen imported to this Island.

Yours etc.,
